Summary of the Audit Committee Report	123

Dear Stockholders:

We present the Management Report to Individual and Consolidated Financial Statements of Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. (Banco Santander or Bank) related to the period ended June 30, 2017, prepared in accordance with accounting practices set by Brazilian Corporate Law, the standards of the National Monetary Council (CMN), the Central Bank of Brazil (Bacen) and document template provided in the Accounting National Financial System Institutions (Cosif) and the Exchange Commission (CVM), that does not conflict with the rules of Bacen.

The consolidated financial statements in accordance with the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) for the period ended June 30, 2017, were disclosed simultaneously on the website www.santander.com.br/ri.

1) Macroeconomic Environment

The rising uncertainties in the political arena should postpone the approval of fiscal reforms, especially the social security reform, which has intensified market concerns about the health of Brazilian public accounts in the medium to long-term horizon. Consequently, this worse prognosis on the fiscal side may reduce the pace of recovery of Brazilian economic activity in the coming years, mainly due to lower investment growth.

Despite the uncertainties in the recent period, the main domestic financial assets presented a degree of deterioration much lower than the observed between the second half of 2015 and the begin of 2016. For example, the exchange rate weakened only 6% from mid-May to end of June, a much smoother move than the depreciation seen at other periods. Among the main explanatory factors for that greater resilience of the Brazilian economy, Banco Santander observed the: consistent and sustainable trajectory of the current economic policy, which should not be reversed in the coming months, led by a team seen as experienced and skilled by the main market participants; low external vulnerability, given the low current account deficits and high international reserves; and the more favorable international environment, with prospects of greater growth and less risk aversion.

Hence, Banco Santander continue to expect the domestic economic activity to recover throughout 2017, albeit gradually. As published by the Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics, Brazil GDP expanded by 1.0% QoQ in 1Q17, interrupting a long sequence of eight consecutive declines. Although this performance was mainly explained by the extraordinary increase of agricultural production in the period (it is worth noting the strong contribution from the soybean and corn harvests), and should not be treated as an average rate of increase in the coming quarters. There have been positive signs in many other sectors, both in industry and services, which corroborates the opinion that the worst moment for the Brazilian economy is behind us. The increase in real wages, decline in household indebtedness, improvement in terms of trade (increasing export competitiveness), and Normalization of inventories in most production chains. Therefore, Banco Santander forecasts that Brazilian GDP will grow 0.7% in 2017.

Still in the positive field, the solid disinflation process in the Brazilian economy is striking. For instance, CPI (Consumer Price Index) registered its first monthly deflation in 11 years in June, leading the 12-month accumulated index to rise only 3.0%, well below the inflation target (4.5%). The downward trend in inflation has been taking place across the board, and Banco Santander does not expect significant changes in this scenario in the coming years, the projection for the CPI variation at the end of this year is around 4%. Reflecting this more benign inflation outlook, the National Monetary Council recently changed the inflation target for 2019 and 2020 (to 4.25% and 4.00%, respectively, following the target of 4.5% valid by 2018). Banco Santander views very positively the definition of a lower target, since this measure, in the context of highly credible Bacen, helps to anchor expectations and signals convergence of domestic inflation to levels closer to the average of countries that adopt the inflation targeting regime.

The combination of falling inflation and still very high levels of idleness in the economy (unemployment rate and capacity utilization rate far worse than the historical average) endorses the continuity of the easing monetary policy. Accordingly, Banco Santander believes that the Bacen will cut the overnight rate (Selic rate) to 8.5% p.a. by the end of 2017, which should be the main driver for the more robust domestic demand growth in 2018.

In this sense, despite the latest credit market data (Monetary Policy and Credit Report) having frustrated expectations, its composition continues to support a recovery scenario, since the new concessions remain on an upward trend, mainly for consumers, as well as the short-term delays indicate that the increase in delinquency rates should be short-lived. Thus, even taking into account the rising uncertainties linked to the most troubled political environment, Banco Santander maintains the view that the effects of falling interest rates will prevail and credit market will continue to improve in the coming quarters.

Finally, Banco Santander projects some additional devaluation of the Brazilian exchange rate until the end of this year, reflecting the political instability and increasing challenges on the fiscal front. However, as mentioned above, the solid economic policy, low external vulnerability, and auspicious prospects for the global economy, marked by high liquidity, faster growth in advanced economies and lower risk aversion, should limit the BRL devaluation. Hence, Banco Santander forecasts that Brazilian exchange rate will reach BRL/USD3.50 at the end of 2017.

1) Hedge of the foreign investments - The Bank operates a branch in the Cayman Islands and Santander EFC which are used primarily for sourcing funds in the international banking and capital markets to provide credit lines, which are extended to our customers for working capital and trade-related financings. To protect the exposures in exchange rate variations, the Bank uses derivatives. Under Brazilian income tax rules, the gains or losses resulting from the impact of appreciation or devaluation for the real in foreign investments is nontaxable for PIS/COFINS/IR/CSLL purposes, while gains or losses from derivatives used as hedges are taxable. The purpose of these derivatives is to protect the after-tax results.

The different tax treatment of such foreign exchange rate differences results in a volatility on the operational earnings or losses and on the gross revenue tax expense (PIS/Cofins) and income taxes (IR/CSLL). Exchange rate variations arising from foreign investments recorded for the accumulated of period ended on June 30, 2017 an loss of R$770 million (2016 - R$7,810 million). On the other hand, the derivatives contracted to cover these positions generated a gain in "Derivatives Transaction" of R$1,469 million (2016 - R$14,892 million). The tax effect of these derivatives impacted the Tax Expenses line generating a tax loss of R$699 million (2016 - R$7,082 million) represented by R$69 million (2016 - R$692 million) of PIS/Cofins and R$630 million (2016 - R$6,390 million) IR/CSLL.

2) Gross Profit from Financial Operations - The increase in the first quarter of 2017 was, mainly, due to higher credit revenues, customer funding and market activities, as a result of risk management with the deeper knowledge of the customer's life cycle. The model has shown to be assertive, keeping the quality indicators of the credit portfolio under control.

3) Other Operating (Expenses) Income - (i) Fees - Incomes from Services Rendered and Banking Fees grew, mainly, due to the greater transactionality and tie-in of customers, especially higher credit card revenues, account services Current and commissions. (ii) The total of general expenses, including personnel expenses, other administrative expenses and profit sharing expenses, excluding the effects of goodwill amortization, increased 3.9% in the period ended June 30, 2017, compared with the period of 2016, while personnel and profit sharing expenses increased 4.5% and other administrative expenses increased 3.3% YoY. This increase was due to the higher variable expenses, which accompany the business dynamics. Fixed expenses remain controlled, reflecting continued discipline in expenditure management.

4) Operating Income - In 2017, includes R$338 million of provisions for devaluations on real estate, constituted from appraisal reports prepared by specialized external consulting.

5) Minority Shareholdings - The increase was mainly due to the growth in the results of the subsidiaries Banco RCI, Olé, Getnet and entities that also hold the minority interest of the Santander Group's external partners.

(1) Including the loans to individual in the consumer finance segment, the individual portfolio reached R$130,371 on June 30, 2017 (06/30/2016 - R$115,730).

On Jun 30, 2017, the main highlight was the segment "Individuals", which presented growth in both periods, being 12.2% compared to the same period of 2016 and 3.6% in March, 2017, with emphasis on credit and credit card products, and rural credit and "Consumer Finance" also growth in both periods, being 15.7% compared to the same period of 2016 and 3.4% in March, 2017, as a result of Banco Santander's commercial strategy.

Delinquency

The over-90-day delinquency ratio reached 2.9% of the total credit portfolio in June 2017, down 0.3% over June, 2016 (3.2%) and down 0.5% over December, 2016 (3.4%). The indicators are at controlled levels and reflect the strength of Banco Santander's risk culture.

Allowance for loan losses represents 6.7% of the loan portfolio in June 2017, 6.8% in June, 2016 and 6.6% in March, 2017.

The allowance for loan losses, net of revenues with recovery of loans previously written off in period year ended on June 30, 2017 is R$4,626.0 million and R$4,352.2 million in 2016, YoY, increasing 6.3%.

2.4) Funding by Customers

FUNDING BY CUSTOMERS (R$Millions)	Jun/17	Jun/16	annual changes %	Mar/17	Jun/17 vs. Mar/17 changes %	Dec/16	Jun/17 vs. Dec/16 changes %

(1) Debentures repurchase agreement, Real Estate Credit Notes (LCI) and Agribusiness Credit Notes (LCA).

(2) Includes Certificates of Structured Operations.

The total of funding resources increased 4.5%, compared with June, 2016, with highlight to the growth of Time Deposits, which was due to the reduction in funding from Treasury Bills and from Bacen Resolution 4,527/16, which restricted the renewal of repurchase agreements with debentures issued by Leasing from May 2017.

2.5) Stockholders' Equity

In June 2017, Banco Santander consolidated stockholders' equity presented an increase of 5.3% compared to December, 2016 and an increase of 1.7% YoY.

The variation in Stockholders' Equity between June 2017 and December 2016 was mainly due to the negative variation of the equity valuation adjustment (securities and derivative financial instruments) in the amount of R$272.1 million and the net income for the period in the amount of R$3,703.9 million and reduced by the highlight of Interest on Capital in the amount of R$500 million. In addition, CMN Resolution 4,512 dated July 28, 2016 and Circular Letter Bacen 3,782 dated on September 19, 2016, established accounting procedures to be applied, determining on the constitution of a provision to cover losses associated with financial guarantees provided in any form, in the appropriate account of the liability, taking into consideration the result of the period, prospectively from January 1, 2017. The provisions previously recorded had their effect recorded in shareholders' equity, with a counterpart account in liabilities. The adoption of this standard in the period ended on March 31, 2017, impacted shareholders' equity (first adoption) by R$179.3 million, net of tax effect.

Treasury Shares

In the meeting held on November 3, 2016, the Bank's Board of Directors approved, in continuation of the buyback program that expired on November 4, 2016, the buyback program of its Units and ADRs, by the Bank or its agency in Cayman, to be held in treasury or subsequently sold.

The Buyback Program will cover the acquisition up to 38,402,972 Units, representing 38,402,972 common shares and 38,402,972 preferred shares, or the ADRs, which, on September 30, 2016, corresponded to approximately 1.02% of the Bank's share capital. On September 30, 2016, the Bank held 384,029,725 common shares and 411,834,140 preferred shares being traded.

The Buyback has the purpose to (1) maximize the value creation to shareholders by means of an efficient capital structure management; and (2) enable the payment of officers, management level employees and other Bank employees and companies under its control, according to the Long Term Incentive Plans.

The term of the Buyback Program is 365 days as from November 4, 2016, and will expire on November 3, 2017.

7) Risk Management

7.1) Corporate Governance of the Risk Function

The governance model is structured in a vision of decision, focusing on examination and approval of proposals and credit limits, and in a vision of control, with a focus on full control of risks.

The fundamental principles that rule the risk governance model are:

- Independence of the risks in relation to business area;
- Involvement of the management in decision making; and
- Collegiate Decisions and consensus on credit operations.

The CER-Executive Committee of Risks is the local decision-making forum with representatives of the Bank's management, including the President, Vice President and the other members of the Executive Board. The main tasks of this Committee are:

- Monitor the development of credit cards market;
- Decide on proposals for credit;
- Define and monitor compliance with risk appetite;
- Define the actions with regard to the recommendations made by the local regulator and by Internal Audit;
- Approve and authorize the management tools, improvement initiatives, the follow-up of projects and any other relevant activities related to the management of risks; and
- Approve risk policies as well as changes in risk policies with impact on revenue, margin or costs of provision.

The CCR-Risk Control Committee is the control and monitoring local forum with representatives of the Bank's management, including the VPE of Risks and the Vice President of Finance. The main tasks of this Committee are:

- Conduct a comprehensive and periodic follow-up of all risk, if your profile is within the established in the risk appetite, Business Strategic Planning and in the budget approved by the Board of Directors;
- Conduct a periodic and independent control of risk management activities;
- Supervise the measures adopted with regard to risks, to comply with the recommendations and directions made by the regulatory body and local audit; and
- Provide to the Board of Directors and the Executive Commission the information and assistance they need in terms of risks.

The relevant issues of risk management or those that exceed the jurisdiction of these committees will be forwarded and decided by the Board of Directors.

7.2) Structure of Capital Management

The goal is to achieve an efficient capital structure, meeting the regulatory requirements and contributing to reach the goals regarding the classification of rating branches. The capital management including securitization, sale of assets, raising capital through shares issues, subordinated debt and hybrid instruments.

The capital management seeks to optimize value creation in the Banco Santander and the different business units. To this end, capital management, Return on Risk Adjusted Capital (RORAC) and the creation of data values for each business unit are generated. The Banco Santander uses a measurement model of economic capital in order to ensure it has enough capital available to support the risks of economic activity in different scenarios, with solvency levels agreed by the Group.

Projections of economic and regulatory capital are made based on financial projections (Balance Sheet, Income Statements) and macroeconomic scenarios estimated by the economic research service of the Financial Management area. The economic capital models are essentially designed to generate risk-sensitive estimates with two goals in mind: more precision in risk management and allocation of economic capital to various units of Banco Santander.

7.3) Credit Risk

Credit risk is the exposure to losses in the event of total or partial default of the clients or the counterparties in the fulfillment of their financial obligations with Banco Santander. Credit risk management seeks to provide support for the definition of strategies, in addition to setting limits, covering analysis of exposures and trends, as well as the effectiveness of credit policy. The objective is to maintain a risk profile and adequate minimum profitability that compensates the estimated default risk of the client and the portfolio, as defined by the Executive Committee.

7.4) Market Risk

Market risk is exposure to risk factors including interest rates, exchange rates, commodities prices, stock market prices and other values, according to the type of product, the volume of operations, terms and conditions of the agreement and underlying volatility. Market risk management includes practices of measuring and monitoring the use of limits that are pre-set by internal committees, of the value at risk of the portfolios, of sensitivity to fluctuating interest rates, of exposure to foreign exchange rates, of liquidity gaps, among other practices which the control and monitoring of the risks which might affect the position of Banco Santander portfolios in the different markets in which the Bank operates.

