MANAGEMENT INFORMATION CIRCULAR

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

This Management Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Management of Glyko Biomedical Ltd. (the "Corporation") for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Corporation (the "Meeting") to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the attached Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders. It is anticipated that the solicitation will be by mail primarily, but proxies may also be solicited personally by regular employees of the Corporation. The cost of such solicitation will be borne by the Corporation.

The form of proxy forwarded to Shareholders with the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders confers discretionary authority upon the proxy nominees with respect to various matters identified in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders or other matters which may properly come before the Meeting.

The form of proxy affords the Shareholder the opportunity to specify that the shares registered in his name shall be voted or withheld from voting on and to vote for or against any ballot that may be called for, in accordance with the specifications made by Shareholders.

In respect of proxies in which the Shareholders have not specified that the proxy nominees are required to vote for or withhold from voting, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted for the applicable resolutions.

APPOINTMENT AND REVOCATION OF PROXIES

A Shareholder has the right to appoint a person (who need not be a Shareholder) to attend and act for him and on his behalf at the Meeting other than the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy. Such right may be exercised by striking out the names of the persons designated in the enclosed form of proxy and by inserting in the blank space provided for that purpose the name of the desired person or by completing another proper form of proxy and, in either case, delivering the completed and executed proxy to the registered office of the Corporation or the Corporation's transfer agent not less than 48 hours (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the time of the Meeting or with the Chairman of the Meeting before the time of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

A Shareholder who has given a proxy may revoke it at any time in so far as it has not been exercised. A proxy may be revoked, as to any matter on which a vote shall not already have been cast pursuant to the authority conferred by such proxy, by instrument in writing executed by the Shareholder or by his attorney authorized in writing or, if the Shareholder is a body corporate, under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized, and deposited either at the registered office of the Corporation at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, at which the proxy is to be used or with the Chairman of such Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, and upon either of such deposits the proxy is revoked. A proxy may also be revoked in any other manner permitted by law.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The articles of the Corporation provide that there shall be cumulative voting for the election of directors. Therefore, each shareholder of the Corporation entitled to vote for the election of directors has the right to cast a number of votes equal to the number of votes attached to all the shares held by him multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. A shareholder may cast all such votes in favour of one candidate or distribute them among the candidates in such manner as he sees fit.

For example, if a shareholder holds 100 Common Shares and desires to vote them for the election of directors, the shareholder would be entitled to cast 600 votes, a number arrived at by multiplying the total number of Common Shares held by the shareholder by the number (6) of directors to be elected. The 600 votes resulting from such multiplication would be cast in favour of one candidate or distributed among any number of candidates in any portion desired.

If a shareholder votes for more than one candidate without specifying the distribution of his votes among the candidates, he will be deemed to have distributed his votes equally among the candidates for whom he voted. If the number of candidates nominated for director exceeds the number of positions to be filled, the candidates who receive the least number of votes shall be eliminated until the number of candidates remaining equal the number of positions to be filled. A separate vote of shareholders shall be taken with respect to each candidate nominated for director unless a resolution is passed unanimously permitting two or more persons to be elected by a single resolution.

The present term of office of each director of the Corporation will expire immediately prior to the election of directors at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Each of the persons whose name appears hereunder is proposed to be elected as a director of the Corporation to serve until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders or until his successor is elected or appointed. It is intended that on any ballot that may be called for relating to the election of directors the shares represented by the proxies in favour of Management nominees will be voted in favour of the election of the persons whose names are set out below, with such votes being equally distributed among such persons as directors of the Corporation. Unless a shareholder has specified in his proxy that his shares are to be withheld from voting in the event that any vacancies occur in the slate of Management nominees, it is intended that discretionary authority shall be exercised to vote the share represented by such proxies for the election of such other person or persons as directors in accordance with the best judgment of Management proxy nominees.

Management does not contemplate that any of the nominees will be unable to serve as a Director but if that should occur for any reason prior to the Meeting it is intended that discretionary authority shall be exercised by the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote the proxy for the election of any other person or persons in place of any nominee or nominees unable to serve.

Option Grants in 1998

Pursuant to the Corporation's stock option plan (the "Plan"), the Board of Directors may from time to time authorize the granting to directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Corporation of options to purchase up to 3,000,000 Common Shares. Granting of options in excess of the 3,000,000 share maximum is subject to shareholder approval. The exercise price of any option shall be fixed by the Board of Directors provided that such price may not be less than the market price of the Common Shares on the trading day prior to the date of grant. Payment of such exercise price must be made in full at the time of exercise.

