We are an Emerging Growth Company

As a company with less than $1.0 billion in revenue during our last fiscal year, we qualify as an “emerging growth company” as defined in the Jumpstart our Business Startups Act of 2012, or the JOBS Act. An emerging growth company may take advantage of reduced reporting and other burdens that are otherwise applicable generally to public companies. These provisions include:

- a requirement to have only two years of audited financial statements and only two years of related Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations disclosure; and
- an exemption from the auditor attestation requirement in the assessment of our internal control over financial reporting pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

We may take advantage of these provisions until the end of the fiscal year ending after the fifth anniversary of our initial public offering or such earlier time that we are no longer an emerging growth company and if we do, the information that we provide stockholders may be different than you might get from other public companies in which you hold equity. We would cease to be an emerging growth company if we have more than $1.0 billion in annual revenue, have more than $700 million in market value of our shares of common stock held by non-affiliates, or issue more than $1.0 billion of non-convertible debt over a three-year period.

The JOBS Act permits an “emerging growth company” like us to take advantage of an extended transition period to comply with new or revised accounting standards applicable to public companies.

ITEM 1 — BUSINESS

Introduction

Wireless Xcessories Group is a leading provider of cell phone accessories to dealers, distributors, retailers, agents and airtime carriers throughout the United States and Canada. We have created a variety of product lines, totaling over 4,000 items designed to appeal to the widest possible spectrum of wholesale buyers.

In addition to our products, we support our customers with a wide assortment of value added services, including customized retail packaging, vendor managed inventory program, displays, posters, marketing, and sales training materials, and free e-commerce websites.

Our cell phone accessory business was started in 1996 when we acquired Advanced Fox Antenna, and our product line has increased steadily since then as handheld cell phones have grown in popularity. In March 2000, we changed our name to Wireless Xcessories Group, Inc. Our headquarters are located at 1840 County Line Road, Huntingdon Valley, Pennsylvania 19006.

We are a leading distributor of accessories to independent wireless dealers in the United States. Our corporate website address is Wirexgroup.com. Some of our other operating websites are:

- wirexgroup.com
- store.wirexgroup.com
- phonesheet.wirexgroup.com
- yourXcessoryStore.com

Products and Services

We purchase approximately two-thirds of our products from domestic sources which are primarily brand name products. The balance of our products, which are primarily after market, are manufactured in China, Hong Kong and Taiwan.

We distribute brand name products such as OtterBox, Trident, Ballistic, Plantronics, Jabra, Body Glove, Samsung and Motorola. Our product lines are sold along with comprehensive sales and marketing programs, and a series of value added services designed to separate and distinguish us in the minds of wireless resellers.

These services are offered free of charge:

- Airtime carrier phone and accessories compatible charts
- E-mail blast management programs
- Customized retail packaging
- Sales training materials
- In store displays and posters
- Private label e-commerce websites that allow customers to offer our full product line to their end users

We offer an on-line ordering option to our customers which permits them to view our current inventory along with our next receive date if an item is out of stock.

Customers

Our customer base consists of more than 3,000 independent dealers from a one-location mall kiosk to multi-store retail franchisers covering 250 locations and more. In addition, we sell to some of the largest distributors of cell phones, computers, and infrastructure products. These distributors in turn resell to airtime carriers, mass retailers, and prepaid phone distributors. In 2012 three customers accounted for 18%, 13% and 11%, and in 2011 one customer accounted for 17% of net sales, respectively. No other customers in either 2012 or 2011 accounted for more than 10% of net sales.

Business Model

The wireless phone industry is characterized by the continuous and frequent introduction of new model handsets with design changes, new operating features, and enhancements that limit the ability of all but a few of our competitors to compete with the range of accessories we offer, especially by having them available for purchase soon after the phone manufacturers introduce their new models.

We offer our resellers three full product lines which provide low, middle and premium price point choices for end users to purchase.

In addition to being quick to market on accessories for new phones, it is necessary to have inventory for some handsets for 1 to 2 years because of their continuing popularity in certain parts of the country that do not follow the latest fashion trends.

Because of the rapid pace of new handset introductions, retail sales people find it hard to keep current on which accessories are compatible among various brands and models. We help solve this problem by making available a monthly chart of phone and accessory compatibilities to our customers who are agents of Verizon, Sprint/Nextel, T-Mobile, AT&T, U.S Cellular, Metro PCS, Cricket and other second and third tier carriers.

Management Discussion of Factors That Have Affected Our Sales Growth

In 2011 and 2012, we significantly expanded and developed direct distributor relationships with several popular branded industry leading cell phone accessory manufacturers, such as with Otter Products, LLC ("OtterBox"), enabling us to offer a broader array of product in line with the industry trends, particularly to smart phones and higher quality brand name products. In 2012, sales of OtterBox products resulted in 54% of our revenues and in 2011, sales of OtterBox products resulted in 24% of our revenues.

In the fourth quarter of 2011, we added a third Point of Sale company as a customer for which we integrated our real time inventory with the customer's accounting software package in order to enable their wireless dealer locations to order more efficiently from our website and/or participate in our tailored Vendor Managed Inventory program, "VMI".

In 2011, we also added our first significant VMI customer with over 40 operating retail stores.

During 2012, we substantially upgraded our VMI program, added to our staff, and brought in $7 million of revenues to the Company from new customers added as a result of the VMI program.

In May, 2012 we introduced our own private label cell phone accessory line called Upwardly Mobile Accessories or "UMA" which is tailored to the expanding Smartphone market. We proceeded to launch the full product line in early fall of 2012. Sales of the UMA products during 2012 consisted of approximately 1% of our revenues and we anticipate increased revenues from sales of UMA products in future periods.

Employees

As of June 30, 2013, Wireless Xcessories Group employed approximately 83 full time persons divided into accounting, sales, vendor managed inventory, customer services, graphic design, purchasing/product development, MIS, quality control, and warehouse picking and packing.

No employee is covered by collective bargaining and we consider our employee relations to be excellent.

Competition

The aftermarket wireless accessory industry is both competitive and fragmented. There are a number of local and regional distributors who import a significant portion of their products from the Far East, and there are 10 or more national distributors. In addition, many manufacturers sell and fulfill directly to distributors or retailers.

Barriers to entry for distributors are low assuming one wants to market a limited product line. We believe that it would require a large investment in inventory, quality assurance, packaging capabilities, sales training, purchasing, and marketing to effectively compete with the total program we have developed.

The agreements or arrangements with our customers or vendors are of limited duration and are terminable by either party upon short notice. Accordingly, our ability to maintain these relationships is subject to competitive pressures and challenges.

The continual introduction of new phone models combined with popularity changes that can be measured in weeks and months have caused some of the larger resellers to seek out accessory specialists like Wireless Xcessories Group, Inc. to manage the selection, packaging and sourcing of their accessory programs under our VMI program. We believe this program will help us to compete favorably in the marketplace and to differentiate ourselves from our competitors.

Intellectual Property

We seek to protect our intellectual property through a combination of trademarks, service marks, and confidentiality agreements, non-compete agreements, and patent protection when appropriate.

Each of our employees other than our warehouse employees and our chief executive officer have entered into our standard confidentiality and non-compete agreement in favor of the Company. Our chief executive officer, Stephen Rade, has entered into an employment agreement with the Company that contains non-compete and confidentiality provisions.

We maintain a number of registered trade names and registered trademarks, including UMA Upwardly Mobile Accessories[®], get upwardly mobile[®], IndustrialStrength.com[®], Platinumaccessories.com[®] and WrexGroup.com[®].

If appropriate in the future, we intend to seek protection for any patentable technology we may create. At the present time, we hold no patents nor have we filed any patent applications.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

Risks Relating to Our Business

We face significant competition in the cell phone accessory market.

The cell phone accessory market is competitive and fragmented, and is comprised of several national distributors that offer a broad range of products, as well as numerous regional distributors and small distributors that focus on a particular segment of the market. In addition, many manufacturers sell directly to customers. Barriers to entry for distributors are relatively low and the risk of new competitors entering the market is high. Some of our current competitors have substantially greater capital resources and sales and distribution capabilities than we do. In response to competitive pressures from any of our current or future competitors, we may be required to lower selling prices in order to maintain or increase market share, and such measures could adversely affect our operating results.

We purchase and sell our products and services on the basis of individual sales or purchase orders, and even in those cases where we have agreements or arrangements with our customers and vendors, those agreements and arrangements contain no purchase or sale obligations and are terminable by either party upon short notice.

Our sales to customers and our purchases from vendors are largely governed by individual sales or purchase orders, so there is no guarantee of future business. In some cases, we have formal agreements or arrangements with significant customers or vendors, but they are terminable by either party upon short notice, and they contain no purchase or sale obligations. If our vendors or suppliers refuse to, or for any reason are unable to supply products to us, and if we are not able to procure those products from alternative sources, we may not be able to maintain appropriate inventory levels to meet customer demand and our financial position and results of operations would be adversely affected. Similarly, if customers decide to make purchases from other sources, experience significant changes in demand internally or from their own customer bases, become financially unstable, or are acquired by another company; our ability to generate revenues from these customers may be significantly affected, resulting in an adverse effect on our financial position and results of operations.

Our relationship with our largest supplier, OtterBox, currently expires in December 2013.

Our relationship with our largest supplier, OtterBox, currently expires on December 31, 2013. Although we would use our best efforts to extend the relationship, there can be no assurance that the relationship would be extended. During the 2012 year, our revenues from sales of OtterBox products to our customers increased by approximately $16.5 million from the revenues from sales of OtterBox products to our customers during 2011. Sales of OtterBox products represented 54% of our revenues in 2012 and 24% of our revenues in 2011. The loss or non-renewal of such relationship with OtterBox could have a material adverse effect on our revenues and results of operations.

The ongoing weakness in the global economic environment may have significant effects on our customers and suppliers that could result in material adverse effects on our business and our operating results.

Notwithstanding the increased potential for economic recovery, the ongoing weakness in the global economic environment may materially adversely affect our customers' access to capital or willingness to spend capital on our products, and/or their levels of cash liquidity with which to pay for our products. In addition, our suppliers' access to capital and liquidity may continue to be affected, which may in turn adversely impact their ability to maintain inventories, production levels, and/or product quality, or cause them to raise prices or lower production levels, or result in their ceasing operation.

Any of the foregoing effects could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

The mobile phone accessory marketplace is dynamic and challenging because of the continued introduction of new products and services.

We must constantly introduce new products, services and product features to meet competitive pressures. We may be unable to timely change our existing merchandise sales mix in order to meet these competitive pressures, which may result in increased inventory costs, inventory write-offs or loss of market share.

Additionally, our inventory may also lose value due to price changes made by our significant vendors, in cases where our arrangements with these vendors do not provide for inventory price protection, or in cases that the vendor is unable or unwilling to provide these protections.

We rely on trademark filings and confidentiality agreements to protect our intellectual property rights.

In an effort to protect our intellectual property, including our product data, customer information and information technology systems; we typically require our employees, consultants and others having access to this information or our technology to execute confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements. These agreements, however, may not provide us with adequate protection against improper use or disclosure of confidential information, and these agreements may be breached. A breach of confidentiality could adversely affect our business. Adequate remedies may not exist in the event of unauthorized use or disclosure of our confidential information. The disclosure of our proprietary information could impair our competitive position and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We offer credit to our customers and, therefore, are subject to significant credit risk.

We sell to a large and diverse customer base. We finance a significant portion of such sales through trade credit, typically by providing 30-day payment terms. As a result, our business could be adversely affected in the event of a deterioration of the financial condition of our customers, resulting in the customers' inability to repay us. This risk may increase if there is a general economic downturn affecting a large number of our customers and in the event our customers do not adequately manage their business or properly disclose their financial condition.

Our recent offering of our private labeled products, known as UMA, may have a negative impact on our relationship with our manufacturer vendors.

In 2012, we commenced offering our own product line under the name UMA. During 2012, these product offerings represented approximately 1% of our revenues. Our own product line would compete with other manufacturers' branded items that we offer. A manufacturer may choose to not sell its products to us, or may substantially increase the price of products to us, in response to the competition created by the sales of our own branded products. Either could have a material adverse effect on our business and financial performance.

We may not successfully offer attractive merchandise to our customers.

In order to meet our strategic goals, we must successfully locate and offer our customers new, innovative and high quality products. Our product offerings must be affordable, useful to the customer, well made, distinctive in design, and not widely available from other sources. We cannot predict with certainty that we will successfully offer products that meet these requirements in the future.

We depend on our vendors.

Our performance depends on our ability to purchase our products in sufficient quantities at competitive prices and on our vendors' ability to make and deliver high quality products in a cost effective, timely manner. Some of our smaller vendors have limited resources, production capacities and limited operating histories. We have no long-term purchase contracts or other contracts that provide continued supply, pricing or access to new products and any vendor or distributor could discontinue selling to us at any time. There can be no assurance that we will be able to acquire the products that we desire in sufficient quantities or on terms that are acceptable to us in the future. In addition, there can be no assurance that our vendors will make and deliver high quality products in a cost effective, timely manner.

As stated above, we have one domestic vendor, OtterBox, who supplied approximately 63% of our product purchases during the twelve months ended December 31, 2012 which represented approximately 54% of our revenues during 2012. Any full or partial cut off in service from this vendor for whatever reason could have a material negative impact on our business and our results of operations. This vendor agreement expires on December 31, 2013, unless the Company is able to reach a new agreement or extend the existing agreement with the vendor.

We may also be unable to develop relationships with new vendors. Our inability to acquire suitable products in a cost effective, timely manner or the loss of one or more key vendors or freight carriers could have a negative impact on our business.

We face certain risks relating to large customers.

A major part of our business has come from larger customers. For the twelve months to date, ending December 31, 2012, three customers accounted for 42% of our sales with the largest at 18%. In 2011, one customer accounted for 17% of the sales. The loss of any or all of these accounts could result in a significant reduction in sales and a negative impact on our business.

We face certain risks relating to customer service.

