We may also provide a prospectus supplement to add information to, or update or change information contained in, this prospectus. To the extent there is a conflict between the information contained in this prospectus and the prospectus supplement, you should rely on the information in the prospectus supplement, provided that if any statement in one of these documents is inconsistent with a statement in another document having a later date—for example, a document incorporated by reference in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement-the statement in the later-dated document modifies or supersedes the earlier statement.

We have not authorized anyone to provide you with any information or to make any representations other than those contained in this prospectus, any applicable prospectus supplement or any free writing prospectuses prepared by or on behalf of us or to which we have referred you. SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The following table sets forth the beneficial ownership of our common stock by the selling stockholders as of the date of this prospectus, after giving effect to the Exchange Issuance.

On October 29, 2026, Xerox entered into an exchange support agreement (the "Exchange Support Agreement"), by and among Xerox, Xerox Corporation, a New York corporation ("Xerox Corp"), the subsidiary guarantors party thereto and certain holders (the "Exchanging Holders") of Xerox's 5.500% Senior Notes due 2028 (the "2028 Notes"). Pursuant to the Exchange Support Agreement, and upon the terms and subject to the conditions therein, Xerox, Xerox Corp and the subsidiary guarantors party thereto expect to enter into exchange agreements (the "Exchange Agreements") with the Exchanging Holders on November 13, 2026, pursuant to which the Exchanging Holders will exchange their 2028 Notes for (i) 10.250% Senior Secured First Lien Notes (2026 Issue) due 2030 newly issued by Xerox Corp, (ii) cash in respect of accrued and unpaid interest on the 2028 Notes and (iii) shares of common stock (such issuance, the "Exchange Issuance") or, in the case of any Exchanging Holder that is not able to hold equity due to prohibitions or limitations set forth in its constating or organizational documentation, an additional principal amount of such new notes.

We are registering the offer and sale of the common stock to satisfy our obligations pursuant to the Exchange Support Agreement and the Exchange Agreements, under which we have agreed or will agree to file a registration statement on Form S-3 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), registering the resale of such common stock. The foregoing summary and description of the Exchange Support Agreement and the Exchange Agreements do not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Exchange Support Agreement (including a copy of the form of Exchange Agreement attached as Exhibit B thereto), a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, and is incorporated herein by reference.

The percentage ownership information shown in the table is based upon 137,080,815 shares of common stock outstanding as of October 30, 2026, after giving effect to the Exchange Issuance. We have determined beneficial ownership in accordance with the rules of the SEC. These rules generally attribute beneficial ownership of securities to persons who possess sole or shared voting power or investment power with respect to those securities, or have the right to acquire such powers within 60 days. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed beneficial owner of the same securities and a person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities as to which such person has no economic interest. The information contained in the following table is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose, and the inclusion of any shares in the table does not constitute an admission of beneficial ownership of those shares. Unless otherwise indicated, the persons or entities identified in this table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares shown as beneficially owned by them, subject to applicable community property laws.

The following table also provides the maximum number of shares of our common stock that may be offered by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus and the number of shares of our common stock that will be beneficially owned by the selling stockholders after such an offering, assuming the sale of all of the offered shares.

The selling stockholders reserve the right to accept or reject, in whole or in part, any proposed sale of shares. The selling stockholders may also offer and sell less than the number of shares indicated or no shares. The selling stockholders are not making any representation that any shares covered by this prospectus will or will not be offered for sale. Information about each selling stockholder may change over time.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

As of the date of this prospectus, Xerox had one class of securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act: common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the "Common Stock"). The following summary of the terms of the Common Stock is not meant to be complete and is qualified by reference to the relevant provisions of New York law and the Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Charter") and Amended and Restated By-Laws (the "Bylaws") of Xerox.

Dividend Rights and Restrictions

Holders of Common Stock are entitled to dividends as and when declared by the board of directors of Xerox out of the net assets legally available therefor. All shares of Common Stock are entitled to participate equally in such dividends. There are no restrictions on the payment of dividends or purchase or redemption of Common Stock under the Charter or the Bylaws, provided that all dividends for past periods and the dividends for the current quarter on any outstanding preferred stock and retirement, purchase or sinking fund requirements thereon, if any, will have been paid or provided for.

Voting Rights

Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote per share subject to the right of the holders of any outstanding preferred stock, if six quarterly dividends (whether or not consecutive) thereon are in default, to elect, voting as a class, two additional members to Xerox's board of directors, which right continues until the default is cured. In addition, the separate vote or consent of the holders of outstanding preferred stock is required to authorize certain corporate action.