For this, the Bank it has developed its own Risk Management model, the following principles:

- Functional independence;
- Executive capacity sustained by knowledge and customer proximity;
- Global scope (different types of risk);
- Collective Decisions that evaluate all possible scenarios and not compromise the results of individual Decisions, including Executive Risk Committee (ERC), which sets limits and approves the transactions and the Executive Committee of Assets and Liabilities, which is responsible for the management of capital and structural risks, which includes country risk, liquidity and interest rates;

- Management and optimization of the risk/return; and
- Advanced methodologies for risk management, such as Value at Risk (VaR) (historical simulation of 521 days, with a confidence level of 99% and a time horizon of one day), scenarios, sensitivity of net interest income, asset value and sensitivity contingency plan.

The structure of market Risk is part of the Vice President of Risks, which implements the policies of risk.

7.5) Environmental and Social Risk

Social and environmental risk management for the wholesale banking customers is accomplished through a management system for customers who have credit limits or credit risk above R$1 million, which considers aspects such as contaminated land, deforestation, working conditions and other social and environmental points of attention in which there is possibility of penalties. A specialized team, with background in Biology, Geology, Health and Safety Engineering and Chemical Engineering, monitors the environmental practices of our wholesale clients. The financial analysis team studies the potential damage and impacts that adverse social and environmental situations may cause to the financial condition of customers and their guarantees. The analysis focuses on preserving capital and market reputation, and the dissemination of this practice is achieved by constant training of both commercial and risk areas on the application of social and environmental risk standards in the credit approval process for corporate client.

The Bank's Social and Environmental Risk Policy is included under the Social and Environmental Responsibility Policy of the Bank, in accordance with Resolution 4,327 of CMN.

7.6) Operational Risk Management, Internal Controls, Sarbanes-Oxley Act and Internal Audit

Operational risk losses can occur due to inadequate processes, people and systems failures or even from external events such as natural disasters, terrorism, robbery and vandalism. Operational risk losses may result in financial losses, adversely affect the continuity of the business and also negatively affect Bank's image.

To accomplish the operational risk objectives, was established an operational risk model based on three lines of defense, with the objective of continuously improving and developing the management and control of operational risks.

- First line of defense: all business and support areas within Banco Santander are responsible for identifying, managing, mitigating and reporting operational risk;
- Second line of defense: the non-financial risk unit is responsible for monitoring and ensuring sound operational and technological risk management practices throughout the organization having as premise to implement disseminate our operational risk culture, defining methodologies, policies, tools, training and applicable procedures and requirements for the effective management of operational risk and of ensuring there is adequate business contingency planning in place throughout the Bank; and
- Third line of defense: the internal audit department is responsible for undertaking independent reviews of the risk management undertaken by the first and second lines of defense and for promoting continuous model improvements.

The objectives of the Operational Risk management model are:

- to disseminate a culture of operational risk management and control, to foster the prevention of risk events and operational risks losses and to mitigate their financial, legal and reputational impacts;
- to provide support to decision-makers within Banco Santander;
- to ensure the business continuity in a sustainable manner and to improve internal controls; and
- to maintain control of the operational risk in a manner which is consistent with our business strategy.

The following bodies are involved in the implementation of the risk management model:

- Risk Control Committee: A committee which aims to perform a holistic and periodic monitoring of the risks to which the Bank is exposed and to exercise independent control on the risk management activities;
- Operational Risk Operational Committee: A committee which aims to ensure and to foster the adequate monitoring, control and mitigation of operational risks; and
- Operational Risk Forum: An independent forum, responsible for implementing and disseminating cultural norms, methodologies, standards, policies, tools, training and procedures applicable and required for the effective and efficient management and control of operational risk.

The risk management model assists managers in achieving their strategic objectives by contributing to the decision-making process and by reducing operational risk losses. It is based on best market practice in the identification, assessment, monitoring, management and control of operational risks. It is compliant with the applicable regulatory requirements and seeks to ensure the sustained improvement of the internal controls environment.

Internal Audit reports directly to the Board of Directors, whose activities are supervised by the Audit Committee.

Internal Audit's objective is to supervise the compliance, efficiency and effectiveness of internal control systems, as well as the reliability and quality of accounting information. Thus, all Banco Santander's companies, business units, departments and core services are under its scope of application. The Internal Audit has quality certificate issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA).

The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors were informed on Internal Audit's works to be done during the year 2016, according to its annual plan.

The Audit Committee favorably reviewed the annual work plan of the Internal Audit and approved of the activity report for the year 2017.

In order to perform its duties and reduce coverage risks inherent to Conglomerate's activities, the Internal Audit area has internally-developed tools updated whenever necessary.

Among these tools, it is worth mentioning the risk matrix, for it is used as a planning tool, prioritizing each unit's risk level, based on, among others, its inherent risks, audit's last rating, level of compliance with recommendations and size.

In addition, at least annually, the work programs are reviewed. These documents describe the audit tests to be performed, so that the requirements are enforced.

Throughout the first quarter of 2017, internal control procedures and controls on information systems pertaining to units under analysis were assessed according to the work plan for 2017, taking into account their design and operating effectiveness.

8) People

9) Sustainable Development

Sustainability is a strategic part of business, in Santander. It is a commitment that seeks results for business and society in a simple, personal and fair way, which is concretized through a strategy based in three pillars: Social and Financial Inclusion, Education and Social and Environmental Business and Management. Among the second quarter highlights of Social and Financial Inclusion are: Prospera Santander Microcredit, currently the largest productive and oriented microcredit operation among private banks in Brazil, offering credit and financial advice to low-income micro entrepreneurs, it disbursed approximately BRL 341 million, in 2017 (16.1% above the same period of 2016). In the scope of Private Social Investment, "Amigo de Valor", program, which allows the Bank, as well as its employees and clients to direct part of their due income tax to the Funds for the Rights of Children and Adolescents, has as one of its commitments for 2017, to accompany the development of 36 projects throughout Brazil, which must serve more than 4 thousand children and adolescents in situation of social risks. In the first half of 2017, Parceiros em Ação Program, that support development of micro entrepreneurs in low-income regions where Prospera Santander Microcredit is present, trained 584 entrepreneurs in 10 Brazilian cities. The corporate program of volunteer "Escola Brasil" (PEB), promoted 164 action with 35,197 beneficiaries during "We are Santander Week" (an initiative aimed at experiencing the Santander culture between employees). In relation to Education pillar, the Bank has partnerships with 374 higher education institutions and in the first quarter of 2017, Santander Universidades Brazil has granted 657 scholarships, of these 260 are international and 397 are national. In Social and environmental business and management, was carried out 4 sustainability events to small and medium enterprises in Avançar Negócios e Empresas Program and 2 events about sustainability in agribusiness, with focus on climate changes and best agriculture practices. About energy efficiency and renewable energy, was stimulated the growth of this sector in the market with financing for individuals or corporate entities, for example, realization of 185 contracts of Photovoltaic systems, as well as large operations, for example, the issuance of Greenbonds to CPFL in the amount of BRL 200 million, to construction of 2 wind farms with 231 MW generation. In acting on climate change, Banco Santander joined the CDP Supply Chain program, with the goal of engaging its suppliers to make their businesses more efficient and prepared for the low-carbon economy. In the first phase, 83 suppliers were involved, which will report their inventories, as well as risk and opportunity analysis in 2017, through the tool offered by CDP.

10) Independent Audit

It is part of Banco Santander's policy to restrict the services provided by the independent auditors, so as to preserve the auditor's independence and objectivity, in accordance with Brazilian and international standards, which provides the necessity of approval of any services by the Audit Committee of the Bank.

In compliance with CVM Instruction 381/2003, Banco Santander hereby inform that in the period ended on June 30, 2017, were provided non-audit services of the financial statements by PricewaterhouseCoopers, which cumulatively represent more than 5% of the related overall audit fee consideration. As below:

Hiring date	Description of services
03/30/2017	Comfort Letter - Brazilian and International Offer
06/23/2017	Annual review of the accounting numbers of the MTN emission program

*Additional services totaled R$1.2 million, representing 8.6% of global compensation.

In addition, the Bank confirms that PricewaterhouseCoopers has procedures, policies and controls to ensure its independence, including the review of work performed, including any services other than external audit. This evaluation is based on the applicable regulations and accepted principles that preserve the independence of the auditor: (i) the auditor should not audit their own work; (ii) the auditor should not perform management functions; and (iii) the auditor should not promote the interests of his client. Acceptance and professional services not related to external audit for the period ended June 30, 2017 did not affect the independence and objectivity in the conduct of external audit examinations of the Banco Santander and other Group entities, since the principles above were observed.

Independent auditor's report

Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A.

We have audited the accompanying parent company financial statements of Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. ("Bank"), which comprise the balance sheet as at June 30, 2017 and the statements of income, changes in equity and cash flows for the six-month period then ended, as well as the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. and its subsidiaries ("Consolidated"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as at June 30, 2017 and the consolidated statements of income, changes in equity and cash flows for the six-month period then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

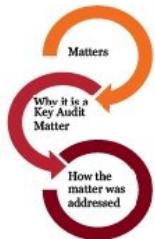

In our opinion, the parent company and consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. and of Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. and its subsidiaries as at June 30, 2017, and their financial performance and cash flows for the six-month period then ended, in accordance with accounting practices adopted in Brazil, applicable to institutions authorized to operate by the Brazilian Central Bank (BACEN).

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent Company and Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Bank and its subsidiaries in accordance with the ethical requirements established in the Code of Professional Ethics and Professional Standards issued by the Brazilian Federal Accounting Council, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current six-month period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the parent company and consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Why it is a Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in the audit
Allowance for loan losses (Notes 3i and 8)	How the matter was addressed in the audit
The estimation of the allowance for loan losses involves a high level of judgment by Management. The establishment of the allowance for loan losses involves the assessment of several assumptions and internal and external factors, including default levels and guarantees of the portfolios, renegotiation policy, and the current and prospective economic scenarios. Accordingly, this area was defined as an area of focus in our evaluation. This judgment considers several assumptions in the determination of the allowances. The allowances for loan losses are recorded in accordance with the regulatory requirements of the Brazilian Central Bank, especially Resolution 2,682 of the National Monetary Council (CMN), and are based on the analyses of outstanding receivables (overdue and not yet due), according to the internal policies that consider the establishment of credit ratings (risk classification). Likewise, they consider the expectation of realization of the loan portfolio, in addition to the requirement of current legislation, based on past experience, current scenario and future expectations, specific portfolio risks and Management's assessment of risks in the recording of the allowances.	We carried out procedures to update our understanding of and test the internal controls that are significant in the calculation and recognition of the allowance for loan losses, mainly including the following processes: approval of the credit policy; credit analysis; credit granting and renegotiated transactions; attribution of rating considering the risk of the recoverable value of transactions; processing and recording of provisions; reconciliation of accounting balances with the analytical position; and preparation of the notes to the financial statements. We have also conducted tests to verify the integrity and completeness of the database used to calculate the allowance for loan losses, in addition to tests to verify the application of the calculation methodology for these allowances in relation to the ratings attributed, as well as the comparison of the account balances with the analytical reports. We consider that the criteria and assumptions adopted by Management to determine the allowance for loan losses are reasonable, in all material respects, in the context of the financial statements.

The estimation of the allowance for loan losses involves a high level of judgment by Management. The establishment of the allowance for loan losses involves the assessment of several assumptions and internal and external factors, including default levels and guarantees of the portfolios, renegotiation policy, and the current and prospective economic scenarios. Accordingly, this area was defined as an area of focus in our evaluation.

This judgment considers several assumptions in the determination of the allowances. The allowances for loan losses are recorded in accordance with the regulatory requirements of the Brazilian Central Bank, especially Resolution 2,682 of the National Monetary Council (CMN), and are based on the analyses of outstanding receivables (overdue and not yet due), according to the internal policies that consider the establishment of credit ratings (risk classification). Likewise, they consider the expectation of realization of the loan portfolio, in addition to the requirement of current legislation, based on past experience, current scenario and future expectations, specific portfolio risks and Management's assessment of risks in the recording of the allowances.

We carried out procedures to update our understanding of and test the internal controls that are significant in the calculation and recognition of the allowance for loan losses, mainly including the following processes: approval of the credit policy; credit analysis; credit granting and renegotiated transactions; attribution of rating considering the risk of the recoverable value of transactions; processing and recording of provisions; reconciliation of accounting balances with the analytical position; and preparation of the notes to the financial statements.

We have also conducted tests to verify the integrity and completeness of the database used to calculate the allowance for loan losses, in addition to tests to verify the application of the calculation methodology for these allowances in relation to the ratings attributed, as well as the comparison of the account balances with the analytical reports.

We consider that the criteria and assumptions adopted by Management to determine the allowance for loan losses are reasonable, in all material respects, in the context of the financial statements.

Why it is a Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in the audit
Recognition and recoverable value of tax credits (Notes 3s, 3t and 11)
Tax credits arising from temporary differences in the calculation basis of taxes, as well as tax losses, are recognized in the books based on the expectation that future taxable profits will be available for their realization. The expectation of tax credit realization is based on projections of future results that require judgment by Management, including the use of assumptions. Considering the subjectivity in to this process, this was considered an area of focus in our audit.	We carried out procedures to update our understanding of and test the significant internal controls that involve the calculation of tax credits arising from temporary differences and tax losses, as well as the estimates of the recoverable value of these tax credits, in accordance with the applicable standards of the National Monetary Council (CMN) and the Brazilian Central Bank. We obtained an understanding of the critical assumptions included in result projections and tested the mathematical accuracy of the projected amounts. Additionally, we compared the historical results projected with the results achieved. We performed tests to confirm the nature and amounts of the temporary differences and tax losses that could be deducted from the future tax bases with the assistance of our experts in the tax area. We discussed with Management and the Audit Committee, and confirmed the approval of the technical study that supports the realization of the tax credits by the proper management bodies. We consider that the criteria and assumptions adopted by Management to determine tax credits are reasonable, in all material respects, in the context of the financial statements.
Provisions for contingent liabilities (Notes 3q and 23)
Banco Santander and its subsidiaries are parties to tax, labor and civil proceedings, at the administrative and judicial levels, resulting from the normal course of their business. In general, these proceedings are terminated after a long period and involve not only discussions on merits, but also complex procedural aspects, in accordance with applicable legislation. The decision to recognize a contingent liability and the measurement bases require the judgment of the Bank's Management, which is periodically reassessed, including when preparing the financial statements, and considering new events. In the circumstances, this was considered an area of focus in our audit.	We updated our understanding and performed testing on the significant internal controls that involve the identification and recording of liabilities, and the disclosures in the notes to the financial statements, which, among others, also considered the internal controls related to the calculation model adopted for the establishment of provisions for labor and civil contingencies, which are recorded under the average historical losses criterion. We tested the application of the mathematical models for the calculation of the average historical losses related to the labor and civil contingencies. We also tested the quantity of outstanding proceedings at the base date of the financial statements. We performed confirmation procedures with the law firms responsible for the significant administrative and judicial proceedings to confirm the assessment of the prognosis, also considering the new events which occurred during the six-month period, the completeness of the information and the correct amount of the provisions. With the support of our experts, we analyzed the reasonableness of the estimate of loss in the most significant tax, labor and civil proceedings. We consider that the criteria and assumptions adopted by Management to remeasure the provision for contingent liabilities are reasonable, in all material respects, in the context of the financial statements.