Any material disruption or slowdown in our order processing systems resulting from labor disputes, telephone down times, electrical outages, mechanical problems, human error or accidents, fire, natural disasters, or comparable events could cause delays in our ability to receive and distribute orders and may cause orders to be lost or to be shipped or delivered late. As a result, customers may cancel orders or refuse to receive goods on account of late shipments, which would result in a reduction of net sales and could mean increased administrative and shipping costs.

We are dependent on certain key personnel.

Our success depends to a significant extent upon the abilities of our senior management. The loss of the services of any of the members of our senior management or of certain other key employees could have a significant adverse effect on our business. We currently do not have any written employment agreements with our executive officers or any other key employees other than our chief executive officer, Stephen Rade. In addition, our performance will depend upon our ability to attract and retain qualified management, merchandising and sales personnel. There can be no assurance that the members of our existing management team will be able to manage the Company or our growth or that we will be able to attract and hire additional qualified personnel as needed in the future.

Risks Related to Our Common StockA significant portion of our voting stock is controlled by our executive officers and directors.

Our executive officers and directors beneficially owned approximately 29% of our outstanding common stock as of June 30, 2013. Stephen Rade, our chairman, president and chief executive officer beneficially owned approximately 26.7% of our outstanding common stock as of June 30, 2013. Should these shareholders decide to act together, they would have the ability to significantly influence all matters requiring shareholder approval, including the election of directors and any significant corporate transaction requiring shareholder approval.

There is only a very limited public market for our common stock.

Our common stock is currently quoted on OTC Pink under the symbol WIRX, where trading volume has been limited. There is not currently an established trading market for our stock, and an active trading market for our common stock may not develop or, if developed, may not be sustained. The lack of an active market may impair a stockholder's ability to sell shares of our common stock. We cannot assure you that a more active trading market in our common stock will ever develop or if one does develop, that it will be sustained. In the absence of a more active trading market, any attempt to sell a substantial number of our shares could result in a decrease in the price of our stock. Specifically, you may not be able to resell your shares of common stock at or above the price you paid for such shares or at all.

Future sales of our common stock, or the perception that such sales could occur, could have an adverse effect on the market price of our common stock.

Future sales of our common stock pursuant Rule 144 under the Securities Act, or the perception that such sales could occur, could have an adverse effect on the market price of our common stock. Under Rule 144, shares of common stock issued or issuable upon conversion of securities sold in private offerings are eligible for resale by non-affiliates after six months, assuming we file reports under the Exchange Act containing current information about us, and after one year regardless of whether current information about us is available. As substantially all of our shares of common stock are currently eligible for sale under Rule 144, the number of shares eligible for resale pursuant to Rule 144 is enormous relative to the trading volume of our common stock. Any attempt to sell a substantial number of our shares will severely depress the market price of our common stock. In addition, we may use our capital stock in the future to finance acquisitions and to compensate employees and management, which will further dilute the interests of our existing stockholders and could depress the trading price of our common stock.

We are an "emerging growth company" and we cannot be certain if the reduced disclosure requirements applicable to emerging growth companies will make our common stock less attractive to investors.

The JOBS Act permits "emerging growth companies" like us to rely on some of the reduced disclosure requirements that are already available to companies having a public float of less than $75 million, for as long as we qualify as an emerging growth company. During that period, we are permitted to omit the auditor's attestation on internal control over financial reporting that would otherwise be required by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Companies with a public float of $75 million or more must otherwise procure such an attestation beginning with their second annual report after their initial public offering. For as long as we qualify as an emerging growth company, we are also excluded from the requirement to submit "say-on-pay", "say-on-pay frequency" and "say-on-parachute" votes to our stockholders and may avail ourselves of reduced executive compensation disclosure compared to larger companies. In addition, as described in the following risk factor, as an emerging growth company we can take advantage of an extended transition period to comply with new or revised accounting standards applicable to public companies.

Until such time as we cease to qualify as an emerging growth company, investors may find our common stock less attractive because we may rely on these exemptions. If some investors find our common stock less attractive as a result, there may be a less active trading market for our common stock and our stock price may be more volatile.

As an “emerging growth company” we may take advantage of an extended transition period to comply with new or revised accounting standards applicable to public companies.

Section 107 of the JOBS Act also provides that, as an emerging growth company, we can take advantage of the extended transition period provided in Section 7(a)(2)(B) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), for complying with new or revised accounting standards. We can therefore delay the adoption of certain accounting standards until those standards would otherwise apply to private companies. We have elected to take advantage of the benefits of this extended transition period. Our financial statements may therefore not be comparable to those of companies that comply with such new or revised accounting standards. Please refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations — Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates” for further discussion of the extended transition period for complying with new or revised accounting standards.

At such time as we cease to qualify as an “emerging growth company” under the JOBS Act, the costs and demands placed upon management will increase.

We will continue to be deemed an emerging growth company until the earliest of (i) the last day of the fiscal year during which we had total annual gross revenues of $1 billion (as indexed for inflation), (ii) the last day of the fiscal year following the fifth anniversary of the date of the first sale of common stock under a registration statement under the Securities Act; (iii) the date on which we have, during the previous 3-year period, issued more than $1 billion in non-convertible debt; or (iv) the date on which we are deemed to be a “large accelerated filer” as defined by the SEC, which would generally occur upon our attaining a public float of at least $700 million. Once we lose emerging growth company status, we expect the costs and demands placed upon management to increase, as we would have to comply with additional disclosure and accounting requirements, particularly if our public float should exceed $75 million.

We will incur significant costs as a result of operating as a public company, and our management will be required to devote substantial time to new compliance requirements, including establishing and maintaining internal controls over financial reporting, and we may be exposed to potential risks if we are unable to comply with these requirements.

As a public company, we will incur significant legal, accounting and other expenses under the Exchange Act and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, together with rules implemented by the SEC and applicable market regulators. These rules impose various requirements on public companies, including filing current, quarterly and annual reports with the SEC, and requiring certain corporate governance practices. Our management and other personnel will need to devote a substantial amount of time to these requirements. Moreover, these rules and regulations will increase our legal and financial compliance costs and will make some activities more time-consuming and costly.

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act requires, among other things, that we maintain effective internal controls for financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures. In particular, we must perform system and process evaluations and testing of our internal controls over financial reporting to allow management to report on the effectiveness of our internal controls over financial reporting, as required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Compliance with Section 404 may require that we incur substantial accounting expenses and expend significant management efforts. Our testing may reveal deficiencies in our internal controls over financial reporting that are deemed to be material weaknesses. In the event we identify significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in our internal controls that we cannot remediate in a timely manner, the market price of our stock could decline if investors and others lose confidence in the reliability of our financial statements and we could be subject to sanctions or investigations by the SEC or other applicable regulatory authorities.

ITEM 2 — FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

We have identified the policies below as critical to our business operations and the understanding of our financial results.

Use of estimates

We prepare financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investment with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized at the time goods are shipped, title has passed, evidence of an arrangement exists, the fee is fixed or determinable, and collectability is reasonably assured.

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amounts management expects to collect. An allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded based on a combination of historical experience, aging analysis and information on specific accounts. Account balances are written off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

Investments

Security investments that the company has the intent to hold to maturity are classified as held-to maturity securities and recorded at amortized cost in investments. Securities investments that are bought and principally held for purposes of selling them in the near term are classified as trading securities. Trading securities are recorded at fair value on the balance sheet in investments, with the change in fair value during the period recorded in earnings. Securities investments not classified as either held-to-maturity or trading securities are classified as available-for-sales securities. Available-for-sale securities are recorded at fair value on the balance sheet in investments, with the change in fair value during the period excluded from earnings and recorded as a component of other comprehensive income.

Inventories

Inventories, which consist solely of finished goods, are carried at the lower of cost (first-in, first out) or market. The Company periodically reviews its inventories and makes provisions as necessary for estimated obsolescence and slow moving goods. The amount of such markdown is equal to the difference between cost of inventory and the estimated value based upon assumptions about future demands, selling price and market conditions.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. The Company provides for depreciation and amortization based on the useful lives of the assets. The estimated useful lives for financial reporting purposes are: 3 to 7 years for furniture and fixtures; the shorter of the lease term or estimated useful life of the asset for leasehold improvements; and 2 to 5 years for computer equipment and software. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

Stock based compensation

The Company recognizes all share based payments, including grants to employees of common stock options, as an expense based on fair values of the grants measured on award dates, generally using Black-Scholes valuation model, over vesting periods of such grants and net of an estimated forfeiture rate for grants to employees. The Company estimates the expected life of options granted based on historical exercise patterns and volatility based on trading patterns of its common stock over a period similar to vesting period of the grants.

Advertising costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred.

JOBS Act

On April 5, 2012, the JOBS Act was signed into law. The JOBS Act contains provisions that, among other things, reduce certain reporting requirements for qualifying public companies. As an “emerging growth company,” we may, under Section 7(a)(2)(B) of the Securities Act, delay adoption of new or revised accounting standards applicable to public companies until such standards would otherwise apply to private companies. We may take advantage of this extended transition period until the first to occur of the date that we (i) are no longer an “emerging growth company” or (ii) affirmatively and irrevocably opt out of this extended transition period. We have elected to take advantage of the benefits of this extended transition period. Our financial statements may therefore not be comparable to those of companies that comply with such new or revised accounting standards. Until the date that we are no longer an “emerging growth company” or affirmatively and irrevocably opt out of the exemption provided by Securities Act Section 7(a)(2)(B), upon issuance of a new or revised accounting standard that applies to our financial statements and that has a different effective date for public and private companies, we will disclose the date on which adoption is required for non-emerging growth companies and the date on which we will adopt the recently issued accounting standard.

New Accounting Pronouncements

For a discussion on the impact of recently issued accounting pronouncements, see “Recently Adopted and Issued Accounting Standards” in Note 2 to the financial statements incorporated by reference in “Item 15. Financial Statements and Exhibits.”

RESULTS OF OPERATIONSYear Ended December 31, 2012 Compared to Year Ended December 31, 2011

Net sales increased by 80.0% or $17.8 million from $22.4 million in 2011 to $40.2 million in 2012. The increase in sales is mainly attributable to the following factors:

- Most of our sales growth is attributable to the growth of our outside lower margin brand name offerings, particularly in cell phone covers and cases, that appeal to the growing smart phone market. For example, the revenues from sales of our OtterBox products to our customers increased during 2012 by approximately $16.5 million from revenues from sales of those products to our customers during 2011.
- The growth and development of our value added services and, in particular our Vendor Managed Inventory program, has resulted in being able to add several larger dealers to our customer base in late 2011 and in 2012 which has resulted in an aggregate of $7.0 million of revenues during 2012.
- In the fall of 2012, we began selling our own branded accessory line known as UMA which is tailored to the growing smart phone market which lead to modest sales during the year but which we anticipate will result in increased sales in future periods.

During 2012, revenues derived from brand name products represented 82% of our revenues compared to 61% of our revenues during 2011. During 2012, revenues from after-market products represented 18% of our revenues compared to 39% of revenues during 2011, or an increase of $ 0. 4 million .

Gross profit increased by $1.6 million from $6.2 million in 2011 to $7.8 million in 2012, and as a percentage of sales decreased from 28.0% to 19.4%. The decrease in gross profit as a percentage of sales resulted from the following:

- Our overall gross margin percentages were significantly impacted by the large shift in our product offering mix to OEM (brand name) product which carries significantly lower margins than our proprietary products.
- The cell phone accessory market continued to be highly competitive requiring selected aggressive pricing and promotions to add and maintain business.

- The company incurred higher outbound freight cost in 2012 as compared to 2011 relating to vendor cost increases and customer mix changes.
- We substantially increased our provision for obsolete and stale inventory, as a result of our expansion of new product offerings, particularly in OEM (brand name) product and resultant decreased demand for proprietary items. Additionally, the growth of our Vendor Managed Inventory program resulted in additional write offs of product from stock rotations especially, in the initial 6 months from the implementation of each new customer.

Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses increased by 9.5%, or $0.6 million in 2012, from $6.4 million in 2011 to $ 7.0 million in 2012. Total SG&A expenses, as a percentage of sales, decreased from 28.7% in 2011 to 17.4% in 2012. The increase in SG&A expenses in 2012 is mainly due to an increase in sales commissions of $0.2 million due to the increase in sales in 2012, an increase in warehouse labor and supplies expense of $0.2 million, an increase in insurance expense of $0.06 million, an increase in accounting and legal professional fees of $0.04 million associated with the preparation of becoming an SEC registrant, and a $0.03 million increase in customer credit card processing costs due to the increase in sales volume in 2012.

Total depreciation charges have decreased from $ 0 .15 million in 2011 to $ 0 .1 million in 2012 as a result of the Company limiting its capital additions in the past 2 years after investing heavily in upgrading its business systems in 2010.

Other income decreased from $ 0.4 million in 2011 to $ 0.2 million in 2012. The reduction in other income is due to a combination of a $0.1 million decrease in investment income earned in 2012 due to the reduction of the Company's investment portfolio from the prior year and a $0.1 million decrease in interest income as a result of the suspension of interest on one $ 0 .2 million note receivable from a vendor in fall of the 2011 that was subsequently written off and the suspension of interest in early 2012 on a second vendor interest bearing notes receivable (original balance of $ 0 .3 million) as a result of the note terms being amended in 2012.

The effective tax rate was approximately 40% in 2012 as compared to approximately 44% in 2011. The decrease in the effective tax rate during 2012 was mainly due to the tax rate differential on state income tax expense, net of federal benefit.

Net income was $0.6 million or $0.15 per diluted share for 2012 compared to $0.1 million or $0.03 per diluted share for 2011. The weighted-average number of shares used in the diluted earnings per share computation was 4,006,419 and 4,036,339 for 2012 and 2011, respectively.