Options under the Plan may be granted for any term up to ten years, are non-assignable, and are subject to earlier termination upon the termination of an optionee's employment for any cause including retirement, permanent disability but not death. In the event of death of an optionee, his estate may be entitled for a period of six months thereafter to exercise any option which a deceased optionee would have been entitled to exercise if then alive but in any event not after the date of expiration of the option. No individual may hold options to purchase more than 5% of the number of Common Shares outstanding from time to time.

The purpose of the Plan is to attract and motivate the directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Corporation and to advance the Corporation by affording such persons the opportunity to acquire an equity interest in the Corporation. In determining whether options will be granted, the Board of Directors will review the financial position of the Corporation, the performance of such individuals in carrying out their duties and their willingness to serve the needs of the Corporation in general and the general state of the financial markets.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 1998, the Compensation Committee comprised Messrs. Anderson and Williams. The Compensation Committee met on January 12, 1998. It is the responsibility of the Compensation Committee to determine the level of compensation in respect of the Corporation's senior executives with a view to providing such executives with a competitive compensation package having regard to performance. Performance is defined to include achievement of the Corporation's strategic objective of growth and the enhancement of shareholder value through increases in the stock price resulting from increases in sales and earnings in Glyko, Inc. and increase in value in its holdings of BioMarin.

Compensation for executive officers is composed primarily of three components; namely, base salary, performance bonuses and the granting of stock options. Performance bonuses are considered from time to time having regard to the above referenced objectives.

In establishing the levels of base salary, the award of stock options and performance bonuses the Compensation Committee takes into consideration individual performance, responsibilities, length of service and levels of compensation provided by industry competitors.

In April 1998, the Committee reviewed the initial compensation of Dr. Brandley in comparison to executives with similar responsibility, experience and autonomy and determined that his compensation would be competitive for positions with similar characteristics.

In 1997, the Board (acting to review compensation in lieu of a separate committee meeting) reviewed and set Dr. Klock's compensation at an annual rate of $250,000 which reflected the increased complexity of a new therapeutic subsidiary and the increased demands of such an increase in responsibility. The Board further agreed to a salary and general effort allocation of 30% to Glyko and 70% to BioMarin. In April 1998, Dr. Klock began to devote essentially all of his time to BioMarin and thereafter received no cash compensation as President of Glyko. Dr. Klock's base salary was not increased in 1998 under these circumstances.

Mr. Gwynn Williams

INTEREST OF INSIDERS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

To the best of the Corporation's knowledge, none of the directors, senior officers and principal shareholders of the Corporation or any respective associates or affiliates of any director, senior officer or principal shareholder of the Corporation had any direct or indirect interest in any material transactions of the Corporation entered into since January 1, 1998, save and except that:

On October 7, 1998, the Corporation sold 100% of the outstanding capital stock of Glyko, Inc. to BioMarin. As consideration for such sale, BioMarin issued 2,259,039 shares of common stock of BioMarin to the Corporation, agreed to assume options to purchase up to 585,969 Common Shares (which options were previously issued to employees of Glyko, Inc.) and paid the Corporation $500 in cash. The shares of BioMarin common stock were valued at $6.00 per share, yielding a total value of $13,554,234, and the options assumed were valued at $945,765, which, when combined with the $500 in cash, yields a total value for the consideration received of $14,500,499. As a result of the sale of Glyko, Inc. the Corporation's ownership interest in BioMarin increased to 41%. In conjunction with the sale of Glyko, Inc., the Corporation converted approximately U.S.$3.8 million of intercompany loan to equity in Glyko, Inc. The remaining balance of U.S.$1.2 million was repaid to the Corporation in cash. An independent committee of disinterested Directors of the Corporation reviewed the offers from BioMarin, negotiated changes in the size and structure of the payment for Glyko, Inc. and recommended that the Board approve the sale.

Mr. Williams, a Director and Shareholder of the Corporation, is also a Director of BioMarin and on November 17, 1997, was granted an option to purchase 20,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $1.00 per share for his services as a Director of BioMarin. In March 1999, Mr. Williams was granted an option to purchase 15,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $7.00 per share for his services as a Director of BioMarin.

Dr. Klock, President, Chief Executive Officer and Director of the Corporation, is also an officer of BioMarin and on October 1, 1997 purchased 800,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at $1.00 per share with a 3-year recourse note secured by the stock. On June 22, 1998, Dr. Klock was granted an option to purchase 300,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $4.00 per share. On January 15, 1999, Dr. Klock was granted an option to purchase 75,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $7.00 per share as long-term equity compensation.