Why it is a Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in the audit
Post-employment benefit plans (Notes 3n and 35)
The Bank has post-employment benefit plans with characteristics of defined benefit, arising from existing plans in institutions acquired in former years, whose amounts are significant in the context of the financial statements, and involve the need to use an adequate database, and the establishment of assumptions with a high degree of subjectivity, such as: discount, inflation and mortality rates. This was an area of focus in our audit, since changes in assumptions may result in significant impacts on the obligations related to defined benefit plans. In addition, the establishment of assumptions involves a significant degree of judgment by Management.	We carried out procedures to update our understanding of and test the significant internal controls that involve the recording and measurement of liabilities arising from post-employment benefit plans. Among others, our tests considered the controls related to the completeness and adequacy of the databases, the existence and correct amount of the assets of the benefit plans, and the approval of assumptions considered in the actuarial calculations. We updated our understanding of the methodologies and judgments used by Management to determine the assumptions applied in the calculation of the obligations in comparison with market parameters. We confirmed the consistency of the most significant assumptions adopted in the actuarial calculations with those adopted in the last annual actuarial assessment, as well as evaluated the reasonableness of the changes in assumptions made by management. Also, on a sample basis, we tested the existence and the recalculation of the fair value of the plan assets. We consider that the criteria and assumptions adopted by Management to determine the provision for post-employment benefit plans are reasonable, in all material respects, in the context of the financial statements.

Why it is a Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in the audit
Measurement of the fair value of certain financial instruments and derivatives with low liquidity and without an active market (Notes 3g, 3h and 6)
The measurement of the fair value of financial instruments was an area of focus of our audit due to its significance in the context of the financial statements, and the involvement of a high level of judgment by Management, since the measurement depends on valuation techniques carried out through internal models, which are based on certain assumptions for the valuation of instruments with low liquidity and without an active market and/or observable data. These financial instruments mostly comprise investments in securities issued by companies and derivative contracts.	We carried out procedures to update our understanding of and test the significant internal controls that involve the measurement, recognition and disclosure of the fair value of financial instruments and derivatives. With the assistance of our experts in the pricing of financial instruments, we updated our understanding of the pricing calculation methodologies, analyzed the reasonableness of the assumptions used by Management to prepare pricing curves and internal models, and also verified the alignment of these assumptions and models with the practices adopted in the market. We performed independent valuation tests of certain transactions, selected on sampling basis. We consider that the criteria and assumptions adopted by Management to measure the fair value of these financial instruments and derivatives are reasonable, in all material respects, in the context of the financial statements.

Why it is a Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in the audit
Information technology environment (Note 36) Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. has a business environment that is highly dependent on technology, requiring a complex infrastructure to support the high volume of transactions processed daily in its several systems. The risks inherent to information technology, associated with deficiencies in processes and controls that support the processing of the technology systems, considering the legacy systems and existing technology environments, could result in the incorrect processing of critical information, including those used in the preparation of the financial statements. Therefore, this was considered an area of focus in our audit.	With the assistance of our system experts, we evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of the controls related to the management of the information technology environment, including the compensating controls established. The procedures carried out involved the combination of the control tests, and, when applicable, the testing of compensating controls, as well as the conduction of tests regarding the key processes related to information security, the development and maintenance of systems, and the operation of computers related to the infrastructure that supports the Bank's business, including the management of accesses, treatment of incidents, segregation of duties, and cyber security aspects. As a result of this work, we determined the nature and extent of our auditing procedures, and considered that the technology environment processes and controls, associated with the compensating controls and tests conducted, provided a reasonable basis for the result of our audit of the financial statements.

Other mattersStatements of value added

The parent company and consolidated Statements of Value Added for the six-month period ended June 30, 2017, prepared under the responsibility of the Bank's management, and whose presentation is required by the Brazilian corporate legislation for listed companies, but is considered supplementary information for BACEN purposes, were submitted to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the financial statements. For the purposes of forming our opinion, we evaluated whether these statements are reconciled with the financial statements and accounting records, as applicable, and if their form and content are in accordance with the criteria defined in Technical Pronouncement CPC 09 - "Statement of Added Value". In our opinion, these Statements of Value Added have been properly prepared in all material respects, in accordance with the criteria established in the Technical Pronouncement and are consistent with the parent company and consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

Other information accompanying the parent company and consolidated financial statements and the independent auditor's report

The Bank's management is responsible for the other information that comprises the Management Report.

Our opinion on the parent company and consolidated financial statements does not cover the Management Report, and we do not express any form of audit conclusion thereon.

In connection with the audit of the parent company and consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the Management Report and, in doing so, consider whether this report is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement in the Management Report, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the parent company and consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the parent company and consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting practices adopted in Brazil, applicable to institutions authorized to operate by the Brazilian Central Bank (BACEN), and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the parent company and consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the ability of the Bank and its subsidiaries to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Bank and its subsidiaries or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Bank and its subsidiaries' financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the parent company and consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent company and consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent company and consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control of the Bank and its subsidiaries.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Bank and its subsidiaries to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the parent company and consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Bank and its subsidiaries to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the parent company and consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current six-month period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. General Information

Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. (Banco Santander or Bank), directly and indirectly controlled by Banco Santander, S.A., based in Spain (Banco Santander Spain), is the lead institution of the Financial and Prudential Group (Conglomerate Santander) towards the Central Bank of Brazil (Bacen), established as a corporation, with headquarters at Avenida Presidente Juscelino Kubitschek, 2041 and 2235 - A Block - Vila Olímpia - São Paulo - SP. Banco Santander operates as a multiple service bank, conducting its operations by means of portfolios such as commercial, investment, lending and financing, mortgage lending, leasing, credit card operations and foreign exchange. Through its subsidiaries, the Bank also operates in the payment institution, leasing, buying club management and securities, insurance brokerage operations, capitalization and pension plan. The Bank's activities are conducted within the context of a group of institutions that operate on an integrated basis in the financial market. The corresponding benefits and costs of providing services are absorbed between them, they are conducted in the normal course of business and under commutative conditions.

2. Presentation of Financial Statements

Banco Santander's financial statements, which include its foreign branches (Bank) and the consolidated financial statements (Consolidated) have been prepared in accordance with accounting practices, established by Brazilian Corporate Law, in conjunction with standards set forth by the National Monetary Council (CMN), the Bacen, and the standard chart of Accounts for Financial Institutions (COSIF) and the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM), which do not conflict with the rules issued by Bacen and show all relevant information concerned to the financial statements, which are consistent with those used by Management in its management. The consolidated financial statements include the Bank and its affiliates and subsidiaries listed in Note 15 and investment funds, where the Santander Group companies are the main beneficiaries or holders of the main obligations. The portfolios of these investment funds are classified by type of operation and are distributed in the same categories that were originally allocated. As of January 1, 2017, pursuant to CMN Resolution No. 4,517 of August 24, 2016, equity interests in jointly-owned subsidiaries were evaluated under the equity method on a prospective basis.

All the relevant information related to Banco Santander's financial statements, and only them, are being evidenced, and correspond to those used by Banco Santander in its management.

(1) The carmaker Renault (not belonging to the Conglomerate Santander) sell its duplicates (receivables related to vehicles invoiced to dealers of the automaker) to the Fund. This Fund buys only duplicates from Renault carmaker. In turn, the Banco RCI Brasil S.A. (Note 15) owns 100% of its subordinated quotas.

(2) The Banco RCI Brasil S.A. (company belonging to the Conglomerate Santander) sell its product portfolio "floorplan" to the Fund, and holds 100% of its subordinated quotas. This Fund buys exclusively credit operations from Banco RCI Brasil S.A.

(3) The Banco RCI Brasil S.A. sold receivables (CDC portfolio) to FI RN Brasil – Financiamento de Veículos. The senior shares will have only an investor. The Banco RCI Brasil S.A. holds 100% of subordinated shares. This fund was established and became consolidated in September 2016.

(4) This fund was established and became consolidated in August 2016. It is a structure where the Banco Santander figured as lender of certain debts (loans). The real object guarantee of said operations were converted into capital contributions by the Real Estate Fund in conjunction concomitant transfer of the same shares to Banco Santander through dation process of

(5) Banco Santander, through its subsidiaries, holds the risks and benefits of the Santander Paraty and the Sub-fund Santander FI Hedge Strategies, based in Ireland, and both are fully consolidated in its financial statements. The Irish market, an investment fund cannot act directly and, therefore, there was the need to create another structure (a sub-fund), Santander FI Hedge Strategies. The Santander Paraty has no equity position, and all derived position of the balance sheet of Santander FI Hedge Strategies.

During preparation of the consolidated financial statements were removed the equity in subsidiaries, significant receivable and payable balances, and revenues and expenses arising from transactions between domestic branches, foreign branches and subsidiaries, and unrealized profits between these entities have been eliminated, and non-controlling interests are stated separately in stockholders' equity and in the income statements. The balance sheet and income statement components of jointly-controlled subsidiaries have been consolidated proportionately to the equity interest held in the subsidiary.

Leasing operations have been reclassified, in order to reflect its financial position in conformity with the financial method of accounting.

The preparation of financial statements requires Management estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of provision and contingent liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the reporting periods. Since Management's judgment involves making estimates concerning the probability of future events, actual amounts could differ from those estimates, the main as follow: provision of allowance for loan losses, realization of the tax credit, contingent liabilities, pension plan and the fair value of financial assets.

The Board of Directors authorized the issuance of the Financial Statements of the period ended on June 30, 2017 approved at the meeting held on July 25, 2017.

The interim consolidated financial statements based on international accounting standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) for the period ended June 30, 2017 were disclosed simultaneously, at the website www.santander.com.br/ri.

3. Significant Accounting Practices

a) Results of Operations

Determined on the accrual basis of accounting and includes income, charges, inflation adjustment and exchange rate changes earned or incurred through the balance sheet date, on a daily pro rata basis.

b) Functional Currency

Functional Currency and Presentation Currency

CMN Resolution 4,524 of September 29, 2016, with prospective application as of January 1, 2017, established accounting procedures for recognition by financial institutions and other institutions authorized to operate by the Bacen that hold investments abroad: I - of the effects of exchange rate variations resulting from the conversion of transactions carried out in foreign currency by investees abroad to the respective functional currencies; II - the effects of exchange rate variations resulting from the translation of the balances of the financial statements of investees abroad of the respective functional currencies into the national currency; and III - foreign currency hedge transactions of investments abroad. These changes did not impact the financial statements of Banco Santander in the first quarter of 2017. Functional currency is the currency of the principal economic environment in which the entity operates.

The financial statements are presented in Brazilian Real (R$), which is the functional and presentation currency of Banco Santander.

Assets and liabilities of foreign branch and subsidiary are converted in real as follows:

- Assets and liabilities are converted at the exchange rate on the balance sheet date; and
- Revenues and expenses are converted at the monthly average exchange rates.

c) Current and Long-Term Assets and Liabilities

Stated at their realizable or settlement amounts and include income, charges, inflation adjustments or changes in exchange rates earned and/or incurred through the end of the reporting period, calculated on a daily pro rata basis and, when applicable, the effect of adjustments to write down the cost of assets to their fair or realizable values.

Receivables and payables up to 12 months are classified in current assets and liabilities, respectively. Trading securities that, regardless of their maturity, are classified in short-term, in conformity with Bacen Letter 3,068/2001.

d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents correspond to the balances of cash and interbank investments immediately convertible into cash, subject to an insignificant risk of change of value or with original maturity equal to ninety days or less.

Bank's management decided to segregate the line item "Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates on Assets and Liabilities" and the corresponding impacts on the net cash flows from operating activities, consequently, the consolidated cash flow statements have been reclassified for six-month period ended June 30, 2016, with the aim of better presentation of the financial statements. Management considered such reclassifications as immaterial.

e) Interbank Investments and Credits Related to Bacen

e.1) Repurchase Agreement

Repurchase Agreement (Repo)

The bank's own fixed income securities employed in a repurchasing agreement are highlighted in specific accounts of the asset (linked securities), on transaction date, by the updated accounting average, by type and maturity of the security. The difference between the repurchase value and the sale is the expense of the operation.

The Bank also employs third-party securities to perform sales transactions with repurchase agreements.

Reverse Repurchase Agreement (Reverse Repo)

The financing granted by ballast with fixed-income securities (third-parties) are recorded on the counter position at liquidation value. The difference between the resale value and the purchase is recognized as the income of the operation. The securities acquired as collateral in a reverse repurchase agreement are transferred to the funded status when used for ballast sale transactions with repurchase agreements.

Repurchasing Performed With Free Movement Agreements

For "reverse repo and sale" operations, when Bank assumes the short position selling the securities on the open market, the liability created is measured at its fair value.

f) Securities

Securities are stated and classified into the following categories and accounting evaluation:

- I - Trading securities;
- II - Available-for-sale securities; and
- III - Held-to-maturity securities.

Trading securities include securities purchased for the purpose of being actively and frequently traded while held-to-maturity securities include those for which the Bank has intention and financial capacity to hold to maturity. Available-for-sale securities include those which cannot be classified in categories I (trading) and III (held-to-maturity). Securities classified into categories I and II are stated at acquisition cost plus income earned through the balance sheet date, calculated on a daily pro rata basis, and adjusted to fair value, with gains or losses on such adjustment being recorded against:

(1) The corresponding income or expense account, net of tax effects, in profit or losses for the period, when relating to securities classified into the trading category; and

(2) A separated account in stockholders' equity, net of taxes effects, when related to securities classified into the available-for-sale category. The adjustments to fair value recorded on sale of these securities are transferred to income for the period.

Securities classified into the held-to-maturity category are stated at acquisition cost plus income earned through the balance sheet, calculated on a daily pro rata basis.