Three Months Ended March 31, 2013 Compared to Three Months Ended March 31, 2012

Net sales increased by 8.2% or $0.6 million from $7.9 million in 2012 to $8.5 million in 2013. The increase in sales is mainly attributable to the following factors:

- Most of our sales growth is attributable to the growth of our outside lower margin brand name offerings, particularly in cell phone covers and cases, that appeal to the growing smart phone market. For example, the revenues from sales of our OtterBox products to our customers increased during the first quarter of 2013 by approximately $1.1 million , of which $ 0.5 million was related to new VMI business , from revenues from sales of those products to our customers during the first quarter of 2012.
- The continued growth and development of our value added services and, in particular our Vendor Managed Inventory (VMI) program, has resulted in being able to add several larger dealers to our customer base in late 2011 and in 2012. Total revenues generated from our VMI program increased from approximately $0.3 million to approximately $1.9 million of revenues during the first quarter of 2012 and 2013 respectively.

During the first quarter of 2013, revenues derived from brand name products , including OtterBox, represented 78% of our revenues compared to 75% of our revenues during the first quarter of 2012. During the first quarter of 2013, revenues from after-market products represented 21 % of our revenues compared to 25 % of revenues during the first quarter of 2012 , or a net reduction of approximately $ 1.2 million .

Gross profit was approximately $1.7 million for both of the three months ended March 31, 2013 and 2012, and as a percentage of sales decreased from 21.8% to 20.5%. The decrease in gross profit percentage resulted from the following:

- Our overall gross margin percentages was negatively impacted by the shift in our product offering mix to OEM (brand name) product which carries significantly lower margins than our proprietary products.
- The cell phone accessory market continued to be highly competitive requiring selected aggressive pricing and promotions to add and maintain business.

Selling, general and administrative ("SG&A") expenses increased by 12.2%, or $0.2 million in 2013, from $1.5 million in 2012 to $1.7 million in 2013. Total SG&A expenses, as a percentage of sales, increased from 18.8% in 2012 to 19.5% in 2013. The increase in SG&A expense in 2013 was primarily related to additional payroll and related benefits of approximately $0.05 million to upgrade of our sales staff, an increase in expenses related to marketing catalogs, mailings, trade show expenses, vendor managed inventory services and marketing support materials of approximately $0.05 million and an increase in bad debt expense of approximately $0.1 million.

Total depreciation charges have decreased from $0.004 million in 2012 to $0.002 million in 2013 as a result of the Company limiting its capital additions in recent years after investing heavily in upgrading its business systems in 2010.

Other expenses of approximately $0.001 million, for the three months ended March 31, 2013, mainly represents interest expenses incurred on the Company's line of credit with a bank, that was entered into in January 2013. Other income, of approximately $0.04 million for the three months ended March 31, 2012, mainly represents dividends and realized gains on the Company's available-for-sale investment portfolio.

The effective income tax rate was approximately 43% for both the three months ended March 31, 2013 and 2012.

Net income was $0.04 million or $0.01 per basic and diluted earnings per share for 2013 compared to $0.1 million or $0.04 per share for 2012. The weighted-average number of shares used in the earnings per share for the basic and dilutive computation was 4,006,419 for both 2013 and 2012, respectively, since all potentially dilutive securities were determined to be anti-dilutive.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements as of March 31, 2013 and December 31, 2012.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Anticipated Uses of Cash

Our anticipated requirements for capital during 2013 is to fund sales growth and further development of our Upwardly Mobile Accessories "UMA" line geared to the smart phone market and development of additional markets.

Cash Flow

The following table summarizes our net cash flow from operating, investing and financial activities for the periods indicated below:

	Year ended December 31, 2012	Year ended December 31, 2011	Quarter ended March 31, 2013	Quarter ended March 31, 2012
Cash provided by (used in)
Operating activities	$ (2,274,170)	$ (680,277)	$ (545,094)	$ (362,741)
Investing activities	1,727,844	798,416	30,000	320,457
Financing activities	—	—	200,000	—
Net (decrease) increase in cash and cash equivalents	$ (546,326)	$ 118,139	$ (315,094)	$ (42,284)

Our working capital as of March 31, 2013, December 31, 2012 and 2011 was $8.1 million, $8.1 million and $7.4 million, respectively.

Net cash (utilized in) operating activities for the twelve months ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 was $(2.3) million and $(0.7) million, respectively. We utilized our net cash flow from our sales of available securities and cash on hand to partially finance our 80% sales growth and resultant increase in working capital activities, principally inventory.

In 2012, the non-cash items totaling $1.1 million consisted of depreciation and amortization of $0.1 million, bad debt expense of $0.2 million, Inventory Reserve of $0.8 million, partially offset by a change in deferred tax $(0.1) million.

During 2012, the Company liquidated all but approximately $0.009 million of its investments generating approximately $1.6 million of net cash provided by investing activities. These proceeds were used to acquire additional inventory. An additional $0.2 million of cash from investing activities was generated through the collection of notes receivable from a vendor. During 2011, the Company generated approximately $0.8 million in net cash provided by investing activities from the sales of its investments of $1.2 million and collection of vendor notes receivable of $0.2 million, offset by advances to vendors of $(0.3) million and investment purchases of $(0.3) million.

There were minimal capital expenditures during 2012 and 2011 as the Company had completed its business system upgrades in 2010. Capital expenditures were $0.02 million in 2012 and $0.07 million in 2011, principally for computer and office equipment and software upgrades. Management anticipates capital expenditures of approximately $0.05 million during 2013.

Net cash (utilized in) operating activities for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and 2012 was $(0.5) million and $(0.4) million respectively. For the three months ended March 31, 2013, the Company had $0.03 million of net cash provided by investing activities related to the collection of vendor notes receivable and $0.2 million in net cash provided by financing activities due to cash proceeds received under its line of credit with a bank which was entered into in January 2013. For the three months ended March 31, 2012, the Company had net cash provided by investing activities of $0.3 million, consisting of $0.3 million in sales of investments and $0.1 million from collection of vendor notes receivable, offset by $(0.1) million in investment purchases and capital expenditures. The Company had no financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2012.

Based upon its present plans, management believes that operating cash flow, and available cash from our bank line of credit, which was established in January 2013, will be sufficient to meet the anticipated working capital cash needs of the Company and capital expenditures during the twelve months ending December 31, 2013.

Line of Credit

On January 15, 2013, the Company entered into a Loan and Security Agreement and other ancillary documents (the "Loan Documents") with TD Bank, N.A. (the "Bank"), providing for a secured revolving line of credit in an amount of up to $2.0 million (the "Line of Credit"). The outstanding balance of the amounts advanced under the Line of Credit bear interest at 2.5% above the one month LIBOR Rate as defined in the Loan Documents. Interest is payable on a monthly basis. The Line of Credit and the Company's obligations under the Loan Documents are secured by substantially all of the Company's assets. The term of the Line of Credit is one year (January 15, 2014). At the time of maturity, all outstanding advances under the Line of Credit as well as any unpaid interest is due and payable. Prior to maturity of the Line of Credit, the Company may prepay amounts due under the Line of Credit without penalty, and subject to the terms of the Loan Documents, may re-borrow any such amounts. The Company is required to comply with quarterly net worth and quick ratio financial covenants, as defined in the Loan Documents. The Company was in compliance with all financial covenants as of June 30, 2013. As of June 30, 2013, $0.3 million has been borrowed and $1.7 million is available on the line.

ITEM 12 — INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL") provides, among other things, that a corporation may indemnify any person who was, is or is threatened to be made, party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation), by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer, director, employee or agent of such corporation or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation may indemnify any persons who were or are a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests, provided further that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer, director, employee or agent is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him or her against the expenses (including attorneys' fees) which such officer or director has actually and reasonably incurred.

Our bylaws provide that we must indemnify, and advance expenses to, our directors and officers to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL if such officer or director was made a party or is threatened to be made a party or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding; provided, however, that any such indemnification must be authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with any proceeding initiated by such officer or director.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Board of Directors and Stockholders
Wireless Xcessories Group, Inc.
Huntingdon Valley, Pennsylvania

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Wireless Xcessories Group, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2012 and 2011 and the related statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss), stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Wireless Xcessories Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As discussed in Note 3 to the financial statements, the Company restated its 2011 financial statements.

WIRELESS XCESSORIES GROUP, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2012 AND 2011

1. ORGANIZATION AND BUSINESS

Wireless Xcessories Group, Inc. (the "Company") is a leading provider of cell phone accessories to dealers, distributors, retailers, agents and airtime carriers throughout the United States and Canada. The Company provides a variety of product lines designed to appeal to the widest spectrum of wholesale buyers.

The Company also supports its customers with a wide assortment of value added services, including customized retail packaging, displays, marketing, sales training materials and free e-commerce websites.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES*Use of estimates*

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized at the time goods are shipped, title has passed, evidence of an arrangement exists, the fee is fixed or determinable, and collectability is reasonably assured.

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at the amounts management expects to collect. An allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded based on a combination of historical experience, aging analysis and information on specific accounts. Account balances are written off against the allowance after all means of collection have been exhausted and the potential for recovery is considered remote.

Investments

Securities investments that the Company has the intent to hold to maturity are classified as held-to-maturity securities and recorded at amortized cost in investments. Securities investments that are bought and principally held for the purpose of selling them in the near term are classified as trading securities. Trading securities are recorded at fair value on the balance sheet in investments, with the change in fair value during the period recorded in earnings. Securities investments not classified as either held-to-maturity or trading securities are classified as available-for-sale securities. Available-for-sale securities are recorded at fair value on the balance sheet in investments, with the change in fair value during the period excluded from earnings and recorded as a component of other comprehensive income.

The Company's investment holdings consist of mutual funds which are classified as available-for-sale securities. For the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, there was an unrealized gain (loss) on available-for-sale securities of $10,140 and ($196,375), respectively, which was recorded as a component of other comprehensive income (loss) within the accompanying Statement s of Stockholders' E quity.

WIRELESS XCESSORIES GROUP, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2012 AND 2011

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Inventories

Inventories, which consist solely of finished goods, are carried at the lower of cost (first-in, first-out) or market. The Company periodically reviews its inventories and makes provisions as necessary for estimated obsolescence and slow-moving goods. The amount of such markdown is equal to the difference between cost of inventory and the estimated market value based upon assumptions about future demands, selling prices and market conditions. As of December 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company's reserve for inventory excess and obsolescence was $190,452 and $197,537, respectively.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. The Company provides for depreciation and amortization based upon the estimated useful lives of the assets. The estimated useful lives for financial reporting purposes are: 3 to 7 years for furniture and fixtures; the shorter of the lease term or estimated useful life of the asset for leasehold improvements; and 2 to 5 years for computer equipment and software. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

Treasury stock

Shares of common stock repurchased are recorded at cost as treasury stock.

Comprehensive income (loss)

Comprehensive income (loss) represents the total of net income plus the change in unrealized gains (losses) on investments classified as available-for-sale. Comprehensive income (loss) for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 is included in the Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss). An analysis of the changes in components of other comprehensive income (loss) for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 are as follows:

	2012	2011 (As Restated)
Net income	$ 579,885	$ 131,295
Other comprehensive income (loss) :
Unrealized gain (loss) on available-for-sale investments	770	(234,375)
Less: reclassification for gains included in net income	9,370	38,000
Other comprehensive income (loss)	10,140	(196,375)
Comprehensive income (loss)	$ 590,025	$ (65,080)

As of December 31, 2012 and 2011, accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) of $1,172 and $(8,968), respectively, consisted solely of unrealized gains (losses) on investments classified as available-for-sale.

Stock based compensation

The Company recognizes all share based payments, including grants to employees of common stock options, as an expense based on fair values of the grants measured on award dates, generally using the Black-Scholes valuation model, over vesting periods of such grants and net of an estimated forfeiture rate for grants to employees. The Company estimates the expected life of options granted based on historical exercise patterns and volatility based on trading patterns of its common stock over a period similar to vesting periods of the grants.

WIRELESS XCESSORIES GROUP, INC.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

No stock based compensation expense was recorded for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011 as all options were fully vested as of January 1, 2011.

Shipping and handling

Shipping and handling costs of $2,277,292 and $1,834,892 are included in cost of goods sold in the accompanying Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss) for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

Advertising costs

Advertising costs, which are expensed as incurred, totaled approximately $192,000 and $158,000 for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively, and are included in selling expense in the accompanying Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss).

Income taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes under which, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of existing assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which these temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets or liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. A valuation allowance against deferred tax assets is provided when it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will not be fully realized.

For the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company did not identify any uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in an income tax return that would require adjustment to or disclosure in its financial statements. With few exceptions, Federal and state tax returns for years prior to 2009 are no longer subject to examination by tax authorities.

The Company reports accrued interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as a component of income tax expense. There were no interest or penalties accrued by the Company or assessed by income taxing authorities as of and for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011.

Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share ("EPS") is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period while diluted EPS is computed assuming conversion of all dilutive securities such as stock options.

Included below is a reconciliation of weighted average common shares for the basic and diluted EPS computations:

	2012	2011
Weighted average shares outstanding – basic	4,006,419	4,006,419
Add: dilutive effect of stock options	—	29,920
Weighted average shares outstanding – diluted	4,006,419	4,036,339

Stock options to purchase 17,281 and 27,361 shares of common stock were not included in the computation of diluted EPS for 2012 and 2011, respectively, as the effects of these instruments were determined to be anti-dilutive.

Segment information

The Company is organized and operates as one reporting segment wherein the Company provides cell phone accessories to dealers, distributors, retailers, agents and airline carriers. In accordance with ASC 280, "Segment Reporting", the chief operating decision-maker has been identified as the Chief Executive Officer, who reviews operating results to make decisions about allocating resources and assessing performance for the entire Company. Since the Company operates in one segment and provides one group of similar products, all financial segment and product line information required by ASC 280 can be found in these financial statements.