Liquidation Rights

Holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive Xerox's net assets, on a pro-rata basis, upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of Xerox, after the payment in full of all preferential amounts to which the holders of any then-outstanding shares of preferred stock shall be entitled.

Preemptive Rights

Holders of Common Stock do not possess preemptive rights or subscription rights to any additional issues of any class of the capital stock or any of Xerox's other securities.

Liability to Further Calls or Assessments

Based on the advice of counsel, all the issued and outstanding Common Stock is fully paid and non-assessable.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for the Common Stock is Computershare Trust Company, N.A., and any successor appointed in such capacity.

Listing

The Common Stock is listed and traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "XRX."

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the common stock on behalf of the selling stockholders pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Agreements.

The selling stockholders may from time to time offer some or all of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended and supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution.

The selling stockholders may offer the common stock from time to time, either in increments or in a single transaction. Each selling stockholder may also decide not to sell all the shares such selling stockholder is allowed to sell under this prospectus. The selling stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or quoted or in private transactions. These sales may be at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, at fixed prices or negotiated prices. The selling stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares of common stock:

- purchases by dealers and agents who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholders or the purchasers of the shares of common stock;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- non-marketed block trades in which a broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- settlement of short sales, or transactions to cover short sales relating to the common stock;
- through distribution by a selling stockholder to its members, general or limited partners or shareholders (or their respective members, general or limited partners or shareholders);
- writing of options, whether the options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;
- agreements with broker-dealers to sell a specified number of the securities at a stipulated price per share;
- through trading plans entered into by the selling stockholders pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 under the Exchange Act that are in place at the time of an offering pursuant to this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement hereto that provide for periodic sales of their securities on the basis of parameters described in such trading plans;
- directly to purchasers, including through a specific bidding, auction or other process;
- on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, including Nasdaq;

- in the over-the-counter market;
- in transactions otherwise than on such exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market;
- any other method permitted by applicable law; or
- a combination of any such methods of sale.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, enter into option or other types of transactions that require the selling stockholders to deliver common stock to a broker-dealer or any other person, who will then resell or transfer the common stock under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may also sell shares under any available exemption to the registration requirements of the Securities Act, including but not limited to Rule 144 under the Securities Act, rather than under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may enter into sale, forward sale and derivative transactions with third parties, or may sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. In connection with those sale, forward sale or derivative transactions, the third parties may sell shares of common stock covered by this prospectus, including by issuing securities that are not covered by this prospectus but are exchangeable for or represent beneficial interests in shares of common stock. The third parties also may use shares received under those sale, forward sale or derivative arrangements or shares borrowed from the selling stockholders or others to settle such third-party sales or to close out any related open borrowings of shares of common stock. The third parties may deliver this prospectus in connection with any such transactions. Any third party in such sale transactions may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act and will be identified in a supplement to this prospectus or post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part as may be required.

Resales by the selling stockholders may be made directly to investors or through securities firms acting as brokers or dealers. Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in sales. When resales are to be made through a securities firm, the securities firm may be engaged to act as the selling stockholder's agent in the resale of common stock by the selling stockholders, or the securities firm may purchase common stock from the selling stockholders as principal and thereafter resell those shares from time to time. Securities firms may, to the extent permissible, also engage in crosses, which are transactions where the same securities firm acts as an agent for both sides of a transaction. Securities firms may, to the extent permissible, receive compensation in the form of commissions, concessions or discounts from the selling stockholders or the purchaser, either as agent of such purchaser or in a sale to such purchaser as principal in amounts to be negotiated. Such compensation may be in excess of customary commissions, concessions or discounts and will be in amounts to be negotiated in connection with such resales.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, pledge or grant a security interest in some shares of common stock owned by them and, if any selling stockholder defaults in the performance of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell such shares of common stock, from time to time, under this prospectus, or under an amendment or supplement to this prospectus amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus. The selling stockholders also may transfer shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the permitted transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

The selling stockholders may elect to make an in-kind distribution of common stock to their members, partners or shareholders pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part by delivering a prospectus. To the extent that such members, partners or shareholders are not affiliates of ours, such members, partners or shareholders would thereby receive freely tradable shares of common stock pursuant to the distribution through this prospectus.

To the extent necessary, the specific terms of the offering of the shares of common stock, including the number of shares being offered, the name of the selling stockholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any broker-dealer or agent, if any, and any applicable compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions paid to agents or paid or allowed to dealers will be set forth in a supplement to this prospectus or a post-effective amendment to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

Any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any compensation received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Discounts, concessions, commissions and other compensation, if any, that can be attributed to the sale of shares of common stock sold hereunder will be paid by the selling stockholders and/or the purchasers.