Any permanent losses recorded on the realizable value of securities classified into available-for-sale and held-to-maturity are recognized in the income of the period.

g) Derivatives Financial Instruments

Derivatives are classified according to Management's intent to use them for hedging purposes or not. Transactions made at customers' request, on own account, or that do not qualify as hedge accounting, especially derivatives used to manage the global risk exposure, are reported at fair value, with realized and unrealized gains and losses recorded in income for the period.

Derivative financial instruments designated as part of a framework of protection against risks ("hedge") can be classified as:

- I - Fair value hedge; and
- II - Cash flow hedge.

Derivatives designated as hedge and the respective hedged items are adjusted to fair value, considering the following:

- (1) For those classified in category I, the increase or decrease is recorded in income or expense for the period, net of tax effects; and
- (2) For those classified in category II, the increase or decrease of the effective portion is recorded against a separated caption in stockholders' equity, net of tax effects.

Some hybrid financial instruments contain both a derivative financial instrument and a non-derivative asset or liability. In these cases, the derivative financial instrument represents an embedded derivative. Embedded derivatives are recorded separately from the host contracts they are related to.

h) Minimum Requirements in the Process of Valuation Financial Instruments (Securities and Derivatives Financial Instruments)

The CMN Resolution 4,277 issued on October 31, 2013 (entered into force on June 30, 2015) provides for minimum requirements to be observed in the pricing process of financial instruments measured at fair value and on the adoption of prudential adjustments by financial institutions. The financial instruments mentioned in the Resolution include:

- a) Securities classified as "trading" and "available for sale", according to the Central Bank Letter 3,068; of November 8, 2001;
- b) Derivatives Financial Instruments, according to the Central Bank Letter 3,082; of January 30, 2002; and
- c) Other financial instruments at fair value, regardless of their classification in the trading portfolio, established in CMN Resolution 3,464 of June 26, 2007.

According to this resolution, the Bank has established procedures to assess the need for adjustments in the value of financial instruments mentioned above, watching the prudential criteria, relevance and reliability. This review includes, among other factors, the credit risk spread in the market value of the registration of these instruments.

i) Loan Portfolio and Allowance for Losses

The loan portfolio includes lending operations, leasing operations, advances on exchange contracts and other loans with credit characteristics. It is stated at present value, considering the indexes, interest rates and charges agreed, calculated "pro rata" days until the balance sheet date. For lending operations overdue 60 days from the recognition of revenue only occur when its actually received.

Normally, the Bank writes off loans as losses when they have overdue for 360 days. In the case of long-term credit operations (over 3 years) are written off when they complete 540 days late. Credit operations dropped to loss is recorded in a compensation account for a minimum of five years and while not exhausted all procedures for collection.

The credit assignments without risk retention result in lower financial assets involved in the transaction, which are now kept in a compensation account. The result of the assignment of credit is fully recognized when they are realized.

Since January 2012, as determined by CMN Resolution 3,533/2008 and Resolution 3,895/2010, all credit assignments with risk retention will have their results recognized by the remaining terms of operations, and financial assets subject to the assignment shall remain registered as lending operations and the amount received as obligations for sale operations or transfer of financial assets.

Allowances for loan losses are recognized based on analysis of outstanding lending operations (past-due and current), past experience, future expectations, specific portfolio risks, and Management risk assessment policy for recognizing allowances, as established by CMN Resolution 2,682/1999.

j) Non-Current Assets Held for Sale and Other Assets

Non-current assets held for sale includes the carrying amount of individual items, disposal groups, or items forming part of a business unit earmarked for disposal ("discontinued operations"), whose sale in their present condition is highly probable and is expected to occur within one year.

Other assets refer mainly to assets not for own use, consisting basically of properties and vehicles received as payment in kind.

Non-current assets held for sale and assets not for own use are generally recorded at the lower between value less costs to sell and their carrying amount at the date of classification in this category, and are not depreciated.

k) Prepaid Expenses

Funds used in advance payments, whose benefits will be derived or services will be provided in future years, are allocated to profit or loss over in accordance to the term of the related agreements.

k.1) Commissions Paid to Banking Correspondents

In accordance with CMN Resolution 4,294 and Central Bank Letter 3,693 issued in December 2013, from January 2015 the commissions paid to intermediate agents as a result of the origination of new credit operations are limited to maximum percentages of: (i) 6% of the value of new operation originated and (ii) 3% of the value of portability object operation.

Such commissions must be fully recognized as expenses when it is incurred.

The Central Bank Letter 3,738 issued on December 2014 has allowed the possibility of staggered implementation of the aforementioned accounting procedure, as follows:

- a) 2015: Fully recognize as an expense the value of 1/3 of the commission paid, the difference being recognized as an asset and allocated to income for the period of 36 months or the term of the contract, whichever is lower;
- b) 2016: Fully recognize as an expense the value of 2/3 of the commission paid, the difference being recognized as an asset and allocated to income for the period of 36 months or the term of the contract, whichever is lower; and

c) 2017: Recognize the full amount of commission paid as an expense.

The Bank is using this prerogative.

In accordance with Central Bank Letter 3,722 issued on October 2014, the accounting procedures previously described should be applied prospectively from January 2015.

From January 2020, if still exists in assets of the entity unamortized balance of sales commission paid to the correspondent, this amount must be fully written off against income (expense).

I) Permanent Assets

Stated at acquisition cost, are tested for impairment annually or more frequently if the conditions or circumstances indicate that assets may be impaired, and valued considering the following aspects:

I.1) Investments

Adjustments to investments in affiliates and subsidiaries are measured under the equity method of accounting and recorded as investments in affiliates and subsidiaries. Other investments are stated at cost, reduced to fair value, when applicable.

I.2) Fixed Assets

Depreciation of fixed assets is determined under the straight-line method at the following annual rates: buildings - 4%, facilities, furniture, equipment in use, security systems and communications - 10%, data processing systems and vehicles - 20%, and leasehold improvements - 10% or through the maturity of the rental contracts.

I.3) Intangible Assets

Goodwill on acquisition of subsidiaries is amortized over 10 years, based on expected future earnings and is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if conditions or circumstances indicate that the asset may be impaired.

On July 2015 the Bank revised the goodwill amortization rate related to Banco Real's acquisition, this measure aims to suit original amortization rate on term, extension and proportion of future income. The amortization of this goodwill will be completed in October, 2017 (originally 2016).

Exclusivity contracts for provision of banking services are accounted the payments related to the commercial partnership contracts with the private and public sectors to assure exclusivity for banking services of payroll credit processing and payroll loans, maintenance of collection portfolio, supplier payment services and other banking services, are allocated to income over the term of the respective agreements.

Software acquisition and development expenses are amortized over a maximum of 5 years.

m) Technical Reserves Related to the Activities of Pensions and Capitalization

Technical reserves are recognized and calculated in accordance with the provisions and criteria established in the National Council of Private Insurance (CNSP) and Superintendence of Private Insurance (Susep).

Technical Reserves to Pensions

Technical provisions are recognized in accordance with the criteria below:

• Provision for Unearned Premiums (PPNG)

The PPNG consists of the portions of the net premiums of ceded coinsurance, corresponding to the periods of risks after policy conditions, calculated "pro rata" day as Circulating Susep 517/2015 and subsequent changes in the period between the issue and the beginning of the calculation of the provision is made considering the duration equal to the duration of the risk.

• Provision for Unearned Premiums-Current Risks but not Issued (PPNG-RVNE)

The PPNG-RVNE aims to estimate the share of unearned premiums relating to the risk already taken but that still do not have their insurance policies issued. This provision is estimated based on historical emissions behavior in delays, according to Actuarial Technical Note (NTA).

• Mathematical Provisions for Benefits Granted and Granted (PMBaC and PMBC)

The PMBaC are formed from the contributions collected through the financial regime of capitalization. The PMBC represent obligations in the form of continued income plans, being constituted by actuarial calculation for traditional types of plans.

• Provisions for Unsettled Claims (PSL)

The PSL is recognized based on notices received by Evidence Previdência S.A. (Evidence), related the single payments and accrued income, of the claims reported until the base date of calculation, including coinsurance accepted, gross of reinsurance and net of coinsurance ceded. The triggering event of the release of the provision due to payment, is characterized upon the financial settlement, of the receipt of the compensation payment receipt, annuity or losing income, or as other cases provided by law.

• PSL Lawsuit

The claims in the lawsuit are reviewed individually by the Legal Department to be sorted among these odds of loss, being updated whenever there is need.

In the PSL still monetary restatement and deals with legal fees of collapsing, as indexer and interest of 1% percent a month.

• Provision for Claims Incurred But not Reported (IBNR)

The IBNR should be made to cover claims incurred but not yet reported until the base date of calculation. For purposes of description of the methodology, we have adopted the term "claim" to set all claims and benefits of security risk plans. The Evidence does not have enough database to prepare its own methodology in this way is used technical procedures defined in Circulating Susep 517/2015 and subsequent changes.

• Provision of Related Expenses (PDR)

The PDR is constituted for the coverage of expected values relating to expenses related to claims. For structured plans in the financial scheme of simple sharing and allocation of capital, the provision covers the cost, alcoves and not alcoves, related to the settlement of claims or benefits, on the basis of claims incurred, warned or not.

• Provision of Financial Surplus (PEF)

The PEF covers the financial surplus values provisioned, to be used in accordance with the rules of the plan. This provision is calculated considering the return on investments held versus the guaranteed profitability in each plan.

• Provision for Redemptions and/or Other Amounts to Regulate (PVR)

Covers the values relating to redemption to regulate, the returns of contributions or awards or the requested portability issues and that for whatever reason, have not yet been made.

• Provision of Supplementary Coverage (PCC)

The PCC shall be constituted when failure is observed in the technical provisions resulting from the Test of Adequacy of Liabilities (TAP).

Technical Provisions for Capitalization

Technical provisions are recognized in accordance with the criteria below:

- Mathematical technical provisions for redemption results from accumulation of percentages applicable on payments made, capitalized with the interest rate provided for in the plan and update through the basic remuneration rate of savings account-Basic Reference Rate (TR);
- Provision for redemption of anticipated titles is constituted from the cancellation for non-payment or redemption request, based on the value of the mathematical provision of rescue formed at the time of cancellation of the title and the provision for redemption of the matured bonds is formed after the end of the title;
- Provision for raffles to be held is made based on a percentage of pay portion and aims to cover draws the titles will compete, but that have not yet been carried out and the provision of raffles payable consists of titles drawn, but which have not yet been paid; and
- Administrative provision aims to reflect the present value of future expenses of savings bonds whose duration extends from the date of its constitution.

n) Employees Benefit Plans

Post-employment benefit plans include the commitments of the Bank: (i) addition to the benefits of public pension plan; and (ii) medical assistance in case of retirement, permanent disability or death for that employees, and their direct beneficiaries.

Defined Contribution Plans

Defined benefit plans is the post-employment benefit plan which the Bank, and its subsidiaries, as the sponsoring entity pays fixed contributions into a pension fund, not having a legal or constructive obligation to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all benefits relating to services provided in the current and in previous periods.

The contributions made in this connection are recognized under personnel expenses in the income statement.

Defined Benefit Plans

Defined benefit plan is the post-employment benefit plan which is not a defined contribution plan and is showed in Note 35. For this type of plan, the sponsoring entity's obligation is to provide the agreed benefits with employees, assuming the potential actuarial risk that benefits will cost more than expected.

Since January 2013, Banco Santander apply CPC 33 (R1) that provides substantially the full recognition of liabilities when on account actuarial losses (actuarial deficit) recognized will not occur, in contrast to the equity (other valuation adjustments).

Main Definitions

- The present value of the defined benefit obligation is the present value of expected future payments required to settle the obligation resulting from employee service in the current and past periods, without deducting any plan assets.

- Deficit or surplus is: (a) the present value of the defined benefit obligation, less (b) the fair value of plan assets.

- The sponsoring entity may recognize the plan's assets in the balance sheet when they meet the following characteristics: (i) the assets of the fund are sufficient to meet all employee benefit plan or a sponsor obligations; or (ii) the assets are returned to the sponsoring entity in order to reimburse it for employee benefits already paid.

- Actuarial gains and losses are changes in present value of defined benefit obligation resulting from: (a) adjustments by experience (the effects of differences between the actuarial assumptions adopted and what has actually occurred); and (b) effects of changes in actuarial assumptions.
- Current service cost is the increase in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from employee service in the current period.
- The past service cost is the change in present value of defined benefit obligation for employee service in prior periods resulting from a change in the plan or reductions in the number of employees covered.

Post-employment benefits are recognized in income in the lines of other operating expenses - actuarial losses - retirement plans (Note 32) and personnel expenses (Note 28).

The defined benefit plans are recorded based on an actuarial study, conducted annually by an external consultant, specialized consulting and approved by management at the end of each year to be effective for the subsequent period.

o) Share Based Compensation

The Bank has compensation plans with long-term conditions for acquisition. The main conditions for acquisition are: (1) conditions of service, provided if the participant remains employed during the period of the Plan to acquire a position to exercise their rights; (2) performance conditions, the amount of investment in Certificates of Deposit Shares (Units) exercisable by the participants will be determined according to the result of a performance measurement parameter of the Bank: Total Shareholder Return (TSR) may be reduced, if not achieved the goals of the modifier Return on Risk Weighted Assets (RoRWA), comparison between realized and budgeted in each year, as determined by the Board of Directors and (3) market conditions, since some parameters are conditioned to the value of the shares of the Bank. The Bank measures the fair value of the services rendered by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted at the grant date, taking into account market conditions for each plan at the estimated fair value.

Settlement in Share

The fair value of services is measured by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted at the grant date, taking into account market conditions for each plan at the estimated fair value. In order to recognize the staff costs in contrast with the capital reserves during the period covered, as the services are received, it is considered the treatment of conditions of service and the amount recognized for services received over the period of assessment based on the best estimative for the number of equity instruments expected to vest.

Settlement in Cash

For share-based payments settled in cash (in the form of share valuation), the services provided are measured and the corresponding liabilities incurred in the fair value valuation of the shares at grant date and until the liability is settled, the fair value of liability is revaluated at the end of each reporting period and the date of settlement, with any changes in fair value recognized in the income. In order to recognize the staff costs in contrast with the provisions in "wages payable" throughout the term, reflecting the period in which services are received, the total liability is based on the best estimative of the amount of right of recovery of shares that will be acquired at the end of the exercise of validity and recognizes the value of the services received during the period of validity based on the best available estimative. Periodically, analysis is performed of the estimated number of stock appreciation rights to be acquired at the end of the grace exercise.

p) Funding, Notes Issued and Other Liabilities

Financial liabilities instruments are recognized initially at fair value, considered as the transaction price. They are subsequently measured at amortized cost with expenses recognized as a financial cost (Note 18.d).