Recently Adopted and Issued Accounting Standards

In May 2011, the FASB issued ASU No. 2011-04, "Amendments to Achieve Common Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure Requirements in U.S. GAAP and IFRS," which converges fair value measurement and disclosure guidance in U.S. GAAP with fair value measurement and disclosure guidance issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"). The amendments in the authoritative guidance do not modify the requirements for when fair value measurements apply. The amendments generally represent clarifications on how to measure and disclose fair value under ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurement." ASU 2011-04 is effective for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2011, with early adoption not permitted. The adoption of the provisions of ASU No. 2011-04 did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In June 2011, the FASB issued ASU 2011-05 "Presentation of Comprehensive Income," which requires an entity to present the total of comprehensive income, the components of net income, and the components of other comprehensive income either in a single continuous statement of comprehensive income, or in two separate but consecutive statements. ASU 2011-05 eliminates the option to present components of other comprehensive income as part of the statement of equity. ASU 2011-05 is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2011 and interim periods within those years. As this new guidance is related to presentation only, the implementation in 2012 did not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations, financial position or cash flows.

In October 2012, the FASB issued ASU 2012-04 "Technical Corrections and Improvements," which makes certain technical corrections and improvements and conforming amendments related to fair value measurements. The amendments represent changes to clarify, correct unintended application of, or make minor improvements to the FASB Accounting Standards Codification that are not expected to have a significant effect on current accounting practice. ASU 2012-04 is effective for fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2012. The implementation of this guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In February 2013, the FASB issued ASU No. 2013-02, "Comprehensive Income (Topic 220) — Reporting Amounts Reclassified Out of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income," which requires an entity to report the effect of significant reclassifications out of accumulated other comprehensive income on the respective line items in net income if the amount being reclassified is required under U.S. GAAP to be reclassified in its entirety in the same reporting period. ASU 2013-02 is effective for fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2012. The implementation of this guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

3. RESTATEMENT

The accompanying financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2011 have been restated to fully reserve a vendor note receivable in the amount of $200,000 that was determined to be uncollectible as of December 31, 2011 (see Note 7). The Company's previously issued financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2011 included a reserve of $82,000 against this note receivable which was included in the accounts receivable allowance for doubtful accounts. As a result of the restatement, the Company reclassified $82,000 of its allowance for doubtful accounts against the vendor note receivable balance and recorded additional general and administrative expense of $118,000 to fully reserve the remaining balance of the vendor note receivable. The Company's 2011 income tax provision was also adjusted for the impact of this restatement. The effect of the restatement was to decrease net income by $70,800 ($0.02 per share) for the year ended December 31, 2011. The effects of the restatement on the balance sheet, statement of operations and comprehensive income (loss) and statement of cash flows as of and for the year ended December 31, 2011 are summarized below:

6. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Effective January 1, 2008, the Company adopted the guidance under FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820-10, which establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels:

Level 1: Inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Inputs are quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in an active market, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable and market-corroborated inputs which are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3: Inputs are derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or value drivers are unobservable.

The Company uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investment portfolio. When available, the Company measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2012 and 2011:

Level 1 Fair Value Measurements

Mutual funds are valued based on quoted net asset values of the shares held by the Company at year-end. Money market funds are valued based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets.

Fair value of financial instruments not measured at fair value on a recurring basis : The carrying amount of cash, accounts receivable, notes receivable from vendors, and accounts payable are considered representative of their respective fair values because of the short-term nature of these financial instruments.

7. NOTES RECEIVABLE FROM VENDORS

In March 2010, the Company lent a vendor $200,000 in exchange for a promissory note. The note requires monthly interest only payments with an interest rate of 3% per month. Outstanding principal and any unpaid accrued interest is payable on demand. As a result of the vendor experiencing financial difficulties, the Company modified this promissory note in 2011 to reflect a change in the monthly interest payment. Interest payments were reduced from $6,000 per month to $1,500 per month beginning in August 2011. The Company recorded interest income on this note in the amount of $43,500 for the year ended December 31, 2011. Since the vendor was experiencing financial difficulties, the Company fully reserved the $200,000 outstanding principal balance on the note as of December 31, 2011. In 2012, the vendor declared bankruptcy, thus the note receivable remains fully reserved as of December 31, 2012.

In March 2011, the Company entered into a revolving note receivable agreement with another vendor whereby the vendor could borrow up to $300,000 from the Company up to one-year from date of the first advance. The revolving note is collateralized by certain vendor inventory held by the Company. This agreement is automatically renewable after the one-year term date unless either party gives at least thirty day(s) notice of cancellation prior to the one-year term date. The agreement required monthly interest only payments, with an interest rate of 0.75% per week. In December 2011, the agreement was modified to cease the accrual of interest and to require principal only payments of $10,000 each month, beginning January 2012. Additionally, at the discretion of the vendor, inventory held as collateral may be sold with the proceeds reducing the outstanding principal balance on the note. As of December 31, 2012 and 2011, the outstanding balance on the revolving note was $103,050 and $280,000, respectively. The Company recorded interest income of $67,050 on this note for the year ended December 31, 2011.

Cash and cash equivalents are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") subject to certain limitations. At times, the Company's cash and cash equivalent balances may exceed the FDIC insured limits. The Company mitigates this risk by only depositing funds with major financial institutions and has not experienced any losses from maintaining cash and cash equivalent accounts in excess of federally insured limits.

Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share ("EPS") is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period while diluted EPS is computed assuming conversion of all dilutive securities such as stock options. The amounts reported for the basic and dilutive earnings per share, for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and 2012, were the same as all potentially dilutive securities, consisting of 17,281 stock options, were determined to be anti-dilutive.

Income Taxes

The Company calculates its interim tax provision in accordance with the provisions of ASC 740-270 "Income Taxes — Interim Reporting." For each interim period the Company estimates its annual effective income tax rate and applies the estimated rate to its year-to-date income or loss before income taxes. The Company also computes the tax provision or benefit related to items separately reported, such as discontinued operations, and recognizes the items net of their related tax effect in the interim periods in which they occur. The Company also recognizes the effect of changes in enacted tax laws or rates in the interim periods in which the changes occur. For the three months ended March 31, 2013 and March 31, 2012, the effective income tax rate was 43%.

Recently adopted and issued Accounting Standards

In October 2012, the FASB issued ASU 2012-04 “Technical Corrections and Improvements,” which makes certain technical corrections and improvements and conforming amendments related to fair value measurements. The amendments represent changes to clarify, correct unintended application of, or make minor improvements to the FASB Accounting Standards Codification that are not expected to have a significant effect on current accounting practice. ASU 2012-04 is effective for fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2012. The implementation of this guidance did not have a material impact on the Company’s financial statements.

In February 2013, the FASB issued ASU No. 2013-02, “Comprehensive Income (Topic 220) — Reporting Amounts Reclassified Out of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income,” which requires an entity to report the effect of significant reclassifications out of accumulated other comprehensive income on the respective line items in net income if the amount being reclassified is required under U.S. GAAP to be reclassified in its entirety in the same reporting period. ASU 2013-02 is effective for fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2012. The implementation of this guidance did not have a material impact on the Company’s financial statements.

2. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

3. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company adopted the guidance under FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820-10, which establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels:

Level 1: Inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Inputs are quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in an active market, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable and market-corroborated inputs which are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3: Inputs are derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or value drivers are unobservable.

The Company uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investment portfolio. When available, the Company measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2013 and December 31, 2012:

3. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

Level 1 Fair Value Measurements

Mutual funds are valued based on quoted net asset values of the shares held by the Company at year-end. Money market funds are valued based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Company's assets recorded at fair value on a recurring basis :

March 31, 2013
	Level 1	Total
Investments available-for-sale:
Mutual funds:
Money market funds	$ 989	$ 989
Fixed income funds	6,827	6,827
Total	$ 7,816	$ 7,816

December 31, 2012
	Level 1	Total
Investments available-for-sale:
Mutual funds:
Money market funds	$ 1,725	$ 1,725
Fixed income funds	6,950	6,950
Total	$ 8,675	$ 8,675

There were no liabilities that were recorded at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2013 and December 31, 2012. There were no assets or liabilities that were recorded at fair value on a non-recurring basis as of March 31, 2013 and December 31, 2012.

Fair value of financial instruments not measured at fair value on a recurring basis : The carrying amount of cash, accounts receivable, notes receivable from vendor, and accounts payable are considered representative of their respective fair values because of the short-term nature of these financial instruments. The carrying value of the revolving line of credit approximates fair value due to the interest rates and other terms currently available to the Company for similar debt instruments.

4. NOTES RECEIVABLE FROM VENDORS

In March 2011, the Company entered into a revolving note receivable agreement with a vendor whereby the vendor could borrow up to $300,000 from the Company up to one-year from date of the first advance. This agreement is automatically renewable after the one-year term date unless either party gives at least thirty days notice of cancellation prior to the one-year term date. The agreement required monthly interest only payments, with an interest rate of 0.75% per week. In December 2011, the agreement was modified to cease the accrual of interest and to require principal only payments of $10,000 each month, beginning January 2012. Additionally, at the discretion of the vendor, inventory held as collateral may be sold with the proceeds reducing the outstanding principal balance on the note. As of March 31, 2013 and December 31, 2012, the outstanding balance on the revolving note was $73,050 and $103,050, respectively.

5. LINE OF CREDIT

On January 15, 2013, the Company entered into a Loan and Security Agreement and other ancillary documents (the "Loan Documents") with a bank, providing for a secured revolving line of credit in an amount of up to $2,000,000 (the "Line of Credit"). At the time of maturity, all outstanding advances under the Line of Credit as well as any unpaid interest is due and payable. Prior to maturity of the Line of Credit, the Company may prepay amounts due under the Line of Credit without penalty, and subject to the terms of the Loan Documents, may re-borrow any such amounts. The Loan Documents contain customary affirmative and negative covenants. As of March 31, 2013, $200,000 has been borrowed and $1,800,000 was available on the line.

hazardous materials of any kind in or about the Leased Premises, except as set forth in paragraph 34 of the Lease. In case of a breach of this covenant (in addition to all other remedies given to Landlord in case of the breach of any of the provisions or covenants of the Lease) Tenant agrees to pay to Landlord as additional rent any and all increase or increases of premiums on insurance carried by Landlord on the Leased Premises or any part thereof, or on the building or buildings or real property of which the Leased Premises may be a part, or any other building, caused in any way by the occupancy of Tenant.

(i) Vacate or desert the Leased Premises during the term of the Lease, or permit the same to be empty and unoccupied.

10. Tenant covenants and agrees that Landlord shall have the right to do the following things and matters in and about the Leased Premises:

(a) At all reasonable times by itself or its duly authorized agents to go upon and inspect the Leased Premises and every part thereof, and/or at its option to make repairs, alterations and additions to the Leased Premises or the building or buildings or real property of which the Leased Premises is a part.

(b) At any time or times and from time to time make such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary or desirable for the safety, care, and cleanliness of the Leased Premises, the building or buildings of which the Leased Premises is a part and the real property on which they are located, and of personal property contained therein and for the preservation of good order. Such rules and regulations shall, when communicated in writing to Tenant, form a part of the Lease.

(c) To display a "For Sale" and a "For Rent" sign or both at any time; and all of such signs shall be placed upon such part of the Leased Premises or other property of Landlord as Landlord may elect and may contain such matters as Landlord shall require. Persons authorized by Landlord may inspect the Leased Premises at reasonable hours.

11.(a) It shall be Tenant's sole responsibility to insure against loss or damage from fire or other casualty all personal property on the Leased Premises owned by Tenant or third persons, attached or unattached, including without limitation all fixtures and equipment owned by Tenant or owned by third parties and Landlord shall have no liability with respect thereto except to the extent such loss or damage is caused by the negligent acts or omissions of Landlord, its agents, servants or employees.

(b) Tenant shall be responsible for and shall reimburse Landlord for all loss or damage to the Leased Premises or to the building or the real property of which the Leased Premises are a part to the extent such loss or damage is caused by or contributed to by the acts or omissions of Tenant, its officers, agents, servants, employees, contractors, customers, guests, visitors and invitees. This provision shall survive the termination or expiration of the Lease and any extension thereof.

(c) Tenant shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend Landlord, its officers, agents, servants and employees from and against all demands, claims, causes of action, fines, penalties, damages (including without limitation consequential damages), losses, liabilities, judgments and expenses (including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs and reasonable consultant and reasonable expert witness fees) arising out of any acts or omissions of Tenant, its officers, agents, servants, employees, contractors, customers, guests, visitors and invitees, or breach of the Lease caused by or contributed to by Tenant, its officers, agents, servants, employees, contractors, customers, guests, visitors and invitees. Any defense of such claim shall be with counsel reasonably satisfactory to Landlord. This provision shall survive the expiration or termination of the Lease and any extension thereof.

(d) Tenant shall maintain in full force and effect during the entire term of the Lease and any renewals thereof at Tenant's sole expense, an entire insurance policy or policies of comprehensive general public liability insurance protecting Tenant and Landlord against any loss, liability from personal injury, theft, death or property damage arising or occurring upon or in connection with the Leased Premises by reason of Tenant's operation or occupancy of the Leased Premises, the operation of Tenant's business, or any acts or omissions of Tenant, its agents, servants, employees, contractors, customers, guests, visitors and invitees, in at least the amount of $1,000,000.00 combined single limit per occurrence. Certificates of insurance shall be provided promptly to Landlord from policy period to policy period and at least ten (10) days before the commencement date of the Lease and any renewals thereof, naming Landlord as additional insured. Each such policy shall provide that it cannot be canceled without at least thirty (30) days written notice to Landlord. Each such policy shall be issued by an insurer satisfactory to Landlord in a form satisfactory to Landlord. If Tenant fails for any reason to obtain or maintain the insurance coverage it is required to provide under the Lease, Landlord shall have the right to purchase such insurance, and all such payments by Landlord shall be recoverable by Landlord, together with interest thereon, as additional rent immediately upon submission of a bill by Landlord.

(e) If the Leased Premises are totally destroyed or so damaged by fire or other casualty that, in the opinion of a licensed architect or engineer retained by Landlord, the same cannot be repaired and restored within one hundred eighty (180) days from the happening of such injury the Lease shall absolutely cease and determine, and the rent shall abate for the balance of the term.