Dr. Starr, formerly an officer of the Corporation, is also an officer of BioMarin and on October 1, 1997 purchased 400,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at $1.00 per share with a 3-year recourse note secured by the stock. On June 22, 1998, Dr. Starr was granted an option to purchase 200,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $4.00 per share. On January 15, 1999, Dr. Starr was granted an option to purchase 50,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $7.00 per share as long-term equity compensation.

Mr. R. William Anderson, a Director of the Corporation, is also an officer of BioMarin and on June 22, 1998, was granted an option to purchase 200,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $4.00 per share. On January 15, 1999, Mr. Anderson was granted an option to purchase 25,000 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $7.00 per share as long-term equity compensation. On March 22, 1999, Mr. Anderson was granted an option to purchase 4,573 shares of BioMarin's common stock at an exercise price of $7.00 per share.

LaMont Asset Management, S.A., a 12% Shareholder of the Corporation, is also owns 935,000 shares of BioMarin.

INDEBTEDNESS OF DIRECTORS
EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND SENIOR OFFICERS

Other than as described below, no director, senior officer or executive officer of the Corporation or associate of any director, senior officer or executive officer is, or at any time since the beginning of the most recently completed financial year has been, indebted to the Corporation.

Pursuant to the Share Exchange Agreement under which the Corporation sold Glyko, Inc. to BioMarin, the Corporation has loaned Cdn.$1,106,167 to Dr. John Klock to purchase Common Shares of the Corporation upon the exercise of stock options held by Dr. Klock as set forth below. The loans are evidenced by an interest bearing promissory notes due on demand.

The following table sets forth any indebtedness of directors, senior officers or executive officers of the Corporation entered into in connection with the purchase of securities of the Corporation.

Name of Borrower	Lender	Largest Amount of Outstanding Indebtedness	Outstanding Indebtedness as of December 31, 1998	Number of Common Shares Purchased	Security for Indebtedness
John C. Klock	Corporation	Cdn. $1,106,167	Cdn. $1,106,167	532,672	532,672 Common Shares

During fiscal 1997 Dr. Klock purchased 800,000 shares of common stock of BioMarin in exchange for a note maturing on July 31, 2000. The note is secured by the underlying stock.

Glyko Biomedical Ltd.

First Quarter Report
March 31, 1999

To our stockholders:

Since Glyko Biomedical Ltd.'s equity position in BioMarin Pharmaceutical Inc represents the principal asset of the Company, we submit the following report on major drug development programs in BioMarin for your review:

BioMarin completed what it believes is a successful pivotal clinical trial of (alpha)-L-iduronidase (BM101), as an enzyme replacement treatment for mucopolysaccharidosis-I disease called MPS-I. On behalf of the BioMarin-Genzyme joint venture, BioMarin intends to complete and file a Biological License Application (BLA) with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) in the second half of 1999. BioMarin believes that trial results are sufficient for approval of the BLA. BioMarin has begun a development effort for the treatment of MPS-VI, known as Maroteaux-Lamy syndrome, a genetic disorder caused by a deficiency of the enzyme N-acetylgalactosamine 4-sulfatase. Preclinical studies are being conducted on cats with feline MPS-VI. BioMarin believes that these studies will provide a sufficient basis with respect to the safety, efficacy and appropriate dosage to support an Investigational New Drug (IND) application to initiate human clinical trials. BioMarin intends to file an IND for this enzyme in the fourth quarter of 1999. BioMarin also intends to develop additional enzyme replacement therapies, like those already described, for other genetic diseases.

BM201 and BM202 are enzyme therapies for debridement of full thickness (third degree) burns. Burn studies in mice and pigs have been done without significant signs of topical or systemic toxicity. These enzymes significantly reduced the total time in which grafts were successfully made and wounds closed when compared to controls and to selected topical enzymatic products. The total time required for the debridement and graft take compared favorably to that obtained using standard surgical debridement techniques. BioMarin hopes to begin human trials in 1999.

BM301 and BM302 are recombinant forms of two naturally occurring enzymes, to treat aspergillosis, a serious fungal infection especially for immune-compromised patients. In preclinical studies on mice conducted at Boston University Medical Center, BM301 and BM302 effectively treated aspergillosis. No toxicity or other adverse side effects were observed in these animal studies. BioMarin intends to apply for FDA orphan drug designation for these anti-fungal enzymes and hopes to begin human studies after additional toxicology and efficacy studies.

This report contains forward-looking statements including, but not limited to, the prospects for the expected timing of filing of a BLA and INDs and the expected sufficiency of BM101 clinical data to support a possible BLA approval by the FDA. Actual results may differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements as a result of future business and technology developments, the progress of the BioMarin-Genzyme joint venture in developing its BLA, and decisions made by regulatory agencies.