Among the liabilities initial recognition methods of, it is important to emphasize those compound financial instruments which are classified as such due to the fact that the instrument contain both a debt instrument (liability), and an embedded equity component (derivative).

The recognition of a compound instrument consists of a combination of (i) a main instrument, which is recognized as an entity's genuine liability (debt) and (ii) an equity net component (derivative convertible into ordinary shares).

In accordance to the COSIF, the hybrid capital instruments and debt represents obligations of financial institutions and should be recorded in specific accounts of the valued liabilities adjusted according for the effect of exchange rate variation, when denominated in currency foreign. All the remunerations related to these instruments, such as interest and exchange variation (difference between the functional currency and the currency in which the instrument was called) shall be accounted expenses in the period in compliance the accrual basis method.

In relation the stockholders' equity component, your registration occurs at the initial moment on grounds of their fair value, if different from zero.

The relevant details of these issued instruments composed nature are described in Note 21.

q) Provisions, Contingent Assets and Liabilities

Banco Santander and its subsidiaries are involved in judicial and administrative proceedings related to tax, labor and civil, in the normal course of their activities.

The provisions include legal obligations, judicial and administrative proceedings related to tax and social security obligations, whose object is to challenge their legality or constitutionality, regardless of the assessment that the probability of success, the amounts are fully recognized in the financial statements.

Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate and may be fully or partially reversed or reduced when the outflows of resources and obligations relevant to the process are no longer probable, including decay of legal deadlines, among others.

Provisions for the judicial and administrative proceedings are recorded when the risk of loss of administrative or judicial proceeding is considered probable and the amounts can be reliably measured, based on the nature, complexity and history of lawsuits, the legal opinion of the internal and external advisors, based on the best available information. For those which the risk of loss is possible, the provisions are not recorded and the information is disclosed in the financial statements (Note 23.h) and for the provisions for which the risk of loss is remote, no disclosure is required.

Contingent assets are not recognized, except when there are guarantees or favorable judicial decisions, about which features no longer fit, characterizing the gain as practically certain. Assets with probable success, if any, are only disclosed in the financial statements.

On the favorable decisions to Santander, the counterparty has the right, in the event of specific legal requirements attended, to file a rescission action within a period determined by current legislation. Rescission actions are considered as new events and will be evaluated for contingent liability purposes if and when they are filed.

r) Social Integration Program (PIS) and Contribution for the Financing of Social Security (Cofins)

The PIS (0.65%) and Cofins (4.00%) are calculated on the gross revenue related to the main activity of the legal entity. The financial institutions may deduct financial expenses in the establishment of this base. PIS and Cofins expenses are recorded in tax expenses. For non-financial companies the rates are 1.65% for PIS and 7.6% for Cofins.

s) Income Tax (IRPJ) and Social Contribution on Net Income (CSLL)

IRPJ is calculated at the rate of 15% plus a surtax of 10% applied on income, after adjustments determined by tax legislation. The Social Contribution Tax on Net Profit (CSLL) is calculated at the rate of 20% for financial institutions, insurance companies and capitalization and 9% for other companies, levied on profit, after adjustments required by tax legislation. The CSLL rate applicable to financial institutions, insurance companies and capitalization was raised from 15% to 20% for the period between September, 1st 2015 and December, 31, 2018, in the terms of the current law 13,169/2015 (result of the conversion into law of Provisory Measure 675/2015).

The Tax credits and deferred liabilities are calculated, basically, on certain temporary differences between book value and tax, tax losses, adjustments to fair value of securities and derivatives. The recognition of tax credits and deferred liabilities are made by rates applicable in the period which is estimated the realization of the assets or the settlement of the liabilities.

In accordance with the current regulation, the tax credits are recognized to the extent that it is probable recovery in base to the generation of future taxable income. The expected realization of the tax credits according to Note 11.b is based on the projections of future earnings supported by a technical study.

t) Recovery of Impairment Assets

The financial and non-financial assets are measured at the end of each reporting period in order to identify evidence of impairment in its accounting value. If there is any indication, the entity shall estimate the recoverable amount of the asset and that loss shall be recognized immediately in the income statement. The recoverable amount of an asset is defined as the highest amount between its fair value net of selling expenses and its value in use.

u) Deferred Income

Refers to income received before the maturity of the underlying obligation and include non-refundable income, primarily related to guarantees and sureties given and credit card annual fees. The allocation to income is made in accordance with the terms of the agreements.

v) Non-Controlling Interest - Consolidated Stockholders' Equity

The non-controlling interests (minority interests) are reported in a separate shareholders' equity of the parent entity for purpose of presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

w) Financial Guarantees

The CMN Resolution 4,512 of July 28, 2016 and Circular Letter Bacen 3,782 of September 19, 2016, established accounting procedures to be applied, determining on the constitution of a provision to cover losses associated with financial guarantees provided in any form, To be applied prospectively as from January 1, 2017. Financial institutions should assess the losses associated with the likelihood of future disbursements linked to financial guarantees provided in accordance with recognized credit risk management models and practices information and verifiable criteria. The provision should be sufficient to cover probable losses throughout the term of the guarantee provided and be reassessed at least monthly. Provisions related to financial guarantees rendered before January 1, 2017 were recorded against a shareholders' equity account, in accordance with Bacen standards.

x) Subsequent Event

c) Financial Instruments - Sensitivity Analysis

The risk management is focused on portfolios and risk factors pursuant to Bacen's regulations and good international practices.

The new rules of Basel III follow a phase in schedule, thus enabling the application of the rules gradually until 2019.

Financial instruments are segregated in the trading and banking portfolios, as performed in the management of the market risk exposure, in accordance with the best market practices and the classification criteria of operations and capital management of the Standardized Method of Basel Of Bacen. Trading portfolio consists of all transactions with financial instruments and commodities, including derivatives, held for trading purposes. The "banking" portfolio consists of the structural operations arising from the various business lines of Banco Santander and its possible hedges. Accordingly, according to the nature of Banco Santander's activities, the sensitivity analysis was divided between the trading and banking portfolios.

Banco Santander performs the sensitivity analysis of the financial instruments in accordance with requirements of CVM Instruction 475/2008, considering the market information and scenarios that would adversely affect the positions of the Bank.

The table below summarize sensitivity values generated by the corporate systems of Banco Santander, referring to the trading portfolio and the banking portfolio, for each of the portfolios of June 30, 2017.

14. Dependences Information and Foreign Subsidiary

Branches:

Cayman

The Grand Cayman Agency is a branch of Banco Santander, and is not a legal company incorporated separately. It operates in the Cayman Islands under the Category "B" banking license. In the normal course of business, the branch has significant transactions with the parent and its affiliates. All transactions are made and recorded under the direction of Head Office in which the branch is economically dependent.

The Grand Cayman branch is licensed by the Law of Banks and Trust Companies, or "Law of Banks and Trust Companies" as a Bank of Category "B" and is duly registered as a Foreign Company by the Officer Societies Registration in Grand Cayman in the Cayman Islands. The branch therefore is duly authorized to perform banking business in the Cayman Islands and are currently involved in the funding business in the banking market and the international capital to provide credit lines to us, which are then extended to our customers for financing working capital and foreign trade. Its also receives foreign currency deposits of corporate clients and individuals and grants credit to brazilian and foreign clients, mainly to support trade with Brazil.

Luxembourg

The Brazilian Central Bank, on June 9, 2017, granted to Banco Santander the authorization for the incorporation of a branch in Luxembourg, with a capital equivalent to US$1 billion and the purpose of complementing the foreign trade strategy for corporate clients - large Brazilian companies and their operations abroad - and offering products and financial services through an offshore entity that is not established in a jurisdiction with favored taxation and has a greater ability to source funds.

The incorporation of the branch is still subject to the authorization to be granted by the Luxembourg financial authority.

Subsidiary:

Banco Santander has an independent subsidiary in Spain, Santander Brasil, Establecimiento Financiero de Credito, S.A. (Santander Brasil EFC), to complement the foreign trade strategy for corporate clients - large Brazilian companies and their operations abroad - and offer products and financial services through an offshore entity that is not established in a jurisdiction with favored taxation.

The summarized financial position of dependency and foreign subsidiary, converted at the exchange rate prevailing at balance sheet date in the financial statements include:

Value in use is used as the base to evaluate goodwill on acquired companies with the impairment test. For this purpose, we estimate cash flow for a period of 5 years. We prepare cash flows considering several factors, including: (i) macro-economic projections, such as interest rates, inflation and exchange rates, among others, (ii) the performance and growth estimates of the Brazilian financial system, (iii) increased costs, returns, synergies and investment plans, (iv) the behavior of customers, and (v) the growth rate and long-term adjustments to cash flows on a continuous basis, as showed in the table below. These estimates rely on assumptions regarding the likelihood of future events, and changing certain factors could result in differing outcomes. The estimate of cash flows is based on valuations prepared by independent research company, which is reviewed annually or whenever there is an evidence of reduction on its recoverable value and approved by the Administration.

Main Assumptions:

Basis of Valuation	Value in Use: Cash Flows
Period of the Projections of Cash Flows ⁽¹⁾	5 Years
Growth Rate	8.0%
Discount Rate ⁽²⁾	15.2%

(1) The projections of cash flow are prepared using internal budget and growth plans of the administration, based on historical data, market expectations and conditions such as industry growth, interest rate and inflation.

(2) The discount rate is calculated based on the capital asset pricing model (CAPM). The discount rate before tax is 20.23%.

Based on the assumptions described above, was not identified any impairment of goodwill.

d) Provisions for Contingent Civil, Labor, Tax and Social Security

Banco Santander and its subsidiaries are involved in litigation and administrative tax, labor and civil proceedings arising in the normal course of its activities.

The provisions were constituted based on the nature, complexity and history of actions and evaluation loss of company stock businesses based on the opinions of internal and external legal advisors. The Santander has the policy to accrue the full amount of lawsuits whose loss valuation is probable. The legal obligation statutory tax and social security were fully recognized in the financial statements.

Management understands that the provisions recorded are sufficient to meet legal obligations and losses from lawsuits and administrative proceedings as follows:

e) Lawsuits and Administrative Tax and Social Security

The main lawsuits related to tax legal obligations, recorded in the line "Tax Liabilities - Current", fully registered as obligation, are described below:

PIS and Cofins - R$1,730,616 Bank and R$3,425,624 Consolidated (06/30/2016 - R$1,599,005 Bank and R$3,163,558 Consolidated): Banco Santander and its subsidiaries filed lawsuits seeking to eliminate the application of Law 9,718/1998, which modified the calculation basis for PIS and Cofins to cover all revenues of legal entities and not only those arising from the provision of services and sale of goods. Regarding the Banco Santander Process, on April 23, 2015, a STF decision was issued admitting the Extraordinary Appeal filed by the Federal Government regarding PIS and denying the follow-up to the Extraordinary Appeal of the Federal Public Prosecutor regarding Cofins. Both appealed this decision, without any success, so that the suit relating to Cofins is defined, ruling the judgment of the Federal Regional Court of the 4th Region of August 2007, favorable to Banco Santander. The Banco Santander's PIS and the PIS and Cofins liabilities of the other controlled companies are pending final judgment by the STF.

Increase in CSLL Tax Rate - R$357,238 Bank and R$1,035,128 Consolidated (06/30/2016 - R$331,439 Bank and R$909,094 Consolidated): the Banco Santander and its subsidiaries are discussing the increase in the CSLL tax rate, from 9% to 15%, established by Executive Act 413/2008, subsequently converted into Law 11,727/2008, as from April 2008. Judicial proceedings are pending of judgment.

Banco Santander and its subsidiaries are parties to judicial and administrative proceedings related to tax and social security matters, which are classified based on the opinion of legal counsel as probable loss risk.

The main topics discussed in these lawsuits are:

CSLL - Equal Tax Treatment - at the Consolidated R$55,118 (06/30/2016 - R$53,246): its subsidiaries filed a lawsuit challenging the application of an increased CSLL rate of 18% for financial companies, applicable until 1998, compared to the CSLL rate of 8% for non-financial companies on the basis of the constitutional principle of equal tax treatment.

Tax on Services for Financial Institutions (ISS) - R$652,412 Bank and R$667,230 Consolidated (06/30/2016 - R$809,450 Bank and R$826,356 Consolidated): the Banco Santander and its subsidiaries filed lawsuits, in administrative and judicial proceedings, some municipalities collection of ISS on certain revenues derived from transactions not usually classified as services.

Social Security Contribution (INSS) - R$259,353 Bank and R$259,360 Consolidated (06/30/2016 - R$318,325 Bank and R$337,844 Consolidated): Banco Santander and its subsidiaries are involved in administrative and judicial proceedings regarding the collection of income tax on social security and education allowance contributions over several funds that, according to the evaluation of legal advisors, do not have nature of salary.

Provisional Contribution on Financial Transactions (CPMF) on Customer Operations - R$704,231 (06/30/2016 - R$673,698) Bank and Consolidated: in May 2003, the Federal Revenue Service issued a tax assessment against Santander Distribuidora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários Ltda. (Santander DTVM) and another tax assessment against Banco Santander Brasil S.A. The tax assessments refer to the collection of CPMF tax on transactions conducted by Santander DTVM in the cash management of its customers' funds and clearing services provided by Banco to Santander DTVM in 2000, 2001 and the first two months of 2002. Based on the risk assessment of legal counsel, the tax treatment was accurate. Santander DTVM had a favorable decision at the Board of Tax Appeals (CARF). Banco Santander had an unfavorable decision and was considered responsible for the collection of the CPMF tax. Both decisions were appealed by the respective losing party to the highest jurisdiction of CARF. In June 2015, Bank and DTVM had obtained a non favorable decision at CARF. On July 3rd, 2015 Bank and Produban Serviços de Informática S.A. (actual Santander DTVM company name) filed lawsuit aiming to cancel both tax charges on the period ended June 30, 2017 amounting R$1,416 million. Based on the evaluation of legal advisors, were consisted provision to the probable loss.

f) Lawsuits and Administrative Proceedings of Labor

These are lawsuits brought by labor Unions, Associations, Public Prosecutors and former employees claiming labor rights they believe are due, especially payment for overtime and other labor rights, including retirement benefit lawsuits.