(f) If the Leased Premises are partially damaged by fire or other casualty, and the damage be only partial and such that the Leased Premises can be restored, in the opinion of a licensed architect or engineer retained by the Landlord, to approximately their former condition within one hundred eighty (180) days from the date of the casualty loss Landlord may, at Landlord's option, restore the same with reasonable promptness, reserving the right to enter upon the Leased Premises for that purpose, or Landlord may terminate the Lease. Landlord reserves the right to enter upon the Leased Premises whenever necessary to repair damage caused by fire or other casualty to the building or buildings or real property of which Leased Premises is a part, even though the effect of such entry is to render the Leased Premises or a part thereof untenable. If all or a portion of the Leased Premises is rendered untenable either by fire or other casualty or by Landlord's possession thereof during the period of repairs, the rent shall be abated proportionately during the period of untenability as to the portion rendered untenable. If a dispute arises as to the amount of rent due under this clause, Tenant agrees to pay the full amount claimed by Landlord. Tenant shall have the right to proceed by law to recover the excess payments, if any.

Landlord shall make such election to repair the Leased Premises or terminate the Lease by giving notice thereof to Tenant at the Leased Premises within thirty (30) days from the day Landlord received notice that the Leased Premises had been destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty.

(g) Tenant shall at all times be solely responsible for the protection and safety of all machinery, equipment, trade fixtures and other personal property used by Tenant in its business, whether owned by Tenant or third parties; and shall upon written notice from Landlord, immediately remove all such items, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, from the Leased Premises upon the termination of the Lease, or as required by Landlord with respect to repairs or improvements by Landlord to the Leased Premises.

(h) Except as to abatement of rent, Landlord shall not be liable for any damage, compensation, or claim by reason of the necessity of repairing any portion of the Leased Premises or building or buildings or real property of which the Leased Premises are a part, the interruption in the use of the Leased Premises, any inconvenience or annoyance arising as a result of such repairs or interruption, or the termination of the Lease by reason of damage to or destruction of the Leased Premises or building or buildings or real property of which the Leased Premises are a part.

(i) Landlord has let the Leased Premises in their present "as is" condition and without any representation or warranty, other than those specifically set forth in writing in this Lease by Landlord, through its officers and employees. It is understood and agreed the Landlord is under no duty to make repairs, alterations, or decorations at the inception of the Lease, except with respect to the improvements specifically agreed to in the Lease, or at any time thereafter unless subsequently agreed to in a written agreement signed by both parties..

(j) It is understood and agreed that the Landlord does not warrant or undertake that the Tenant shall be able to obtain a permit under any statute, zoning ordinance or governmental regulation for such use as Tenant intends to make of the Leased Premises, and nothing contained in the Lease shall obligate the Landlord to assist Tenant in obtaining said permit. Tenant further agrees that if a permit cannot be obtained by Tenant under any under any statute, zoning ordinance or governmental regulation, the Lease shall not terminate without Landlord's consent, and the Tenant shall use the Leased Premises only in a manner permitted under such statute, zoning ordinance or governmental regulation, provided such use has been agreed to in the Lease.

12. (a) No contract entered into or that may be subsequently entered into by Landlord with Tenant, relative to any alterations, additions, improvements or repairs, nor the failure of Landlord to make such alterations, additions, improvements or repairs as required by any such contract, nor the making by Landlord or its agents or contractors of such alterations, additions, improvements or repairs shall in any way affect the payment of the rent or other charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest specified in the Lease, unless otherwise specified in writing in the Lease.

(b) It is hereby covenanted and agreed, that any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding, that Landlord shall have the right at all times to enforce all the provisions and covenants of the Lease in strict accordance with the terms thereof, notwithstanding any conduct or custom on the part of the Landlord in refraining from so doing at any time or times; and further, that the failure of Landlord at any time or times to enforce any or all of its rights under any or all of the provisions or covenants of the Lease strictly in accordance with the terms thereof shall not be construed as having created a custom in any way or manner contrary to the specific provisions and covenants of the Lease or as having in any way or manner modified the Lease.

(c) If Tenant, after ten (10) days written notice to cure, fails promptly to perform any provisions or covenants of the Lease that are Tenant's obligation; or if any breach by Tenant of any provision or covenant of the Lease that is Tenant's obligation causes a health or safety hazard to persons or property, or violates any applicable statutes, ordinances or regulations, or interferes with the rights of other tenants of Landlord; or if Landlord is required in an emergency to perform any provision or covenant of the Lease that is Tenant's obligation; then in the event of any of the above occurring Landlord may go upon the Leased Premises and perform such provision or covenant, the cost thereof, at the sole option of the Landlord, to be charged to Tenant as additional and delinquent rent.

(d) Tenant hereby grants to Landlord a security interest under the Uniform Commercial Code in all of Tenant's goods and personal property in, on, or about the Leased Premises. Said security interest shall secure unto Landlord the payment of all rent (and charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest reserved as rent or otherwise owed to Landlord) hereunder which shall become due under the provisions of the Lease. Tenant hereby agrees to execute, upon request of Landlord, such financing statements or other documents as may be required under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code to perfect a security interest in Tenant's said goods and property.

13. (a) The occurrence of any one or more of the following shall constitute an "Event of Default":

(1) Tenant's failure to pay when due and without demand rent, additional rent or any other charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest owed to Landlord under the Lease.

(2) Tenant violating, failing to perform or otherwise breaching any provision or covenant of the Lease that is Tenant's obligation, or otherwise made between Landlord and Tenant.

(3) Tenant vacating the Leased Premises or removing or attempting to remove or manifesting an intention to remove any goods or property from the Leased Premises otherwise than in the ordinary and usual course of business without having first paid and satisfied the Landlord in full for all rent, additional rent, charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest then due or that may thereafter become due until the expiration of the current term of the Lease or any earlier term of the Lease.

(4) Tenant becoming insolvent in any sense, or making an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or offering a composition or settlement to creditors, or if one-half or more of the real property or one-half or more the personal property of Tenant shall be attached; or if there remains outstanding for a period in excess of sixty (60) days: (i) a petition in bankruptcy is filed by or against Tenant; (ii) a complaint in equity or other proceedings for the appointment of a receiver, trustee, liquidator, custodian or conservator for Tenant or Tenant's assets is filed; (iii) or if proceedings for reorganization or for composition with creditors under any State or federal law be instituted by or against Tenant.

(b) Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, in addition to any other remedies Landlord may have under the Lease or at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the right to exercise, as many times as Landlord shall deem appropriate, any or all of the following remedies:

(1) To charge Tenant a late fee of five percent (5%) of the monthly rental, additional rental or other charges, payments, costs or expenses not received by Landlord on the due date. Interest shall accrue and be deemed due and payable on all sums, including without limitation late fees, due and unpaid under the Lease at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum. If Landlord incurs a charge or penalty in connection with any payment which Tenant has failed to make within the times required by the Lease, Tenant shall pay Landlord, as additional rent, the full amount of such charge or penalty.

(2) To accelerate the whole or any part of the rent and additional rent for the entire unexpired balance of the term of the Lease, including all other charges, payments, costs or expenses agreed to be paid by Tenant or for which Tenant is or would become liable, all of which shall be deemed due and payable and in arrears.

(3) To reenter the Leased Premises and at the option of the Landlord, remove all persons and any or all property therefrom by any appropriate summary dispossession proceeding or by any applicable proceeding at law or in equity or as otherwise provided in the Lease, and repossess and enjoy the Leased Premises, all without being liable for any such prosecution or any damages. Upon recovering possession of the Leased Premises as the result of Tenant's default, Landlord may at its option terminate the Lease or make such alterations, improvements and repairs as it deems appropriate, and re-let the Leased Premises or any part thereof, for such term or terms as may be the same, less than or greater than the term of the Lease, and at such rental and other terms and conditions as Landlord deems appropriate, and to such person or persons as Landlord deems appropriate. All rental received by Landlord from such reletting shall be applied first to the payment of the costs of re-letting, including reasonable architect, engineer and attorney fees, and second, to the payment of any indebtedness other than rent due to Landlord from Tenant, and third to the payment of rent and additional rent due and unpaid under the Lease, including accelerated rent, charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest. The residue, if any, shall be held by Landlord and applied to the payment of rent, additional rent, charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest as are or may become due and payable. Landlord's reentry, taking possession or making alterations, repairs or improvements, or the re-letting of all or any part of the Leased Premises shall not be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate the Lease, unless Landlord shall have given written notice of intention to terminate the Lease. Landlord shall not be liable for failure to re-let all or part of the Leased Premises, or for failure to collect rent for the re-letting.

(4) To terminate the Lease and the term created thereby, without any right on the part of Tenant to waive the forfeiture by payment of any sum due or by performance of any other provision, term, condition or covenant broken. Upon termination of the Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant all sums due and owing and damages, including interest, arising out of Tenant's breach of the provisions and covenants of the Lease, existing at the time of termination of the Lease ; and also damages for Tenant's default in an amount equal to the rent reserved for the remaining term of the Lease, including all additional rent, charges, payments, costs and expenses agreed to be paid by Tenant, all discounted to present worth at the rate of four percent (4%) per annum, less the fair rental value of the Leased Premises for the remainder of the term (reduced by the reasonable time and costs to re-let the Leased Premises, including architect, engineer and attorney fees) also discounted to present worth at the rate of four percent (4%) per annum, all of which shall be immediately due and payable to Landlord. Nothing in this Lease shall limit or prejudice Landlord's right to recover damages by reason of termination in an amount equal to the maximum allowed by any bankruptcy or reorganization or insolvency proceedings.

(5) To proceed as a secured party under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code against the goods and personal property in which Landlord has been granted a security interest pursuant to this Lease.

(6) To have and exercise any and all other rights and remedies, granted or allowed landlords by an existing or future Statute, Act of Assembly, or other law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in cases where a landlord seeks to enforce rights arising under a lease agreement against a tenant who has defaulted or otherwise breached the terms of such lease agreement.

(7) Tenant covenants and agrees that if any rent, additional rent, charges, payments, costs, expenses or interest reserved in this lease as rent or any other charges, payments, costs, expenses or interest (including all accelerations of rent, charges, payments, costs or expenses permissible under the provisions of the Lease) shall remain unpaid five (5) days after the same is required to be paid, then and in that event, Landlord may cause Judgment to be entered against Tenant, and for that purpose Tenant hereby authorizes and empowers Landlord or any Prothonotary, Clerk of Court or Attorney of any Court of Record to appear for and confess judgment against Tenant and agrees that Landlord may commence an action pursuant to Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure No. 2950 et seq. or such other Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure as may be promulgated from time to time, for the recovery from Tenant of all rent due and owing under the Lease (including all accelerations of rent, charges, payments, costs and expenses permissible under the provisions of the Lease) and/or for all charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest reserved under the Lease as rent or for which Tenant is otherwise liable under the Lease, as well as for interest and costs and Attorney's commission of five percent (5%) of the full amount of Landlord's claim against Tenant, for which authorization to confess judgment, the Lease, or a true and correct copy thereof, shall be sufficient warrant. Such judgment may be confessed against Tenant for the amount of rent in arrears (including all accelerations of rent, charges, payments, costs and expenses permissible under the provisions of this lease) and/or for all charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest reserved under the Lease as rent or for which Tenant is otherwise liable under the Lease, as well as for interest and costs; together with an attorney's commission of five percent (5%) of the full amount of Landlord's claim against Tenant. Neither the right to institute an action pursuant to Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure No. 2950 et seq. or such other

Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure as may be promulgated from time to time, nor the authority to confess judgment granted herein shall be exhausted by one or more exercise thereof, but successive complaints may be filed and successive judgments may be entered for the afore described sums five (5) days or more after they become due as well as after the expiration of the original term and/or during or after expiration of any extension or renewal of the Lease.

(8) Tenant covenants and agrees that if the Lease shall be terminated (either because of Tenant's breach of the Lease during the term of the Lease or any renewal or extension thereof and/or when the term hereby created or any extension thereof shall have expired) then, and in that event, Landlord may cause a judgment in ejectment to be entered against Tenant for possession of the Leased Premises, and for that purpose Tenant hereby authorizes and empowers any Prothonotary, Clerk of Court or Attorney of any Court of Record to appear for Tenant and to confess judgment against Tenant in Ejectment for possession of the Leased Premises, and agrees that Landlord may commence an action pursuant to Pennsylvania Rules of Procedure No. 2970 et seq. or such other Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure as may be promulgated from time to time, for the entry of an order in Ejectment for the possession of real property, and Tenant further agrees that a Writ of Possession pursuant thereto may issue forthwith, for which authorization to confess judgment and for the issuance of a writ or writs of possession pursuant thereto, the Lease, or a true and correct copy thereof, shall be sufficient warrant. Tenant further covenants and agrees, that if for any reason whatsoever, after said action shall have commenced the action shall be terminated and the possession of the Leased Premises hereunder shall remain in or be restored to Tenant, Landlord shall have the right upon any subsequent default or defaults, or upon the termination of the Lease as above set forth to commence successive actions for possession of real property and to cause the entry of successive judgments by confession in Ejectment for possession of the Leased Premises.

In any procedure or action to enter Judgment by Confession for Money pursuant to Section 13 (b)(7) hereof, or to enter Judgment By Confession in Ejectment for possession of real property pursuant to Section 13 (b)(8) hereof, if Landlord shall first cause to be filed in such action an affidavit or averment of the facts constituting the default or occurrence of the condition precedent, or event, the happening of which default, occurrence, or event authorizes and empowers Landlord to cause the entry of judgment by confession, such affidavit or averment shall be conclusive evidence of such facts, defaults, occurrences, conditions precedent, or events; and if a true and correct copy of the Lease (and of the truth of which such affidavit or averment shall be sufficient evidence) be filed in such procedure or action, it shall not be necessary to file the original as a Warrant of Attorney, any rule of court, custom, or practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

Tenant hereby releases to Landlord and to any and all attorneys who may appear for Tenant all errors in any procedure or action to enter Judgment by Confession by virtue of the warrants of attorney contained in the Lease, and all liability therefore. Tenant further authorizes the Prothonotary or any Clerk of any Court of Record to issue a Writ of Execution or other process, and further agrees that real estate may be sold on a Writ of Execution or other process. If proceedings shall be commenced to recover possession of the Leased Premises either at the end of the term or sooner termination of the Lease, or for non-payment of rent or for any other reason, Tenant specifically waives the right to the three (3) months' notice to quit and/or fifteen (15) or thirty (30) days' notice to quit required by the Act of April 6, 1951, P.L. 69, as amended, and agrees that five (5) days' notice shall be sufficient in either or any such case.