We are required pursuant to the Exchange Agreements to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares (including the reasonable and documented fees and disbursements of counsel to the selling stockholders), but we will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock sold pursuant to this prospectus. The Exchange Agreement contains customary cross-indemnification provisions, under which we are obligated to indemnify the selling stockholders in the event of material misstatements or omissions in the registration statement attributable to us, and the selling stockholders are obligated to indemnify us for material misstatements or omissions attributable to it.

VALIDITY OF THE SECURITIES

The validity of the securities described in this prospectus will be passed upon for us by Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, New York, New York. Additional legal matters may be passed on for us, or any dealers or agents, by counsel we will name in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 721 of the New York Business Corporation Law (the "NYBCL") provides that, in addition to indemnification provided in Article 7 of the NYBCL, a corporation may indemnify a director or officer by a provision contained in the certificate of incorporation or by-laws or by a duly authorized resolution of its shareholders or directors or by agreement, provided that no indemnification may be made to or on behalf of any director or officer if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer establishes that his acts were committed in bad faith or were the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and were material to the cause of action, or that such director or officer personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which he was not legally entitled.

Section 722(a) of the NYBCL provides that a corporation may indemnify a director or officer made, or threatened to be made, a party to any action other than a derivative action, whether civil or criminal, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action or proceeding or any appeal therein, if such director or officer acted in good faith, for a purpose which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, in criminal actions or proceedings, in addition, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 722(c) of the NYBCL provides that a corporation may indemnify a director or officer, made or threatened to be made, a party in a derivative action, against amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred by the director or officer in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or in connection with an appeal therein if such director or officer acted, in good faith, for a purpose which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification will be available under Section 722(c) of the NYBCL in respect of a threatened or pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of, or any claim as to which such director or officer shall have been adjudged liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action was brought, or, if no action was brought, any court of competent jurisdiction, determines, upon application, that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the director or officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such portion of the settlement amount and expenses as the court deems proper.

Section 723 of the NYBCL specifies the manner in which payment of indemnification under Section 722 of the NYBCL or indemnification permitted under Section 721 of the NYBCL may be authorized by the corporation. It provides that indemnification may be authorized by the corporation. It provides that indemnification by a corporation is mandatory in any case in which the director or officer has been successful, whether on the merits or otherwise, in defending an action. In the event that the director or officer has not been successful or the action is settled, indemnification must be authorized by the appropriate corporate action as set forth in Section 723.

Section 724 of the NYBCL provides that, upon application by a director or officer, indemnification may be awarded by a court to the extent authorized. Section 722 and Section 723 of the NYBCL contain certain other miscellaneous provisions affecting the indemnification of directors and officers.

Section 726 of the NYBCL authorizes the purchase and maintenance of insurance to indemnify (1) a corporation for any obligation which it incurs as a result of the indemnification of directors and officers under the provisions of Article 7 of the NYBCL, (2) directors and officers in instances in which they may be indemnified by the corporation under the provisions of Article 7 of the NYBCL, and (3) directors and officers in instances in which they may not otherwise be indemnified by the corporation under the provisions of Article 7 of the NYBCL, provided the contract of insurance covering such directors and officers provides, in a manner acceptable to the New York State Superintendent of Financial Services, for a retention amount and for co-insurance.

The foregoing statements are subject to the detailed provisions of Sections 721-726 of the NYBCL and the Charter and Bylaws of Xerox Holdings Corporation and the Restated Certificate of Incorporation.

Certificate of Incorporation

The Charter of Xerox Holdings Corporation contains no indemnification provisions.

Bylaws

The Bylaws of Xerox Holdings Corporation provide that the corporation shall indemnify any person made or threatened to be made a party in any civil or criminal action or proceeding, including an action or proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in favor of the corporation or by or in the right of any other corporation of any type or kind, domestic or foreign, or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, which any director or officer of the corporation served in any capacity at the request of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he or her, his or her testator or intestate is or was a director or officer of the corporation or serves or served such other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, in any capacity, against judgments, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with such action or proceeding, or any appeal therein, provided that no such indemnification shall be required with respect to any settlement unless the corporation shall have given its prior approval thereto. The Amended and Restated By-Laws of Xerox Holdings Corporation also give the covered persons the right to be paid advances of any expenses they incurred in connection with such action, suit or proceedings, consistent with the applicable law, and allow the corporation to extend rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses to such covered persons by resolutions of shareholders or directors or through an agreement, to the extent not expressly prohibited by law.

Item 16. Exhibits.

See the "Exhibit Index," which follows the signature pages to this registration statement and is herein incorporated by reference.

Item 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5) or (b)(7) as part of the registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which the prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