For claims considered to be similar and usual, provisions are recognized based on the history of payments and successes. Claims that do not fit the previous criteria are accrued according to individual assessment performed, and provisions are based on the probable loss, the law and jurisprudence according to the assessment of loss made by legal counsel.

g) Lawsuits and Administrative Proceedings of Civil

These contingencies are generally caused by: (1) Action with a request for revision of contractual terms and conditions or requests for monetary adjustments, including supposed effects of the implementation of various government economic plans, (2) action deriving of financing agreements, (3) execution action; and (4) action indemnity by loss and damage. For civil actions considered common and similar in nature, provisions are recorded based on the average of cases closed. Claims that do not fit the previous criteria are accrued according to individual assessment performed, and provisions are based on the probable loss, the law and jurisprudence according to the assessment of loss made by legal counsel.

The main processes classified as risk of loss likely are described below:

Lawsuits for Indemnity - seeking indemnity for property damage and/or emotional distress, regarding the consumer relationship on matters related to credit cards, consumer credit, bank accounts, collection and loans and other operations. In the civil lawsuits considered to be similar and usual, provisions are recorded based on the average of cases closed. Civil lawsuits that do not fit into the previous criterion are accrued according to the individual assessment made, and provisions are recognized based on the probable loss, the law and jurisprudence according to the assessment of loss made by legal counsel.

Economic Plans - efforts to recover actions with collective the deficient inflation adjustments in savings accounts arising from the Economic Plans (Bresser, Verão, Collor I and II). These refer to the lawsuits filed by savings accountholders disputing the interest credited by the Banco Santander under such plans as they considered that such legal amendments infringed on the rights acquired with regard to the application of the inflation indexes. Provisions are recorded based on the average losses of cases closed.

Civil lawsuits that do not fit into the previous criterion are accrued according to the individual assessment made, and provisions are recognized based on the probable loss, the law and jurisprudence according to the assessment of loss made by legal counsel. The Banco Santander is also a party in public class action suits on the same issue filed by consumer rights organizations, Public Prosecutor's Offices and Public Defender's Offices. In these cases, the provision is made only after the final unappealable sentence is handed down on the lawsuits, based on the individual execution orders. The Superior Tribunal da Justiça (STJ - Justice Superior Court) decided against the bank's. The STF is still analyzing the subject and has already ordered the suspension of all the procedures except those that were not already decided in trial courts and those who have a final decision. However, the assessment of this question is paralyzed in the Supreme Court for lack of quorum, considering that some of his ministers declared themselves unable to judge the matter and therefore is likely to judgment remains paralyzed for several years yet. There are decisions favorable to banks at the STF with regard to the economic phenomenon similar to that of savings accounts, as in the case of monetary restatement of time deposits - CDB and agreements (present value table).

Moreover, there are precedents at the Supreme Court regarding the constitutionality of the norms that changed Brazil's monetary standard. On April 14, 2010, the STJ was recently decided that the deadline for the filing of civil lawsuits that argue the government's purge of five years, but this decision has not been handed down on the lawsuits yet. Thus, with this decision, a majority stake, as was proposed after the period of five years is likely to be rejected, reducing the values involved. Still, the STF decided that the deadline for individual savers to qualify in the public civil litigations, also is five years, counted from the final judgment of their sentence. Banco Santander believes in the success of the arguments defended in these courts based on their content and the sound legal basis.

h) Civil, Labor, Tax, and Security Social Liabilities Contingent Classified as Possible Loss Risk

Refer to judicial and administrative proceedings involving tax, labor and civil matters assessed by legal counsels, as possible losses, which were not accounted for.

The shares tax classification with possible loss, totaling R$18,850 million, main processes being:

Credit Losses - Bank and its subsidiaries challenged the tax assessments issued by the Federal Revenue Services challenging the deduction for credit losses because they fail to meet the relevant requirements under applicable law. As of June 30, 2017 the amount related to this challenge is approximately R$771 million.

INSS on Profits or Results (PLR) - Bank and the subsidiaries are involved in several legal and administrative proceedings against the tax authorities in connection with the taxation for social security purposes of certain items which are not considered to be employee remuneration. As of June 30, 2017 the amounts related to these proceedings totaled approximately R$3,820 million.

IRPJ and CSLL - Capital Gain - the Federal Revenue Service of Brazil issued infraction notices against Santander Seguros, successor company of ABN AMRO Brasil Dois Participações S.A. (AAB Dois Par), charging income Tax and Social Contribution to related base year 2005. The Federal Revenue Service of Brazil claiming that capital gain in sales shares of Real Seguros S.A and Real Vida Previdência S.A. by AAB Dois Par should be taxed an rate of 34% instead 15%. The assessment was contested administratively based on understanding tax treatment adopted at the transaction was in compliance and capital gain was taxed properly. The administrative process is awaiting trial. The Banco Santander is responsible for any adverse outcome in this process as Former Controller of Stockholders Zurich Santander Brasil Seguros e Previdência S.A. As of June 30, 2017 the amount related to this proceeding is approximately R$286 million.

Goodwill Amortization of Banco Real - the Brazilian Federal Revenue issued infraction notices against the Bank to require the income tax and social payments, including late charges, for the base period of 2009. The Tax Authorities considered that the goodwill related to acquisition of Banco Real, amortized for accounting purposes prior to the merger, could not be deduced by Banco Santander for tax purposes. The infraction notices was contested. On July 14, 2015, the Police Judging RFB decided favorably to Banco Santander, fully canceling the tax debt. This decision will craft appealed before the CARF. On June 30, 2017, the figure was approximately R$1,301 million.

Goodwill Amortization of Banco Sudameris - the Tax Authorities have issued infraction notices to require the income tax and social contribution payments, including late charges, relating to tax deduction of amortization of goodwill from the acquisition of Banco Sudameris, related to the period of 2007 to 2012. Banco Santander timely presented their appeals, which are pending. On June 30, 2017, the figure was approximately R$592 million.

Unapproved Compensation - The Bank and its affiliates discuss administrative and legal proceedings with the Federal Revenue Office to grant tax relief with credits arising from overpayments. On June 30, 2017, approximately R$2,193 million at the Consolidated.

The labor claims with classification of possible loss totaled R$15 million, excluding the processes below:

Semiannual Bonus or PLR - a labor lawsuit relating to the payment of a semiannual bonus or, alternatively, profit sharing, to retired employees from the former Banco do Estado de São Paulo S.A. - Banespa, that had been hired up to May 22, 1975, filed as Banespa's Retirees Association. This lawsuit was dismissed against the Bank by the Superior Labor Court. The STF rejected the extraordinary appeal of the Bank by a monocratic decision maintaining the earlier condemnation. Santander brought Regimental Appeal which awaits decision by the STF. The Regimental Appeal is an internal appeal filed in the STF itself, in order to refer the monocratic decision to a group of five ministers. The 1st Class of the Supreme Court upheld the appeal by the Bank and denied the Afabesp. The materials of the extraordinary appeal of the Bank now proceed to the Supreme Court for decision on overall impact and judgment. The amount related to this claim is not disclosed due to the current stage of the lawsuit and the possible impact such disclosure may have on the progress of the claim.

Readjustment of Banesprev retirement complements by the IGPDI - lawsuit filed in 2002 in Federal Court by the Association of Retired Employees of the Bank of the State of São Paulo requesting the readjustment of the supplementation of retirement by the IGPDI for Banespa retirees who have been admitted until May 22 Of 1975. The judgment granted the correction but only in the periods in which no other form of adjustment was applied. The Bank and Banesprev have appealed this decision and although the appeals have not yet been judged, the Bank's success rate in this regard in the High Courts is around 90%. In Provisional Execution, calculations were presented by the Bank and Banesprev with "zero" result due to the exclusion of participants who, among other reasons, are listed as authors in other actions or have already had some type of adjustment. The amount related to this action is not disclosed due to the current stage of the process and the possible impact that such disclosure may generate on the progress of the action.

The liabilities related to civil lawsuits with possible loss totaled R$1,215 million, the main processes as follows:

Indemnity Lawsuit Arising of the Banco Bandepe - related to mutual agreement on appeal to the Justice Superior Court (STJ - Superior Tribunal de Justiça).

Indemnity Lawsuit Related to Custody Services - provided by Banco Santander at an early stage and still not handed down.

Lawsuit Arising out of a Contractual Dispute - the acquisition of Banco Geral do Comércio S.A. on appeal to the Court of the State of São Paulo (TJSP - Tribunal de Justiça do Estado de São Paulo).

25. Operational Ratios

In July 2008 came into force the rules on regulatory capital measurement by the Standardized Approach of Basel II. On 2013 was issued a set of Resolutions and Circulars, aligned with the recommendations of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision. These rules were repealed by CMN Resolution 4,192 and 4,193 which took effect from October 2013, establishing the model for calculating the minimum Regulatory Capital requirements, Tier I and Common Equity Tier I. These Resolutions states that the composition of the Regulatory Capital is done through equity, subordinated debt and hybrid capital instruments.

As required by Resolution CMN 4,193/2013, the requirement for PR in 2016 was 10.5%, composed of 9.875% of Reference Equity Minimum plus 0.625% of Capital Conservation Additional. Considering this additional, PR Level I increased to 6.625% and Minimum Principal Capital to 5.125%.

For the base year 2017, the PR requirement remains at 10.5%, including 9.25% of Minimum of Reference Equity and a further 1.25% of Capital Conservation Additional. The PR Level I reaches 7.25% and the Principal Capital Minimum 5.75%.

As a continuation the adoption of the rules established by CMN Resolution 4,192/2013, as of January 2015, came into force the Prudential Conglomerate, defined by CMN Resolution 4,280/2013.

d.1) Qatar Holding LLC's Public Offering

On April 11, 2017, Banco Santander Brasil informed its shareholders and the market in general, in furtherance of the material facts disclosed on March 28, 2017 and April 6, 2017, the settlement of the secondary public offering for the distribution of eighty million (80,000,000) Units issued by Banco Santander Brasil and held by Qatar Holding LLC (Selling Shareholder), including in the form of American Depository Shares (ADSs), having been allocated twenty-two million (22,000,000) Units for the Brazilian offering and fifty-eight million (58,000,000) ADSs for the international offering. The price per Unit was set at twenty-five reais (R$25.00), resulting on a total amount of two billion reais (R$2,000,000,000.00). Additionally, the amount of Units of the international offering initially offered was increased by an additional batch of twelve million (12,000,000) Units, exclusively in the form of ADSs also held by the Selling Shareholder.

e) Related-Party Transactions

Santander has a Policy for Related Party Transactions approved by the Board of Directors, which aims to ensure that all transactions typified by the policy to take effect in view of the interests of Banco Santander and its shareholders. The policy defines the power to approve certain transactions by the Board of Directors. The planned rules also apply to all employees and officers of Banco Santander and its subsidiaries.

Operations and charges for services with related parties are carried out in the ordinary course of business and under reciprocal conditions, including interest rates, terms and guarantees, and do not entail greater risk than the normal collection or have other disadvantages.

The main transactions and balance are as follows:

	Assets (Liabilities)	Income (Expenses)	Assets (Liabilities)	Bank

Fiscal Hedge Grand Cayman Branch and the Subsidiary Santander Brasil EFC

Banco Santander operate a branch in the Cayman Islands and a subsidiary called Santander Brazil Establecimiento Financiero de Credito, EFC, or "Santander Brasil EFC" (independent subsidiary in Spain) which are used mainly to raise funds in the capital and financial markets, providing credit lines that are extended to customers for trade-related financings and working capital (Note 14).

To protect the exposures to foreign exchange rate variations, the Bank uses derivatives and international funding. According to Brazilian tax rules, the gains or losses resulting from the impact of appreciation or devaluation of the local currency (real) in foreign investments are nontaxable to PIS/Cofins/IR/CSLL, while gains or losses from derivatives used as hedges are taxable or deductible. The purpose of these derivatives are to protect the after-tax results.

The different tax treatment of such foreign exchange rate differences results in a volatility on the operational earnings or losses and on the gross revenue tax expense (PIS/Cofins) and income taxes (IR/CSLL). Exchange rate variations arising from foreign investments recorded for the accumulated of period ended on June 30, 2017 a gain of R$770 million (2016 - R$7,810 million). On the other hand, the derivatives contracted to cover these positions generated a loss in "Derivatives Transaction" of R$1,469 million (2016 - R$14,892 million). The tax effect of these derivatives impacted the Tax Expenses line generating a tax gain of R$699 million (2016 - R$7,082 million) represented by R$69 million (2016 - R$692 million) of PIS/Cofins and R$630 million (2016 - R$6,390 million) IR/CSLL.

f) Share-Based Compensation

Banco Santander has long-terms compensation plans linked to the market price of the shares. The members of the Executive Board of Banco Santander are eligible for these plans, as well as other members selected by the Board of Directors and informed to the Human Resources, whose selection will take into account seniority of the group. For the Board of Directors members in order to be eligible, it is necessary to exercise Executive Board functions.

f.1) Local Program

In 2017, the current Banco Santander's share-based compensation program is the Stock Option Plan for Share Deposit Certificates – Units (SOP 2013), approved on 29 April, 2013, held an EGM. The Long-Term Incentive Plan SOP 2014 and PSP 2013 were closed in 2016.

(i) Share Purchase Plans

Long-Term Incentive Plan – SOP 2013: It is a call option plan with 3 years of vesting. The period for the exercise comprises is between June 30, 2016 to June 30, 2018. The number of Units to be exercised by the participants were determined according to the result of measurement of a performance parameter of the Bank: Total Shareholder Return (TSR) and adjusted by the indicator Return on Assets by Risk (RoRWA), comparison between realized and budgeted in each year. The final result of the plan was 89.61%.

a.1) Fair Value and Plans Performance Parameters

For accounting of the Local Program plans, an independent consultant promoted simulations based on Monte Carlo methodology's, as presented the performance parameters used to calculate the shares to be granted. Such parameters are associated with their respective probabilities of occurrence, which are updated at the close of each exercise.

TSR Position	SOP2013 ⁽¹⁾ % of Shares Exercisable
1°	100%
2°	75%
3°	50%

(1) The percentage of shares determined at the position of TSR is subject to a penalty according to the implementation of Return on Risk Weighted Assets (RoRWA).