TENANT HAS READ AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS THE RIGHTS AND REMEDIES GIVEN TO LANDLORD UNDER THE CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT CLAUSES IN PARAGRAPHS 13 (b) (7) and 13 (b)(8) OF THE LEASE, AND HAS CONSULTED WITH COUNSEL OF ITS CHOICE IF IT WISHED TO DO SO; AND HAS AGREED TO THESE CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT CLAUSES WITH FULL AND COMPLETE KNOWLEDGE OF THESE CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT CLAUSES, THEIR EFFECTS AND THE REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO LANDLORD UNDER THEM; AND WITH FULL AND COMPLETE KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING OF THE CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT CLAUSES WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO ANY DUE PROCESS HEARINGS OR OTHER HEARINGS TO WHICH IT MAY BE ENTITLED BEFORE THE ENTRY OF ANY JUDGMENT AGAINST IT PURSUANT TO SUCH CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT CLAUSES, OR BEFORE OR DURING THE ISSUANCE OF, OR BEFORE OR DURING ANY PROCEEDINGS PURSUANT TO ANY WRIT OF EXECUTION TO SEIZE, ATTACH, GARNISH AND SELL ANY ASSETS OF TENANT INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY BANK OR SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION ACCOUNTS OR ASSETS DEPOSITED WITH ANY BANK OR SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION; OR ANY PROCEEDINGS TO OBTAIN POSSESSION OR PURSUANT TO A JUDGMENT OF CONFESSION IN EJECTMENT TO OBTAIN POSSESSION PURSUANT TO A WRIT OF POSSESSION.

(9) The right to enter default judgment against Tenant by confession and to enforce all other provisions of the Lease may at the option of any assignee of the Lease, be exercised by any assignee of the Landlord's right, title and interest in the Lease in his, her, or their own name, any statute, rule of court, custom, or practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

(10) If Landlord terminates the Lease as provided for in subsection (4) hereof or as permitted by law, or notifies Tenant of its intent to take possession under subsection (3) hereof, Tenant shall peaceably quit and surrender the Leased Premises to Landlord, and Landlord may, without further notice, enter upon, reenter, possess, repossess, take possession or repossession by summary proceedings, ejectment or other legal proceedings, and again have, possess and enjoy the Leased Premises as though the Lease had not been made, and neither Tenant nor anyone claiming by or through Tenant by virtue of any law or order of any court shall be entitled to possession of the Leased Premises.

(11) Landlord shall have right, in addition to all other remedies, to enter upon the Leased Premises without notice to Tenant by force or otherwise and take possession of any and all goods, wares, equipment, fixtures, furniture, improvements and other personal property of Tenant situated on the Leased premises, without liability for trespass or conversion, and sell the same at public or private sale, with or without having such property at the sale, after giving Tenant five (5) days written notice of the time and place of any public or private sale or of the date after which any private sale is to be made, at which sale Landlord or its assigns may purchase unless otherwise prohibited by law. Unless otherwise provided by law, and without intending to exclude any other manner of giving written notice that Landlord may select, Landlord shall give notice of any such sale to Tenant in the manner prescribed in Section 9 of the Lease at least five (5) days before the date of sale. The proceeds from any such sale, less any and all expenses connected with the taking of such possession, holding and selling of the aforesaid property (including reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses) shall be applied against the indebtedness of Tenant. Tenant shall promptly pay any deficiency.

(12) Landlord shall have no duty to mitigate damages.

14. Tenant agrees to pay as additional rent all reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred by Landlord in enforcing any of Tenant's obligations under the Lease, including without limitation all reasonable attorney's fees and other costs incurred prior to, during or after any legal or equitable action brought by Landlord or defended by Landlord or in which Landlord is a party, such sum to be fixed by the court in the legal or equitable action or where necessary in a separate action brought by Landlord; and this covenant shall survive the expiration or termination or extinguishment of the Lease. In the event of any bankruptcy proceedings brought by or against Tenant, Landlord shall be entitled to receive and shall receive from Tenant all reasonable attorney's fees and other costs incurred by Landlord in enforcing any of Tenant's obligations under the Lease or any of Landlord's rights in the bankruptcy, or incurred by Landlord in connection with the bankruptcy and the bankruptcy proceedings, such sums to be paid by Tenant whether or not Landlord is successful in any particular action in the bankruptcy proceeding; such sums to be fixed by the court in such action or the bankruptcy proceeding, as the court shall determine; and this covenant shall survive the expiration or termination or extinguishment of the Lease.

15. All of the remedies hereinbefore given to Landlord and all rights and remedies given to it by law and equity shall be cumulative and concurrent. No termination of the Lease or the taking or recovering possession of the Leased Premises shall deprive Landlord of any of its remedies or actions against the Tenant for rent, additional rent, charges, payments, costs, expenses or interest due at the time or which, under the terms of the Lease would in the future become due as if there had been no termination; nor shall the bringing of any action for rent, additional rent, charges, payments, costs, expenses, interest or breach of any provision or covenant of Tenant under the Lease or otherwise, or the resort to any other remedy provided for in the Lease or otherwise for the recovery of rent, additional rent, charges, payments, costs, expenses or interest be construed as a waiver of the right to obtain possession of the premises.

16. If all or part of the Leased Premises are taken for any public or quasi-public use under any statute or by right of eminent domain, or by private purchase in lieu thereof, so as to prevent the practical use of the Leased Premises, then Tenant may terminate the Lease by written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice of such taking.

If any part of the Leased Premises is so taken and the Lease is not terminated under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the rent shall be apportioned according to the space so taken, and Landlord shall, to the extent possible with any award of damages from such taking, unless denied the right to do so by Landlord's mortgagee or mortgagees, repair and restore the remaining portion of the Leased Premises and the building and improvements related thereto to the extent necessary to render the Leased Premises reasonably suitable for the purposes for which it is leased, and to constitute the building and Leased Premises a complete, functional property.

All compensation awarded or paid upon such a total or partial taking of the Leased Premises shall belong to and be the sole property of the Landlord without participation by Tenant or assignees or subtenants of Tenant, except for any award for Tenant's or assignees or subtenants of Tenant's loss of business, or of the value of stock, trade fixtures, furniture and other property belonging to Tenant or assignees or subtenants of Tenant, if any.

17. The Lease and all its terms, covenants and provisions are and each of them is subject and subordinate to any lease or other arrangement or right to possession, under which the Landlord is in control of the Leased Premises, to the rights of the owner or owners of the Leased

Premises and building or buildings and of the real property of which the Leased Premises are a part, to all right of the Landlord's landlord and to any and all mortgages and other encumbrances now or hereafter placed upon the Leased Premises and/or the building or buildings and real property containing the Leased Premises; with the proviso that so long as Tenant performs all its obligations under the Lease, Tenant shall be entitled to the peaceful and quiet enjoyment of the Leased Premises; subject, however, to the written approval from time to time of Landlord's then current mortgagee or mortgagees.

18. (a) It is hereby mutually agreed that either party to the Lease may terminate the Lease at the end of the current term by giving to the other party written notice thereof at least six (6) months before the end of the term, but in default of such notice, the Lease shall continue from year to year upon the same terms and conditions in force immediately before the expiration of the term, until terminated by either party hereto giving the other six (6) months written notice of termination before the expiration of the then current term; provided, however, that should the Lease be continued for a further period under the terms hereinabove mentioned, any allowances given Tenant on the rent during the original term or a prior term shall not extend beyond such original term or prior term.

(b) If Landlord shall have given six (6) months written notice before the expiration of any term of the Lease of changes by Landlord to the terms and conditions of the Lease, and Tenant shall not within thirty (30) days from the date of such notice notify Landlord in writing of Tenant's termination of the lease at the end of the current term, the Lease shall renew at the end of the then current term as modified by the terms and conditions set forth in the aforesaid written notice from Landlord. If such changed terms and conditions are not accepted by Tenant by written notice to Landlord within the thirty (30) day time period set forth above, the Lease shall automatically terminate at the end of the current term.

(c) In the event Tenant shall give written notice, as stipulated in the Lease, of its termination of the Lease and shall fail or refuse to vacate the Leased Premises on the date it is required to have vacated the Leased Premises, then it is expressly agreed that Landlord shall have the option either to (1) disregard the notice given as having no effect, in which case all the terms and conditions of the Lease (including all changes to the terms and conditions, if any, by Landlord contained in Landlord's written notice under subsection (b) hereof) shall continue thereafter with full force precisely as if such notice by Tenant had not been given, or (2) Landlord may at any time give Tenant ten (10) days' written notice of Landlord's termination of the Lease; whereupon Tenant expressly agrees to vacate the Leased Premises at the expiration of the ten (10) day period specified in the notice. All powers granted to Landlord by the Lease may be exercised and all obligation imposed upon Tenant by the Lease shall be performed by Tenant as well during any extension of the original term of the Lease as during the original term, and during any period during which Tenant has failed and refused to vacate.

19. All notices shall be given by certified mail, return receipt requested, as follows:

(a) To the Tenant at the Leased Premises.

(b) To the Landlord at the address set forth in paragraph 7 of the Lease or to such other address as Landlord shall designate in writing.

20. It is expressly understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that the Lease and the Exhibits and Addenda attached hereto, if any, and forming a part of the Lease set forth all the promises, agreements, conditions and understandings between Landlord and Tenant relative to the Leased Premises, and that there are no promises, agreements, conditions or understandings, either oral or written, between them other than as set forth in the Lease. It is further understood and agreed that no subsequent alteration, amendment, change or addition to the Lease shall be binding upon Landlord or Tenant unless reduced to writing and signed by both of them.

21. All rights and liabilities herein given to, or imposed upon, the respective parties hereto shall extend to and bind the several respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the parties; and if there shall be more than one Tenant, they shall all be bound jointly and severally by the terms, covenants and agreements herein, and the word "Tenant" shall be deemed and taken to mean each and every person or party mentioned as a Tenant herein, be the same one or more; and if there shall be more than one Tenant, any notice required or permitted by the terms of Lease may be given by or to any one thereof, and shall have the same force and effect as if given by or to all thereof. The words "his" and "him" and "it" wherever stated herein, shall be deemed to refer to the "Landlord" or the "Tenant", as appropriate, whether such Landlord or Tenant be singular or plural and irrespective of gender. No rights, however, shall inure to the benefit of any assignee of Tenant unless the assignment to such assignee has been approved by Landlord in writing.

22. Landlord acknowledges existing security deposit in the amount of Twenty Three Thousand, Two Hundred Fifty One and 11/100 Dollars ($23,251.11), which deposits will be returned to Tenant within Thirty (30) days after expiration of the lease term, subject to a satisfactory physical inspection of the Leased Premises by Landlord, and provided that all rentals, additional rent, charges, payments, costs, expenses and interest have been paid in full.

All accrued and unpaid interest shall be payable monthly in arrears on the 15th day of each month following the end of an Interest Period.

Interest Period means initially, the period commencing on the date of this Note (the "Start Date") and ending on the numerically corresponding date one month later, and thereafter each one month period ending on the day of such month that numerically corresponds to the Start Date. (London time) 2 London Banking Days prior to the interest rate reset date; provided however, if more than one BBA LIBOR is specified, the applicable rate shall be the arithmetic mean of all such rates. London Banking Days means any day on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London, England. If, for any reason, such rate is not available, the term LIBOR shall mean, with respect to any Interest Period, the rate of interest per annum determined by Bank to be the average rate per annum at which deposits in dollars are offered for such Interest Period by major banks in the London, England at approximately 11:00 A.M. (London time) 2 London Banking Days prior to the interest rate reset date.

Principal and interest shall be payable at the Bank's main office or at such other place as the Bank may designate in writing in immediately available funds in lawful money of the United States of America without set-off, deduction or counterclaim. Interest shall be calculated on the basis of actual number of days elapsed and a 360-day year.

This Note is a revolving note and, subject to the foregoing and in accordance with the provisions hereof and of any and all other agreements between the Borrower and the Bank related hereto, the Borrower may, at its option, borrow, pay, prepay and reborrow hereunder at any time prior to the Maturity Date or such earlier date as the obligations of the Borrower to the Bank under this Note, and any other agreements between the Bank and the Borrower related hereto, shall become due and payable, or the obligation of the Bank to extend financial accommodations to the Borrower shall terminate; provided, however, that in any event the principal balance outstanding hereunder shall at no time exceed the face

BORROWER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT HAS BEEN OR HAS HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO BE REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS NOTE AND THAT IT KNOWINGLY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO BE HEARD PRIOR TO THE ENTRY OF SUCH JUDGMENT AND UNDERSTANDS THAT, UPON SUCH ENTRY, SUCH JUDGMENT SHALL BECOME A LIEN ON ALL REAL PROPERTY OF BORROWER IN THE COUNTY WHERE SUCH JUDGMENT IS ENTERED.

Any payments received by the Bank on account of this Note shall, at the Bank's option, be applied to any accrued unpaid interest, then to outstanding and due amounts of principal; then to any required escrow payment if applicable; then to any debt protection insurance premium if applicable; and then to any fees including late charges and then to any costs. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any payments received after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default shall be applied in such manner as the Bank may determine. The Borrower hereby authorizes the Bank to charge any deposit account which the Borrower may maintain with the Bank for any payment required hereunder without prior notice to the Borrower.

The Borrower hereby authorizes Bank to charge checking account number 373006618 at Bank (or such other account maintained by the Borrower at Bank as the Borrower shall designate by written notice to the Bank) (the "Deposit Account") to satisfy the monthly payments due and payable to Bank hereunder. Bank is hereby authorized to charge the Deposit Account on each charge date or, if any charge date shall fall on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, then either on the first (1st) business day immediately preceding or the first (1st) business day immediately following any such charge date until the Note shall be paid in full.

The Borrower agrees to maintain sufficient funds in the Deposit Account to satisfy the payment due Bank under the Note on each charge date during the term of the loan. If sufficient funds are not available in the Deposit Account on any charge date to pay the amounts then due and payable under this Note, Bank, in its sole discretion, is authorized to: (a) charge the Deposit Account for such lesser amount as shall then be available; and/or (b) charge the Deposit Account on such later date or dates that funds shall be available in the Deposit Account to satisfy the payment then due (or balance of such payment then due). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower shall only be entitled to receive credit in respect of any payments of principal and interest due under this Note for funds actually received by Bank as a result of any such charges to the Deposit Account. The Borrower shall be liable to Bank for any late fees or interest at the default rate on any payments not made on a timely basis by the Borrower because of insufficient funds in the Deposit Account on any charge date. In the event the Deposit Account continues to contain insufficient funds to fully satisfy the payments due Bank under this Note, the Borrower shall be responsible for making all such payments from another source and in no event shall the obligations of the Borrower under this Note be affected or diminished as a result of any shortages in the Deposit Account, it being understood and agreed that the Borrower shall at all times remain liable for payment in full of all Indebtedness under the Note.

Bank may, at Bank's sole discretion, discontinue charging the Deposit Account at any time on not less than ten (10) days' written notice to the Borrower, in which event, the Borrower shall thereafter be responsible for making all payments hereunder to Bank at the address set forth in Bank's notice or if no such address is given; then to Bank at P.O. Box 5600, Lewiston, Maine 04243-5600.

If pursuant to the terms of this Note, the Borrower is at any time obligated to pay interest on the principal balance at a rate in excess of the maximum interest rate permitted by applicable law for the loan evidenced by this Note, the applicable interest rate shall be immediately reduced to such maximum rate and all previous payments in excess of the maximum rate shall be deemed to have been payments in reduction of principal and not on account of the interest due hereunder.

The Borrower represents to the Bank that the proceeds of this Note will not be used for

The Borrower and each endorser and guarantor hereof grant to the Bank a continuing lien on and security interest in any and all deposits or other sums at any time credited by or due from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) to the Borrower and/or each endorser or guarantor hereof and any cash, securities, instruments or other property of the Borrower and each endorser and guarantor hereof in the possession of the Bank or any Bank Affiliate, whether for safekeeping or otherwise, or in transit to or from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate (regardless of the reason the Bank or Bank Affiliate had received the same or whether the Bank or Bank Affiliate has conditionally released the same) as security for the full and punctual payment and performance of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Borrower and/or any endorser or guarantor hereof to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate and such deposits and other sums may be applied or set off against such liabilities and obligations of the Borrower or any endorser or guarantor hereof to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate at any time, whether or not such are then due, whether or not demand has been made and whether or not other collateral is then available to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate.

No delay or omission on the part of the Bank in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right or of any other right of the Bank, nor shall any delay, omission or waiver on any one occasion be deemed a bar to or waiver of the same or any other right on any future occasion. The Borrower and every endorser or guarantor of this Note, regardless of the time, order or place of signing, waives presentment, demand, protest, notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration and all other notices of every kind in connection with the delivery, acceptance, performance or enforcement of this Note and assents to any extension or postponement of the time of payment or any other indulgence, to any substitution, exchange or release of collateral, and to the addition or release of any other party or person primarily or secondarily liable and waives all recourse to suretyship and guarantor defenses generally, including any defense based on impairment of collateral. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Borrower and each endorser and guarantor of this Note waive and terminate any homestead rights and/or exemptions respecting any premises under the provisions of any applicable homestead laws, including without limitation, Title 42, Section 8123, of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes Annotated.

Borrower hereby waives and releases all errors, defects and imperfections in any proceedings instituted by the Bank under the terms of this Note or any other loan documents, as well as all benefits that might accrue to the Borrower by virtue of any present or future laws exempting any property, real or personal, or any part of the proceeds arising from any sale of such property, from attachment, levy or sale under execution or providing for any stay of execution, exemption from civil process or extension of time for payment, as well as the right of inquisition on any real estate that may be levied upon under a judgment obtained by virtue hereof, and Borrower hereby voluntarily condemns the same and authorizes the entry of such voluntary condemnation on any writ of execution issued thereon, and agrees that such real estate may be sold upon any such writ in whole or in part in any order desired by the Bank.

The Borrower and each endorser and guarantor of this Note shall indemnify, defend and hold the Bank and the Bank Affiliates and their directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys (each an "Indemnitee") harmless against any claim brought or threatened against any Indemnitee by the Borrower, by any endorser or guarantor, or by any other person (as well as from attorneys' reasonable fees and expenses in connection therewith) on account of the Bank's relationship with the Borrower or any endorser or guarantor hereof (each of which may be defended, compromised, settled or pursued by the Bank with counsel of the Bank's selection, but at the expense of the Borrower and any endorser and/or guarantor), except for any claim arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank.

The Borrower and each endorser and guarantor of this Note agree to pay, upon demand, costs of collection of all amounts under this Note including, without limitation, principal and interest, or in connection with the enforcement of, or realization on, any security for this Note, including, without limitation, to the extent permitted by applicable law, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, interest shall accrue at a rate per annum equal to the aggregate of 4.0% plus the rate provided for herein. If any payment due under this Note is unpaid for 15 days or more, the Borrower shall pay, in addition to any other sums due under this Note (and without limiting the Bank's other remedies on account thereof), a late charge equal to 6.0% of such unpaid amount.

This Note shall be binding upon the Borrower and each endorser and guarantor hereof and upon their respective heirs, successors, assigns and legal representatives, and shall inure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors, endorsees and assigns.

The liabilities of the Borrower and any endorser or guarantor of this Note are joint and several; provided, however, the release by the Bank of the Borrower or any one or more endorsers or guarantors shall not release any other person obligated on account of this Note. Any and all present and future debts of the Borrower to any endorser or guarantor of this Note are subordinated to the full payment and performance of all present and future debts and obligations of the Borrower to the Bank. Each reference in this Note to the Borrower, any endorser, and any guarantor, is to such person individually and also to all such persons jointly. No person obligated on account of this Note may seek contribution from any other person also obligated, unless and until all liabilities, obligations and indebtedness to the Bank of the person from whom contribution is sought have been irrevocably satisfied in full. The release or compromise by the Bank of any collateral shall not release any person obligated on account of this Note.

The Borrower and each endorser and guarantor hereof each authorizes the Bank to complete this Note if delivered incomplete in any respect. A photographic or other reproduction of this Note may be made by the Bank, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence with the same effect as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding, whether or not the original is in existence.

The Borrower will from time to time execute and deliver to the Bank such documents, and take or cause to be taken, all such other further action, as the Bank may request in order to effect and confirm or vest more securely in the Bank all rights contemplated by this Note or any other loan documents related thereto (including, without limitation, to correct clerical errors) or to vest more fully in or assure to the Bank the security interest in any collateral securing this Note or to comply with applicable statute or law.

The Borrower agrees to execute, re-execute, cause any Guarantor(s) or other third party(ies) involved in the loan transaction to execute and/or re-execute and to deliver to Bank or its legal counsel, as may be deemed appropriate, any document or instrument signed in connection with the Loan which was incorrectly drafted and/or signed, as well as any document or instrument which should have been signed at or prior to the closing of the Loan, but which was not so signed and delivered. Borrower agrees to comply with any written request by Bank within ten (10) days after receipt by Borrower of such request. Failure by Borrower to so comply shall, at the option of Bank, upon notice to Borrower, constitute an event of default under the Loan. The Borrower authorizes the Bank to make any credit inquiries Bank deems necessary and authorizes any person or credit reporting agency to give Bank a copy of the Borrower's credit report and any other financial information it may have.

This Note is delivered to the Bank at one of its offices, shall take effect as a sealed instrument and shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

The Bank also hereby authorizes and permits the Borrower to receive from the Debtors all amounts due as proceeds of the Collateral at the Borrower's own cost and expense, and also liability, if any, subject to the direction and control of the Bank at all times; and the Bank may at any time, without cause or notice, and whether or not an Event of Default has occurred or demand has been made, terminate all or any part of the authority and permission herein or elsewhere in this Agreement granted to the Borrower with reference to the Collateral, and notify Debtors to make all payments due as proceeds of the Collateral to the Bank. The Borrower shall not, directly or indirectly, make or commit to make capital expenditures by lease, purchase, or otherwise, except in the ordinary and usual course of business for the purpose of replacing machinery, equipment or other personal property which, as a consequence of wear, duplication or obsolescence, is no longer used or necessary in the Borrower's business.

5.9 Sale of Assets. Borrower shall not sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of its assets, except in the ordinary and usual course of business and except for the purpose of replacing machinery, equipment or other personal property which, as a consequence of wear, duplication or obsolescence, is no longer used or necessary in the Borrower's business, provided that fair consideration is received therefor; provided, however, in no event shall the Borrower sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any equipment purchased with the proceeds of any loans made by the Bank.

5.10 Restriction on Liens. Borrower shall not grant any security interest in, or mortgage of, any of its properties or assets including the Collateral. Borrower shall not enter into any agreement with any person other than the Bank that prohibits the Borrower from granting any security interest in, or mortgage of, any of its properties or assets including the Collateral.

5.11 Other Business. Borrower shall not engage in any business other than the business in which it is currently engaged or a business reasonably allied thereto.

5.12 Change of Name, etc. Borrower shall not change its legal name or the State or the type of its organization, without giving the Bank at least 30 days prior written notice thereof.

6. DEFAULT

6.1 Default. "Event of Default" shall mean the occurrence of one or more of any of the following events:

- (a) default of any liability, obligation, covenant or undertaking of the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations to the Bank, hereunder or otherwise, including, without limitation, failure to pay in full and when due any installment of principal or interest or default of the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations under any other Loan Document or any other agreement with the Bank continuing for 15 days with respect to any default (other than with respect to the payment of money for which there is no grace period);
- (b) failure of the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations to maintain aggregate collateral security value satisfactory to the Bank continuing for 15 days;
- (c) default of any material liability, obligation or undertaking of the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations to any other party continuing for 15 days;
- (d) if any statement, representation or warranty heretofore, now or hereafter made by the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations in connection with this Agreement or in any supporting financial statement of the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations shall be determined by the Bank to have been false or misleading in any material respect when made;
- (e) if the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations is a corporation, trust, partnership or limited liability company, the liquidation, termination or dissolution of any such organization, or the merger or consolidation of such organization into another entity, or its ceasing to carry on actively its present business or the appointment of a receiver for its property;
- (f) the death of the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations and, if the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations is a partnership or limited liability company, the death of any partner or member;
- (g) the institution by or against the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations of any proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code 11 USC §101 et seq. or any other law in which the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations is alleged to be insolvent or unable to pay its debts as they mature, or the making by the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations of an assignment for the benefit of creditors or the granting by the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations of a trust mortgage for the benefit of creditors;

- (k) the termination or revocation of any guaranty of the Obligations; or

Loan Number - Note 1: 14773069001

- (l) the occurrence of such a change in the condition or affairs (financial or otherwise) of the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations, or the occurrence of any other event or circumstance, such that the Bank, in its sole discretion, deems that it is insecure or that the prospects for timely or full payment or performance of any obligation of the Borrower or any guarantor of the Obligations to the Bank has been or may be impaired.

6.2 Acceleration. If an Event of Default shall occur, at the election of the Bank, all Obligations shall become immediately due and payable without notice or demand, except with respect to Obligations payable on DEMAND, which shall be due and payable on DEMAND, whether or not an Event of Default has occurred.

The Bank is hereby authorized, at its election, after an Event of Default or after Demand, without any further demand or notice except to such extent as notice may be required by applicable law, to take possession and/or sell or otherwise dispose of all or any of the Collateral at public or private sale; and the Bank may also exercise any and all other rights and remedies of a secured party under the Code or which are otherwise accorded to it in equity or at law, all as Bank may determine, and such exercise of rights in compliance with the requirements of law will not be considered adversely to affect the commercial reasonableness of any sale or other disposition of the Collateral. If notice of a sale or other action by the Bank is required by applicable law, unless the Collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, the Borrower agrees that ten (10) days written notice to the Borrower, or the shortest period of written notice permitted by such law, whichever is smaller, shall be sufficient notice; and that to the extent permitted by law, the Bank, its officers, attorneys and agents may bid and become purchasers at any such sale, if public, and may purchase at any private sale any of the Collateral that is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market or which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations. Any sale (public or private) shall be without warranty and free from any right of redemption, which the Borrower shall waive and release after default upon the Bank's request therefor, and may be free of any warranties as to the Collateral if Bank shall so decide. No purchaser at any sale (public or private) shall be responsible for the application of the purchase money. Any balance of the net proceeds of sale remaining after paying all Obligations of the Borrower to the Bank shall be returned to such other party as may be legally entitled thereto; and if there is a deficiency, the Borrower shall be responsible for repayment of the same, with interest. Upon demand by the Bank, the Borrower shall assemble the Collateral and make it available to the Bank at a place designated by the Bank which is reasonably convenient to the Bank and the Borrower. The Borrower hereby acknowledges that the Bank has extended credit and other financial accommodations to the Borrower upon reliance of the Borrower's granting the Bank the rights and remedies contained in this Agreement including without limitation the right to take immediate possession of the Collateral upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or after DEMAND with respect to Obligations payable on DEMAND and the Borrower hereby acknowledges that the Bank is entitled to equitable and injunctive relief to enforce any of its rights and remedies hereunder or under the Code and the Borrower hereby waives any defense to such equitable or injunctive relief based upon any allegation of the absence of irreparable harm to the Bank.