For measurement of the fair value of the options in the plans based the following premises:

	SOP 2013
Method of Assessment	Black&Scholes
Volatility	40.00%
Rate of Dividends	3.00%
Vesting Period	3 Years
Average Exercise Time	5 Years
Risk-Free Rate	11.80%
Probability of Occurrence	60.27%
Fair Value for Shares	R$5.96

The average value of shares SANB11 (shares of the Bank in B3 S.A. (Current Corporate Name of BM&FBovespa)) on June 30, 2017 was R$28.90 (06/30/2016 - R$16.32).

In the first half of 2017, no pro rata expenses were recorded (2016 - expense of R$15,710 Bank and R$15,938 Consolidated), related to the Stock Option Certificate (SOP). In the same period, there were no expenses related to the Long Term Incentive Plan - Investment in Certificate of Deposit of Shares - Units (PSP), in the first half of 2016, expenses were recorded in the amount of R$9,506 Bank and R$9,798 Consolidated.

f.2) Global Program

Long-Term Incentive Policy

In 2014, a share delivery plan called Long-Term Incentive Global Plan CRDIV - Grant 2014 was released. This plan is subject to achievement of performance indicator Total Shareholder Return (TSR) of the Santander Group, comparing the evolution of the Group in this indicator for the main global competitors and the settlement will be in the World Group Santander shares.

In 2016 a stock delivery plan called 2nd Long-Term Incentive Global Plan CRDIV – Grant 2015 was launched.

Global Plan Fair Value

Long-Term Incentive Global Plan CRDIV - Grant 2014

The plan assumes that the beneficiaries will not leave Banco Santander during the term of each plan. The fair value of the 50% linked to Banco Santander's relative TSR position was calculated, on the grant date, on the basis of the report provided by external valiators whose assessment was carried out using a Monte Carlo valuation model, performing 10 thousands simulations to determine the TSR of each of the companies in the Benchmark Group, taking into account the variables set forth below. The results (each of which represents the delivery of a number of shares) are classified in decreasing order by calculating the weighted average and discounting the amount at the risk-free interest rate.

In view of the high correlation between RTA and LPA, it can be considered (in a high percentage of cases) feasible to extrapolate that the RTA value is also valid for LPA. Therefore, it was initially determined that the fair value of the portion of the plans linked to the Bank's relative LPA position, of the remaining 50% of the options granted, was the same as that of the 50% corresponding to the TSR. This valuation is reviewed and adjusted on a yearly basis, since its refers to a non-market condition.

Long-Term Incentive Global Plan CRDIV - Grant 2014

	2 Years	3 Years	4 Years
Future Income Dividend	11.10%	10.80%	9.50%
Expected Volatility	32.70%	34.70%	36.90%

Risk-Free Interest Rate	1.70%	2.10%	2.50%
Correlation	0.55	0.55	0.55

The indicator will be used to measure the achievement of targets will be the comparison of the Total Shareholder Return (RTA) of the Santander Group with the RTA of fifteen (15) leading the Group's global competitors.

The indicator is calculated in two stages: initially for program verification in 2014 and a second time in the annual payment of each installment (2015, 2016 and 2017).

Each executive has a target in Reais, that was converted to Group's (SAN) by the cotation of R$19.2893, that will be delivered in shares awarded in installments in the years 2016, 2017 and 2018, with sale restriction of one (1) year after each delivery.

2nd Long-Term Incentive Global Plan CRDIV - Grant 2015

The targets of shares agreed to each participant will be obtained through the application of the coefficients in two stages: initially for eligibility verification (2015-2016) and a second time to calculate the due number of shares (2016, 2017 e 2018).

Indicators - Stage 1

- RTA Versus Competitors
- ROTE (Return on Tangible Capital) Bank Versus Budget

Indicators - Stage 2

- RTA versus Competitors
- ROTE Bank Versus Budget
- Employee Satisfaction
- Customer Satisfaction
- Corporate Entailment versus Budget

Each executive has a target in Reais, which was converted into shares of the Santander Group (SAN) for a price of R$17,473, which will be delivered in 2019, with a restriction of one (1) year after delivery.

	Number of Shares	Granted Year	Employees	Date of Commencement of the Period	Date of Expiry of Period
1 st Long-Term Incentive Global Plan CRDIV - Grant 2014	1,613,057	2014	Executives	Jan/2014	Dec/2017
2 nd Long -Term Incentive Global Plan CRDIV - Grant 2015	1,775,049	2016	Executives	Jan/2015	Dec/2018
Balance Plans on December 31, 2016	3,388,106

In the first half of 2017, pro rata expenses were recorded in the amount of R$2,269 in the Bank and R$2,297 (2016 - no expenses were recorded), referring to the costs on the respective dates of the aforementioned cycles, for the total plans Of the Global Program.

Plans do not cause dilution of the capital of the Bank, since they are paid in shares of Banco Santander Spain.

f.3) Referenced Variable Remuneration in Shares

Banco Santander Spain's General Shareholders Meeting, held on June 11, 2010, approved the new policy relating to executive compensation through the payment plan referenced in variable compensation shares to the Group companies, including Banco Santander. This new policy, with adjustments applicable to Banco Santander, was approved by the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors on February 2, 2011.

The plan's objectives are: (i) to align the compensation program with the principles of the Financial Stability Board (FSB) agreed at G20; (ii) to align Banco Santander's interests with those of the plan's participants (to achieve the sustainable and recurring growth and profitability of Banco Santander's businesses and to recognize the participants' contributions); (iii) to allow the retention of participants; and (iv) to improve Banco Santander's performance and defend the interests of shareholders through a long-term commitment.

The purpose of the plan is the cash or shares payment, as showed below, owed by Banco Santander to the plan's participants pursuant to the bank's compensation policy, based on the future performance of the bank's shares.

The payment of share-based variable compensation is within the limits of the overall management compensation approved by Banco Santander's General Ordinary Meeting.

The total number of shares on which the compensation plan is based will be settled in three installments and equally allocated to each of the three following years to the reference year.

On March 18, 2015, the Board of Directors approved the proposed new incentive plan (deferral) for payment of the variable compensation of directors and certain employees, which was approved in EGM of April 30, 2015.

On September 29, 2015, the Board of Directors approved the proposed new incentive plan (deferral) for payment of the variable compensation of directors and certain employees, which was approved in EGM of December 14, 2015.

On October 25, 2016, the Board of Director approved the proposed new incentive plan (deferral) for payment of the variable compensation of directors and certain employees, which was approved in EGM of December 21, 2016.

This proposal includes certain requirements for deferred payment of part of the future variable compensation due to its managers and other employees, given the financial basis for sustainable long-term adjustments in future payments due to the risks assumed and fluctuations in cost of capital.

The variable Banco Santander compensation plan is divided into two programs: (i) Collective Identified and (ii) Collective Unidentified.

i) Collective Identified - Participants of the Executive Committee, Statutory Officers and other executives who take significant risks in the Bank and are responsible for the control areas. The deferral will be half in cash, indexed to 100% of CDI and half in shares (SANB11). On the first half of 2017, we recorded expenses in the amount of R$7,011 (2016 - revenues in the amount of R$5,601) Bank and R$6,961 (2016 - revenues in the amount of R$5,956) Consolidated, regarding the provision of the deferral plan in shares.

ii) Collective Unidentified - managerial employees and other employees of the organization that will be benefited from the deferral plan. The deferred amount will be paid 100% cash, indexed to 100% of CDI. On the first half of 2017, there were recorded revenues of R$18,642 (2016 - expenses in the amount of R$573) Bank and R$18,661 (2016 - expenses in the amount of R$53) Consolidated.

36. Risk Management Structure

Banco Santander in Brazil follows the model of the Banco Santander Spain, which is based on a prudent risk management and the definition of risk appetite on the part of senior management in view of the local regulator and international good practices, aiming to protect the capital and ensuring the profitability of business. The Bank is exposed to the following main risks in its operations:

- Credit risk and exposure to loss in the case of total or partial default by customers or counterparties in the fulfillment of their financial obligations to the Banco Santander. Credit risk management seeks to establish strategies, besides setting limits, including the analysis of exposure and trends and the effectiveness of credit policies. The aim is to maintain a risk profile and adequate minimum profitability which compensates for the estimated default risk of customers and portfolios, as established by the Executive Committee.

- Market risk is exposure to risk factors including interest rates, exchange rates, commodities prices, stock market prices and other values, according to the type of product, the volume of operations, terms and conditions of the agreement and underlying volatility. Market risk management includes practices of measuring and monitoring the use of limits that are pre-set by internal committees, of the value at risk of the portfolios, of sensitivity to fluctuating interest rates, of exposure to foreign exchange rates, of liquidity gaps, among other practices which the control and monitoring of the risks which might affect the position of Banco Santander portfolios in the different markets in which the Bank operates.

- Operational risk is the risk of loss occurred by inadequacy or failures with process, people, systems and / or from exposure to external events. Management and control of operational risk are supported by the model of lines of defense, where roles and responsibilities are assigned to all layers of the organization to the topic of operational risks.

The Non-Financial Risks area is responsible for the 2nd line of defense, defining policies, methodology and tools for risk management, as well as challenge the 1st line of defense (other areas).

The model allows continuous improvement in the management and control of operational risks, prevention and reduction of losses and risk events, identification of action plans and maintenance of business continuity, converging to the strengthening of the internal control environment.

- Compliance risk is the legal risk or regulatory sanctions, financial loss, or damages to the Bank reputation as a result of failure to comply with laws, regulations, codes of conduct and good banking practice. Compliance risk management has a proactive focus on this risk, policies, implementation of process, including monitoring, training, and appropriate communication of rules and laws to be applied to each businesses area of the Banco Santander.

The inherent risk of Money Laundering is associated with the possibility of the Bank be used by your costumers for Money Laundering through the hiring of products, services and realization of common or structured transactions involving funds earned from illicit businesses in Brazil and abroad, such as drug trafficking, public corruption, tax evasion and others.

In the case of Terrorism Financing, the risk is related to the performance of transactions or in support of individuals and companies listed on international lists published by the FATF - Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering, United Nations Organization (UN), European Union, among others, or funds of those people who identify themselves as supporters of extremist groups and for this reason, perform contributions, donations and work in a structured way in order to financially assist the terrorism.

As a Financial Institution that recognizes the threats and issues involving money laundering and terrorism financing, as well as the effects these practices have on our society and financial market, Banco Santander (Brasil) S.A. maintains a legal and regulatory compliance program which seeks the prevention and combat of these illegal activities.

- Reputational Risk is the risk of the Bank suffer damages and significant financial losses caused by the opinion that its customers, investor and public have about the Bank's relationship with all elements that compose the society.

Management and control of risks in the Conglomerate Santander is structured into three lines of defense, which develop three different functions.

i. Management of risks from their generation;

ii. Control and consolidation of risks, overseeing their management; and

iii. Independent review of the risk activity.

The three lines of defense should have sufficient separation and independence to not compromise the effectiveness of the general scheme.

Without prejudice to the above indicated independence, the three lines of defense should act in unison to maximize their efficiency and boost their effectiveness.

First Line of Defense: Generation and Risk Management

Lines of business or activities that create exposure to a risk are the first line of defense. The generation of risk in the first line of defense should be adjusted to appetite and the limits defined. In order to carry out its role, the first line of defense should be equipped with resources in order to be able to identify, measure, manage and report the risks assumed.

Second Line of Defense: Control and Supervision of Risks

The second line of Defense, represented by the Executive Vice Presidency of Risks (from now, VPE of Risks), is composed of specialized teams in risk control and supervision of their management. This second line of defense should safeguard the effective control of risks and ensure that they are managed in accordance with the risk appetite defined by the Conglomerate Santander.

Third Line of Defense: Internal Audit

Internal Auditing, acting as the last layer of control in the Conglomerate Santander, should regularly evaluate that policies, methods and procedures are adequate, and check that they are effectively implemented in the management.

Corporate Governance Risk Function

The governance model is structured in a vision of decision, focusing on examination and approval of proposals and credit limits, and in a vision of control, with a focus on full control of risks.

The fundamental principles that rule the risk governance model are:

- Independence of the risks in relation to business area;
- Involvement of the management in decision making; and
- Collegiate Decisions and consensus on credit operations.

The CER-Executive Committee of Risks is the local decision-making forum with representatives of the Bank's management, including the President, Vice President and the other members of the Executive Board. The main tasks of this Committee are:

- Monitor the development of credit cards market;
- Decide on proposals for credit;
- Define and monitor compliance with risk appetite;
- Define the actions with regard to the recommendations made by the local regulator and by Internal Audit;
- Approve and authorize the management tools, improvement initiatives, the follow-up of projects and any other relevant activities related to the management of risks; and
- Approve risk policies as well as changes in risk policies with impact on revenue, margin or costs of provision.

The CCR-Risk Control Committee is the control and monitoring local forum with representatives of the Bank's management, including the VPE of Risks and the Vice President of Finance. The main tasks of this Committee are:

- Conduct a comprehensive and periodic follow-up of all risk, if your profile is within the established in the risk appetite, Business Strategic Planning and in the budget approved by the Board of Directors;
- Conduct a periodic and independent control of risk management activities;
- Supervise the measures adopted with regard to risks, to comply with the recommendations and directions made by the regulatory body and local audit; and
- Provide to the Board of Directors and the Executive Commission the information and assistance they need in terms of risks.

The relevant issues of risk management or those that exceed the jurisdiction of these committees will be forwarded and decided by the Board of Directors.

Credit Risk Management

The credit risk management provides subsidies to the development of strategies as risk appetite, beyond boundaries, covering the exposure analysis and trends, as well as the effectiveness of the credit policy. The goal is to keep a risk profile and a minimum appropriate return to compensate for the estimated default rates, both the client and the wallet, as defined by the Executive Committee and Board of Directors.

Credit risk management is specialized in function of the characteristics of customers, being segregated between individual clients (with dedicated analysts tracking) and customers with similar characteristics (standardized):

- Individualized Management – is performed by a risk analyst set, which prepares analyses, forwards to the Committee and monitors the risk evolution of the client. Also covers customers of the wholesale segment: Corporate and Global Corporate Banking (from now GCB), financial institutions and certain enterprises; and
- Standardized Management - dedicated to individuals and companies not framed as individual customers. It is based on automated decision-making models and internal risk assessment, supplemented by commercial competence and specialized analysts teams to handle exceptions.

The profile of credit risk assumed by the Bank is characterized by a diverse geographic distribution and prevalence of retail banking operations. Macroeconomic aspects and market conditions, as well as the sectorial and geographical concentration, the profile of the customers and the economic perspectives are also evaluated and found to be adequate in measuring credit risk.