The Bank shall not be required to marshal any present or future security for (including but not limited to this Agreement and the Collateral subject to the security interest created hereby), or guarantees of, the Obligations or any of them, or to resort to such security or guarantees in any particular order; and all of its rights hereunder and in respect of such securities and guaranties shall be cumulative and in addition to all other rights, however existing or arising. To the extent that it lawfully may do so, the Borrower hereby agrees that it will not invoke and irrevocably waives the benefits of any law relating to the marshaling of collateral which might cause delay in or impede the enforcement of the Bank's rights under this Agreement or under any other instrument evidencing any of the Obligations or under which any of the Obligations is outstanding or by which any of the Obligations is secured or guaranteed. Except as required by applicable law, the Bank shall have no duty as to the collection or protection of the Collateral or any income thereon, nor as to the preservation of rights against prior parties, nor as to the preservation of any rights pertaining thereto beyond the safe custody thereof.

6.3 Power of Attorney. The Borrower hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Bank as the Borrower's true and lawful attorney, with full power of substitution, at the sole cost and expense of the Borrower but for the sole benefit of the Bank, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default or after DEMAND with respect to Obligations payable on DEMAND, to convert the Collateral into cash, including, without limitation, completing the manufacture or processing of work in process, and the sale (either public or private) of all or any portion or portions of the inventory and other Collateral; to enforce collection of the Collateral, either in its own name or in the name of the Borrower, including, without limitation, executing releases or waivers, compromising or settling with any Debtors and prosecuting, defending, compromising or releasing any action relating to the Collateral; to receive, open and dispose of all mail addressed to the Borrower and to take therefrom any remittances or proceeds of Collateral in which the Bank has a security interest; to notify Post Office authorities to change the address for delivery of mail addressed to the Borrower to such address as the Bank shall designate; to endorse the name of the Borrower in favor of the Bank upon any and all checks, drafts, money orders, notes, acceptances or other instruments of the same or different nature; to sign and endorse the name of the Borrower on and to receive as secured party any of the Collateral, any invoices, freight or express receipts, or bills of lading, storage receipts, warehouse receipts, or other documents of title of the same or different nature relating to the Collateral; to sign the name of the Borrower on any notice of the Debtors or on verification of the Collateral; and to sign, if necessary, and file or record on behalf of the Borrower any financing or other statement in order to perfect or protect the Bank's security interest. The Bank shall not be obliged to do any of the acts or exercise any of the powers hereinabove authorized, but if the Bank elects to do any such act or exercise any such power, it shall not be accountable for more than it actually receives as a result of such exercise of power, and it shall not be responsible to the Borrower except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct. All powers conferred upon the Bank by this Agreement, being coupled with an interest, shall be irrevocable so long as any Obligation of the Borrower or any guarantor or surety to the Bank shall remain unpaid or the Bank is obligated under this Agreement to extend any credit to the Borrower.

6.4 Nonexclusive Remedies. All of the Bank's rights and remedies not only under the provisions of this Agreement but also under any other agreement or transaction shall be cumulative and not alternative or exclusive, and may be exercised by the Bank at such time or times and in such order of preference as the Bank in its sole discretion may determine.

6.5 Reassignment to Borrower. Whenever the Bank deems it desirable that any legal action be instituted with respect to any Collateral or that any other action be taken in any attempt to effectuate collection of any Collateral, the Bank may reassign the item in question to the Borrower (and if the Bank shall execute any such reassignment, it shall automatically be deemed to be without recourse to the Bank in any event) and require the Borrower to proceed with such legal or other action at the Borrower's sole liability, cost and expense, in which event all amounts collected by the Borrower on such item shall nevertheless be subject to the Bank's security interest.

7. MISCELLANEOUS

7.1 Waivers. The Borrower waives notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration, notice of nonpayment, demand, presentment, protest or notice of protest of the Obligations, and all other notices, consents to any renewals or extensions of time of payment thereof, and generally waives any and all suretyship defenses and defenses in the nature thereof.

7.2 Waiver of Homestead. To the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, the Borrower hereby waives and terminates any homestead rights and/or exemptions respecting any of its property under the provisions of any applicable homestead laws, including without limitation, Title 42, Section 8123, of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes Annotated.

7.3 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or portion of such provision or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall to any extent be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement (or the remainder of such provision) and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

7.4 Deposit Collateral. The Borrower hereby grants to the Bank a continuing lien and security interest in any and all deposits or other sums at any time credited by or due from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate to the Borrower and any cash, securities, instruments or other property of the Borrower in the possession of the Bank or any Bank Affiliate, whether for safekeeping or otherwise, or in transit to or from the Bank or any Bank Affiliate (regardless of the reason the Bank or Bank Affiliate had received the same or whether the Bank or Bank Affiliate has conditionally released the same) as security for the full and punctual payment and performance of all of the liabilities and obligations of the Borrower to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate and such deposits and other sums may be applied or set off against such liabilities and obligations of the Borrower to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate at any time, whether or not such are then due, whether or not demand has been made and whether or not other collateral is then available to the Bank or any Bank Affiliate.

7.5 Indemnification. The Borrower shall indemnify, defend and hold the Bank and its directors, officers, employees, agents and attorneys (each an "Indemnitee") harmless of and from any claim brought or threatened against any indemnitee by the Borrower, any guarantor or endorser of the Obligations, or any other person (as well as from reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses in connection therewith) on account of the Bank's relationship with the Borrower, or any guarantor or endorser of the Obligations (each of which may be defended, compromised, settled or pursued by the Bank with counsel of the Bank's election, but at the expense of the Borrower), except for any claim arising out of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Bank. The within indemnification shall survive payment of the Obligations, and/or any termination, release or discharge executed by the Bank in favor of the Borrower.

7.6 Costs and Expenses. The Borrower shall pay to the Bank on demand any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, court costs, litigation and other expenses) incurred or paid by the Bank in establishing, maintaining, protecting or enforcing any of the Bank's rights or the Obligations, including, without limitation, any and all such costs and expenses incurred or paid by the Bank in defending the Bank's security interest in, title or right to the Collateral or in collecting or attempting to collect or enforcing or attempting to enforce payment of the Obligations.

7.7 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute but one agreement.

7.8 Complete Agreement. This Agreement and the other Loan Documents constitute the entire agreement and understanding between and among the parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior proposals, negotiations, agreements and understandings among the parties hereto with respect to such subject matter.

7.9 Binding Effect of Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto, and shall remain in full force and effect (and the Bank shall be entitled to rely thereon) until released in writing by the Bank. The Bank may transfer and assign this Agreement and deliver the Collateral to the assignee, who shall thereupon have all of the rights of the Bank; and the Bank shall then be relieved and discharged of any responsibility or liability with respect to this Agreement and the Collateral. The Borrower may not assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement. Except as expressly provided herein or in the other Loan Documents, nothing, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any party, other than the parties hereto, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

7.10 Further Assurances. Borrower will from time to time execute and deliver to Bank such documents, and take or cause to be taken, all such other or further action, as Bank may request in order to effect and confirm or vest more securely in Bank all rights contemplated by this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including, without limitation, to correct clerical errors) or to vest more fully in or assure to the Bank the security interest in the Collateral granted to the Bank by this Agreement or to comply with applicable statute or law and to facilitate the collection of the Collateral (including, without limitation, the execution of stock transfer orders and stock powers, endorsement of promissory notes and instruments and notifications to obligors on the Collateral). To the extent permitted by applicable law, Borrower authorizes the Bank to file financing statements, continuation statements or amendments, and any such financing statements, continuation statements or amendments may be filed at any time in any jurisdiction. Bank may at any time and from time to time file financing statements, continuation statements and amendments thereto which contain any information required by the Code for the sufficiency or filing office acceptance of any financing statement, continuation statement or amendment, including whether Borrower is an organization, the type of organization and any organization identification number issued to Borrower. Borrower agrees to furnish any such information to Bank promptly upon request. In addition, Borrower shall at any time and from time to time take such steps as Bank may reasonably request for Bank (i) to obtain an acknowledgment, in form and substance satisfactory to Bank, of any bailee having possession of any of the Collateral that the bailee holds such Collateral for Bank, (ii) to obtain "control" (as defined in the Code) of any Collateral comprised of deposit accounts, electronic chattel paper, letter of credit rights or investment property, with any agreements establishing control to be in form and substance satisfactory to Bank, and (iii) otherwise to insure the continued perfection and priority of Bank's security interest in any of the Collateral and the preservation of its rights therein. Borrower hereby constitutes Bank its attorney-in-fact to execute, if necessary, and file all filings required or so requested for the foregoing purposes, all acts of such attorney being hereby ratified and confirmed; and such power, being coupled with an interest, shall be irrevocable until this Agreement terminates in accordance with its terms, all Obligations are irrevocably paid in full and the Collateral is released.

The Borrower agrees to execute, re-execute, cause any Guarantor(s) or other third party(ies) involved in the loan transaction to execute and/or re-execute and to deliver to Bank or its legal counsel, as may be deemed appropriate, any document or instrument signed in connection with the Loan(s) which was incorrectly drafted and/or signed, as well as any document or instrument which should have been signed at or prior to the closing of the Loan(s), but which was not so signed and delivered. Borrower agrees to comply with any written request by Bank within ten (10) days after receipt by Borrower of such request. Failure by Borrower to so comply shall, at the option of Bank, upon notice to Borrower, constitute an event of default under the Loan(s). The Borrower authorizes the Bank to make any credit inquiries Bank deems necessary and authorizes any person or credit reporting agency to give Bank a copy of the Borrower's credit report and any other financial information it may have.

7.11 Amendments and Waivers. This Agreement may be amended and Borrower may take any action herein prohibited, or omit to perform any act herein required to be performed by it, if Borrower shall obtain the Bank's prior written consent to each such amendment, action or omission to act. No course of dealing and no delay or omission on the part of Bank in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right or any other right and waiver on any one or more occasions shall not be construed as a bar to or waiver of any right or remedy of Bank on any future occasion.

7.12 Terms of Agreement. This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect so long as any Obligations or obligation of Borrower to Bank shall be outstanding, or the Bank shall have any obligation to extend any financial accommodation hereunder, and is supplementary to each and every other agreement between Borrower and Bank and shall not be so construed as to limit or otherwise derogate from any of the rights or remedies of Bank or any of the liabilities, obligations or undertakings of Borrower under any such agreement, nor shall any contemporaneous or subsequent agreement between Borrower and the Bank be construed to limit or otherwise derogate from any of the rights or remedies of Bank or any of the liabilities, obligations or undertakings of Borrower hereunder, unless such other agreement specifically refers to this Agreement and expressly so provides.

7.13 Notices. Any notice under or pursuant to this Agreement shall be a signed writing or other authenticated record (within the meaning of Article 9 of the Code). Any notices under or pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed duly received and effective if delivered in hand to any officer or agent of the Borrower or Bank, or if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the Borrower or Bank at the address set forth in this Agreement or as any party may from time to time designate by written notice to the other party; notwithstanding the foregoing notices to the Bank with respect to accounting and collateral release and notices to the Trustee pursuant to a Deed of Trust shall be sent to the Bank as follows: Attention: VP Loan Servicing, Loan Services, 6000 Atrium Way Mt. Laurel NJ 08054.

7.14 Governing Law. This Agreement shall take effect as a sealed instrument and has been executed or completed and/or is to be performed in Pennsylvania, and it and all transactions thereunder or pursuant thereto shall be governed as to interpretation, validity, effect, rights, duties and remedies of the parties thereunder and in all other respects by the laws of Pennsylvania without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

7.15 Reproductions. This Agreement and all documents which have been or may be hereinafter furnished by Borrower to the Bank may be reproduced by the Bank by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, xerographic or similar process, and any such reproduction shall be admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding (whether or not the original is in existence and whether or not such reproduction was made in the regular course of business).

7.16 Publicity and Signage. The Bank, in its sole discretion, shall have the right to announce and publicize the source of financing made pursuant to this Agreement, as it deems appropriate, by means and media selected by the Bank. Such publication shall include all pertinent information relating to such financing, including without limitation, the term, purpose, pricing, loan amount, name of borrowing entity and location of property. The Bank shall also have the right to display a sign at any real property respecting which the Bank has a security interest which indicates that the Bank is providing the financing. If such sign is provided, the Borrower shall cause the sign to be displayed as requested by the Bank and shall maintain such display during the period requested by the Bank. The form and content of the sign and/or published information shall be in the sole discretion of the Bank and shall be considered the sole and exclusive property of the Bank. All expenses related to publicizing the financing shall be the sole responsibility of the Bank.

7.17 Cancellation Fees. All fees required to cancel, satisfy or terminate the collateral documents securing this Loan shall be paid by Borrower at the time of payoff of the Loan.

7.18 Jurisdiction and Venue. Borrower irrevocably submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any Federal or state court sitting in Pennsylvania, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Borrower irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent it may effectively do so under applicable law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that the same has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Borrower hereby consents to any and all process which may be served in any such suit, action or proceeding, (i) by mailing a copy thereof by registered and certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Borrower's address shown in this Agreement or as notified to the Bank and (ii) by serving the same upon the Borrower in any other manner otherwise permitted by law, and agrees that such service shall in every respect be deemed effective service upon Borrower.

7.19 JURY WAIVER. THE BORROWER AND BANK EACH HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY, AND AFTER AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSULT WITH LEGAL COUNSEL, (A) WAIVE ANY AND ALL RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE OBLIGATIONS, ALL MATTERS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND DOCUMENTS EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HERewith AND (B) AGREE NOT TO SEEK TO CONSOLIDATE ANY SUCH ACTION WITH ANY OTHER ACTION IN WHICH A JURY TRIAL CANNOT BE, OR HAS NOT BEEN, WAIVED. THE BORROWER CERTIFIES THAT NEITHER THE BANK NOR ANY OF ITS REPRESENTATIVES, AGENTS OR COUNSEL HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT THE BANK WOULD NOT IN THE EVENT OF ANY SUCH PROCEEDING SEEK TO ENFORCE THIS WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.