The risk involved in the loan, the borrower, counterparty identification, risk classification in different categories, the granting of credit and periodic assessments of the levels of risk are procedures that corroborate for the determination of volumes of guarantees and provisions necessary for credit operations that are carried out in accordance with the regulations in force and with the proper security.

The policies, systems and procedures used are reassessed annually to be always according to the needs of the risk management and to the current market scenarios.

a) Rating Models

The Bank uses its own models score/rating, to measure the quality of a customer's credit or an operation. Each rating is related to a probability of default or non-payment, determined from the historical experience of the institution, with the exception of a few regarded portfolios as Low Default Portfolios using market data to predict defaults. The scores/ratings are used in the process of approval and monitoring of risk.

The ratings assigned to customers are reviewed periodically, incorporating the new information available and the experience developed in the banking relationship. The frequency of these new reviews is greater for customers who reach certain levels in the automatic systems and to those classified as special monitoring.

The Global qualification tools are those applied to segments of sovereign risk, financial institutions and global customers of wholesale (GCB), with centralized management in the Bank. These tools generate the rating of each client, which is obtained from an automatic module or quantitative, based on coefficients of balance sheets or macro-economic variables, complemented by the analyst's judgment and are reviewed to ensure that the qualifications for those assigned are progressively improved.

In the case of companies and private institutions, a single methodology was set to develop a rating in each country, based on the same modules that previous ratings: quantity or automatic (in this case, analyzing the credit behavior of a sample of clients in relation to their financial States), qualitative or revision made by the analyst with final adjustments.

For customers with standardized management, both legal persons as individuals, there are scoring tools that automatically assign a note to client.

These tools are complemented with performance models, which allow a greater predictability of risk taken and which are used for preventive activities and marketing.

b) Credit Risk Cycle

The process of credit risk management is to identify, measure, analyze, manage, negotiate and decide about the exhibitions which Conglomerate Santander companies are subject. The cycle of credit risk management has different functions to each of the three phases:

- Pre-sale: includes the processes of planning, goal setting, risk analysis, risk appetite definition, approval of new products and processes of credit rating;
- Sale: decision making for pre-ranking and specific operations; and
- Post Sale: covers the processes of monitoring, measurement and control, in addition to the management of the process and recovery.

This process is followed by the Board of Directors and the Executive Board of the Bank that approves the policies and procedures of risks, the limits, the delegations of jurisdictions in addition to supervise the activities of the Vice Presidency.

Planning and Risk Limits

The risk limit establishes the Bank's interest by evaluating business proposals and the risk position. It is defined through risk appetite approved by the management of the Conglomerate and of the units.

As a pre requirement for the Bank's strategic planning it's defined, risk appetite limits are defined. Metrics and limits are approved by the Executive risk committee, by the board of directors, according to the governance established in the Banco Santander Risk Corporative framework.

The limits are based on two basic structures: clients/segments and products.

In the case of individual risks, the most basic level is the client, for which are established individual limits.

For GCB customers is used a pre-ranking model based on a measurement and monitoring system of economic capital. Regarding the Corporate segment, a operational limits model simplified for clients who meet certain requirements (high knowledge, rating, among others).

In the case of standardized risks, risk limits are set by automatic tools (massive approval), that different rules apply according to the product, credit profile and risk of the customer and are described in the Commercial Strategic Planning (PEC), which is a document previously agreed by the Commercial area and contains the expected results in terms of risk/return.

Risk Analysis

Consists in examine the capacity of the counterpart in stand up to their contractual obligations with the Bank and/or Companies of the Conglomerate Santander.

Through expert analysis or statistical models, is assigned a rating that reflects the probability of occurrence of default.

This analysis is carried out at least annually, and may be viewed with greater frequency if the risk profile of the customer requests (due to centralized alert systems or visits of the Manager or credit analyst) or if there are specific operations outside the stablished credit limits.

Decision-Making About Proposals

Aims to analyze and adopt resolutions, according to pre-established policies, taking into consideration the risk appetite and any important operation elements to evaluate the risk and return.

The Bank Santander uses, among others, the Risk Adjusted to the Return on Capital (RORAC) methodology for the analysis and pricing in decision-making on operations and business, especially in the largest Conglomerates (wholesale segment).

Retail operations are released from approved limits via standardized form or through exception procedures, using judgmental elements as preset jurisdiction.

Risk Monitoring

Preventive detection of deterioration in the credit quality of the operation is the responsibility of the business manager in conjunction with the risk analyst. Additionally, risk monitoring is carried out through a process of permanent observation for early identification of incidents that may arise in the development of operations, clients and your environment.

This monitoring can result in customer classification in FEVE (Special Surveillance Firms), which is a system that allows differentiation of the management level and the action to be taken on a case by case basis.

These customers are reviewed every six months or every quarter for cases of more severe categories. The classification FEVE can also arise from the review carried out by the internal audit.

Daily routines extracted from specific systems are used, at the individual level, with the aim of controlling the proper use of granted limits. In this same level, is done fill control guarantees, for centralized management area.

In the case of the risks in the standardized level, the key indicators (concentration, loss of credit and fulfillment of budget) are monitored in order to detect variations in the performance of the portfolio compared to projections carried out in PEC.

The reassessment of risk in the client level occurs from the monthly calculation of risk through behavioral models, you might consider, for example, variables relating to late payment and external constraints.

Indicators are analyzed to measure performance and adherence of decisions taken, in order to determine possible adjustments in the levels of delegated jurisdiction.

Provisions

The Banco Santander constitutes provision in accordance with the current legislation of the Central Bank, in accordance with CMN Resolutions 2,682/1999, 2,697/2000 and Circular letter of Bacen 2,899/2000, sorting by rating credit operations and determines the minimum percentage of required provision (Note 8.e).

Credit Recovery

The Recovery business area is responsible for managing the non-performing portfolio. The area has the role to define, implement and monitor strategies and performances related to the delinquent customer portfolios, seeking to ensure maximum efficiency in the recovery and considering all legal requirements. The area uses statistical tools to study the behavior of customers by drawing more assertive strategies for recovery.

One of the tools used is the behavioral score used to study the performance of different groups, seeking recovery of business, cost reduction and achieve pre-established goals. Customers most likely to pay are classified as low-risk customers with low probability of payment are classified as high risk, determining the intensity of the charge.

The performances of the collection channels are defined by the "Map of Responsibility", a document that uses the time of default versus the risk of value, and other characteristics used to compose the definition of strategies.

The Bank use some specific charges according to the public as detailed below:

- Internal teams specialized in restructuring and credit recovery with direct management of delinquent customers with overdue more than 60 days and higher values; and
- Specialized external offices to collect, report and assess high-risk customers. These offices are commissioned according to pre-established percentages applied to the amounts recovered.

Sale of non-performing loans portfolio is a recurrent part of the recovery strategy, in which case only the credit rights are sold, all relationship and transactional means remain in the Bank.

Sales Portfolio of Defaulted Loans

Focusing on operations in injury situation, the sales are held periodically through competitive or bilateral auction processes, in which it evaluates the conditions, characteristics and selling price of the portfolios that will be offered to potential investors.

Structure of Capital Management

The implemented capital management model has an adequate and well defined structure and the actions taken are planned and effective, allowing a safe control and an efficient use of the capital.

The established structure has a segregation of duties by specialized area, as follows:

- i) Risk Area – responsible for identifying, modeling and controlling of the risks;
- ii) Financial Area – responsible for the control, the assessment and the reports of the capital consumption; and
- iii) Capital Management Area - responsible for the planning and the capital management.

All the processes, calculations and models involved in capital management are audited and validated internally, having the results reported to the Management.

As the structure of risk management, it is based on three basic principles:

1. Segregation of Duties: a proper management and control of Capital requires a clear allocation of responsibilities among the different duties and areas involved in both local and corporate levels, as well as the coordination and cooperation among them to achieve the unit and the Group's objectives.

2. Organizational Structure: the local organizational structure involved in Capital management should be consistent with the corporate structure, without prejudice to the application of the proportionality principle.

3. Decisions by Collegiate Bodies: the establishment of collegiate bodies in the Capital Area ensures the contrast of opinions, preventing decisions taken individually, in local or corporate level.

Santander Brasil has a director responsible for capital management, appointed by the Board of Directors. Furthermore, we have an institutional policy of capital management that serves as a guideline for the calculation, management, control and reporting of the Capital, fulfilling all the defined requirements for a capital management structure established in the Resolution CMN 3,988/2011.

Other Information

(i) The process of management, monitoring and capital control is carried out for both regulatory capital and economic. The management of regulatory capital is based on the analysis of the adequacy of capital through the Basel index using the criteria defined by the Central Bank. The goal is to achieve efficient capital structure considering capital costs, regulatory requirements, goals of rating and return to investors.

(ii) In operations involving the sale or transfer of financial assets, the conditions and characteristics of the same are analyzed for the appropriate assessment and classification with regard to risk management and retention of profit.

(iii) Further details of the credit risk management structure may be found in the report available on the site www.santander.com.br/ri.

Regulatory Capital

The capital management of Banco Santander is performed for both regulatory capital and for economic capital. The management of regulatory capital is based on the analysis of "ratios" of capital, using criteria defined by the Central Bank. Banco Santander presents an active capital management including securitizations, sale of assets and portfolios, emissions of preferred shares and hybrid instrument. The evaluation model of economic capital is to ensure the availability of capital to support all risks of their economic activity in the various business units, in different scenarios, with the solvency levels agreed by the Banco Santander.

Social and Environmental Risk

Santander's Social and Environmental Responsibility Policy (PRSA), which complies with National Monetary Council Resolution 4,327/2014 and the SARB 14 self-regulation issued by Febraban, establishes principles and guidelines, and consolidates specific policies and procedures for social and environmental practices used in business and stakeholder relations, including risk management, impacts and opportunities. Santander has a statutory executive responsible for ensuring that this policy is adhered. The PRSA was reviewed in 2016 and continues to be a driver of social and environmental management. The governance of the PRSA has been consolidated in 2016, through the implementation of KPI's panel, monitored by a group composed of the different areas, responsible for analyzing the progress and challenges involved in guaranteeing the compliance with its guidelines. Moreover, the Internal Audit department conducts the process of supervision of compliance with the commitments undertaken in relation to the Social and Environmental Responsibility Policy and associated policies. The PRSA is also monitored and assessed by the Sustainability Committee, advising the Board of Directors.

The commitments established in the PRSA are complemented by others detailed in policies such as Anticorruption Policy, Supplier Relation Policy, Human Rights policy, Social and Environmental Risk Policies. Among those, the Social Private Investment Policy aims to drive Santander Social Private Investment strategy, defining the guidelines for the creation and maintenance of the banks social programs.

Social and Environmental Risk is analyzed to mitigate operational risk issues, capital risk, credit risk and reputational risk.

Social and Environmental Risk management for Wholesales Banking is carried out through the analysis of the socio-environmental practices of clients that have limits or credit risk greater than BRL1 million. This analysis considers items such as contaminated land, deforestation, working conditions and other possible socio-environmental attention points in which there is a possibility of penalties and losses. A specialized team, with a background in Biology, Health and Safety Engineering, Geology and Chemical Engineering, perform this procedure. The financial analysis team considers the potential for damages and impacts that unfavorable socio-environmental situations can cause to the financial condition and the guarantees of the clients. The analysis focuses on preserving capital and reputation in the market and the dissemination of the practice is obtained through constant training of the commercial and credit areas about the application of socio-environmental risk standards in the credit approval process for legal entity in the Wholesale Bank.

Since 2009, Santander has been a signatory of the Equator Principles to mitigate socio-environmental risks in the financing of large projects.

The credit rating process for clients from the Corporate sector - companies with revenue of more than BRL200 million - began to include a score for their social and environmental practices. The initiative known as Social and Environmental Rating, involves direct benefits for the client, which now has its social and environmental responsible practices rewarded with better credit terms; the Bank, which has strengthened its credit; and Society, by encouraging responsible practices in our clients' business we are promoting and incentivizing corporate responsibility in different production chains and sectors.

Since 2007, the relationship between Santander and its suppliers is supported by the guidelines of the Global Compact - an initiative of the United Nations to adopt globally accepted practices in areas such as human rights, labor relations, environment and the fight against corruption. These guidelines are present in the bidding phase, approval and hiring process. During the approval process, suppliers are evaluated in technical, administrative, legal and socio-environmental aspects, and for 100% of suppliers considered critical, the Bank has a Supplier Qualification Index (IQF) which includes social and environmental issues. In the formalization of the provision of a service or acquisition of a good, the Bank uses contracts with clauses of social and environmental responsibility aligned with the guidelines of the Global Compact. We implemented the Corporate Framework of Agreements with Third Parties and Control of Suppliers, which defines guidelines for the regulation of relations between Grupo Santander entities and suppliers. The aim is to mitigate the risks inherent to the business, such as technological, operational and reputational risk - from the hiring process or the outsourcing of services to the implementation of the agreement. We have a comprehensive process for monitoring our suppliers during the provision of the service, checking taxes and labor obligations have been met and verifying transparency in their relations with the Public Authorities, allowing to take measures for the mitigation of risks. It considers risks such as technological and Operational, Reputational, Legal, Compliance, Sustainability, among others.

Based on internal and external regulations, including the Anti-Corruption Law 12,846/2013, we have adopted a series of policies and practices that regulate the issue, for example, through lectures, meetings, in-person training, as well as online courses in codes of ethics, the prevention of money laundering, information security and fraud prevention. The purpose of the online course in the Prevention and Combating of Corruption is to train, alert and educate employees on the risks involved in this issue and on compliance with the anti-corruption policy - and it is mandatory for all employees and trainees.

Risk Control Function

Both in the Corporation, as in all unit, there is an area responsible for risk control, which will provide a consolidated view of the risks of the entity and present the required critical analysis.

Provides control function to ensure that the entity does not expose itself to losses that may harm their solvency. For this, in addition to ensure effective control of risks and ensure that the same are managed according to the level of risk appetite set by management of the Conglomerate Santander and of the units, it should conduct a systematic review of exposures to different risks, proving that the levels of risks taken comply with the objectives and limits set.

Within the institution there is an area responsible for monitoring the metrics that delimit the risk appetite, providing a consolidate view of the entity's risk.

The area has the function to ensure that the entity is not expose your losses that could impair its solvency. The Risk's appetite controls are done and these controls are aligned and approved according to the established governance, thereby complying with the objectives and limits settled.

37. Corporate Restructuring
